P R E F A C E.

SINCE the publication of my GENERAL CATALOGUE OF BOOKS in October, 1874, Providence has favoured me with health and strength to issue this SUPPLEMENT, first in monthly numbers, dated from November 1874 to February 1877, and now in a collected form with an INDEX made by a junior cataloguer.

This SUPPLEMENT contains

21,470 articles, or probably 80,000 volumes, many of the single descriptions representing several copies of a work.

The GENERAL CATALOGUE contained

22,854 articles, or probably 100,000 volumes ; in all 44,324 articles ; that is, not much under 200,000 volumes.

It is with gratitude to my customers that I mention these statistics, as their patronage has enabled me to buy in such a short time another collection second to none ever offered for sale, except that comprised in my General Catalogue.

Hardly any repetitions occur in the two Catalogues, except in the case of my own Publications and Remainders: of Old Books only bonâ fide new acquisitions have been recorded in the present volume.

Besides my purchases of OLD BOOKS in all parts of Great Britain and Ireland and on the Continent, I have bought the most valuable portion of MR. HENRY G. BOHN's remainder-stock, and I have PUBLISHED some works, such as the reprint of DIGBY's Broad-Stone of Honour, 5 vols. and LADY CHARLOTTE GUEST's MABINOGION, 1 vol. ; Dr. Lee's Glossary of Ecclesiastical Terms, 1 vol. ; and new editions of Rodwell's Koran, 1 vol., Kemble's Anglo-Saxons, 2 vols., etc. I now find however, that these speculations have locked up too much of my capital, and I shall therefore gradually disperse my wholesale stock to devote the remainder of my life to the RETAIL business ; the department in which I find the public most desires my services.

I am aided in my business by a thoroughly efficient staff of assistants trained under myself, so that all Orders for Old Books, Periodicals, issues from private presses, etc. whether in stock or not, can be promptly supplied.

PUBLIC INSTITUTIONS and GENTLEMEN desirous of forming or improving their LIBRARIES may always obtain from me disinterested advice.

NEW BOOKS, English and Foreign, are rarely kept in stock, but they can easily be supplied.

The very circumstance that I shall withdraw my capital and labour from my publishing business will enable me to devote myself with increased energy to my old book business. A NEW GENERAL CATALOGUE is now being commenced, which will include the unsold stock of the General Catalogue and Supplement, 2 vols. 1874-77, and the vast new acquisitions I have made this year, as well as the further purchases as they come in almost daily.

So extensive and constant is the flow of new stock into my house, that I entreat all enthusiastic COLLECTORS to call twice a-week, to inspect my latest purchases. Many a rarity and many a bargain are thus secured.

Of my GENERAL CATALOGUE of 1874 very few copies remain for sale, price £4. 4s. Only five hundred copies of it having been printed, while there are a thousand of this SUPPLEMENT, the former will long preserve its commercial value.

Begging my patrons and the learned public for further patronage,

I remain their devoted servant,

BERNARD QUARITCH.

LONDON, October, 1877.

* * * I continue to attend personally all the most important sales of books, and shall always be ready to execute promptly commissions entrusted to me.

ALCHIN—see Kelham.

- 1 ARISTOTLE. Liber Moraliū de Regimine Dominorū qui dicitur SECRETUM SECRETORUM, editus ab Aristotile phylosopho phylosophorum, small 8vo. neat Italian Manuscript on vellum, the first page and the initials ornamented with gold, bound in vellum, £2. 2s

Hunc librum scribi fecit S. Dns. Rodulphus de Feusigniaco—Hoc opus fuit rescriptum
prout in exemplari fuit repertum. (About A.D. 1460.)

A curious little book on the duties of government by princes, dedicated to "Guido de Valentia Trippolis pontifex" (Gui de Valence, Bishop of Tripolis in Syria) by "Philippus suorum minimus clericorum,"—who professes to have translated it from the Arabic original, found by him when with the Crusaders in the Holy Land.

- 1*ARMORIAL: An Ordinary of Arms, containing several hundred Coats of Arms, many in colours, in one thick volume, 4to. hf. morocco, £2.

A good beginning of a valuable work: an industrious Herald would find plenty of occupation in completing it.

A famous Casuistic Dictionary completed in the year 1338 by its author who died soon afterwards. He was a Dominican friar, a native of Pisa.

- 3 BIBLIA SACRA LATINA, cum Interpretationibus Hebræorum Nominum, &c. FINE Manuscript on extremely delicate Vellum, ornamented with initial letters and borders, with painted figures in the Old English style, and illuminated in gold and colours, gilt edges, £15. 15s cir. A. D. 1300
- 4 CHRONICLES of ENGLONDE, small folio, English MS. on VELLUM, without the beginning, but commencing with the reign of Knoch (Canute) and Edmond Irensyde, and proceeding to the fifth year of the reign of Henry IV (1404), bound in half morocco, £25. written about 1420

This is the celebrated Chronicle of Brute, which Caxton printed in 1480, and corresponds with tolerable accuracy to the printed edition, except of course in the orthography and occasional turns of phrase which Caxton modernized in his book. There are few copies of the MS. now in existence, especially on vellum, and so far as they seem to be known, most of them are locked up in public libraries.

- 5 CICEKONIS RHETORICORUM NOVORUM AD HERENNII LIBER, (libri quatuor) sm. 8vo. FINE Manuscript on Vellum, with border, initial letter containing miniature and numerous capitals, finely illuminated in gold and colours, velvet, gilt edges, £15. 15s SEC. XV

With some Observations or Notes uppon severall Passages in the same Bookes; A° Dñi 1650, 12mo. neat Manuscript on paper, blue morocco, gilt edges, £8. 8s 1650

A very interesting little volume forestalling by a couple of centuries the labours of modern scholars in the same direction.

- 7 COSMOGRAPHIA, a Latin Manuscript, in Two Books, with 34 Drawings and Diagrams, vellum, £5. about 1680
- 8 ENGLISH POETRY (Unpublished) of the Seventeenth Century, folio, a very curious volume in neat MS. including Epigrams, Riddles, Epitaphs, Love Songs, and other amatory Pieces, some very free and at least half of them UNPUBLISHED, £20. circa 1630

On the inside of the cover is written: "My cousin Chute gave me this book out of his father's study at the Vine, Hampshire."

An alphabetical table will be found at the end, in the same handwriting as the rest of the volume. Some of the pieces possess high poetical merit, and deserve consideration from students of English literature in the early days of Charles I. Amongst the writers are Francis Beaumont, James Shirley, Robert Herrick, Thomas Carew, Richard Corbet, William Stroud, (Sir) Henry Blount, Henry King, Jasper Mayne, John Grange, Humphrey Ilide, (Sir George) Chudleigh, Alexander Gill, Barton Holiday, George Morley, Walter Poole, Nicholas Oldisworth, Will Davenant, (Bishop) Juxon, and Thomas Mey. It will be observed that many of these names are unknown in published literature; and that the bibliophile who secures the above volume, will add a book of signal value to a collection of old English poetry. One of the pieces by William Stroud is upon the beauty of Fairford Windows. An unsigned one, begins as follows, with a phrase which brings Lord Byron to one's memory:

"I lovd thee once, Ile love no more Thine be the griefe as is the blame;"

and, if unpublished, deserves to be given to public notice as a very beautiful lyric.

- 9 EVANGELISTARIUM Græcum, small 4to. Byzantine MS. on vellum, slightly defective, bound in russia neat, £2. 16s about A. D. 1100
- 9*GETIJDENBOEK. Book of Hours (in Dutch), with Calendar, 12mo. Manuscripts beautifully written on 221 leaves of Vellum, with TEN MINIATURES and borders in gold and colours, initial letters, etc. a fine Manuscript in contemporary calf binding, with silver clasps, £12. Sec. XV

The Miniatures in this volume demand attention, both for the beauty of execution and their uncommon style, most of them being in an elegant kind of grisaille rarely seen and differing from the French camaiou-gris, with slight reliefs in gold and the deeper shadows in black,

- 10 EVANGELIA IV, LATINE. Item Eusebii Canones, Hieronymi Epistolæ ad Damasum, Argumenta et Prologi, &c. square folio, Manuscript on Vellum, finely written in French-Roman Minuscules, with Rubrics and plain Roman marginal initials in scarlet and green, having the Canons of Eusebius written between elegant columns supporting arches of painted Architecture, in which even the kinds of stone or marble are represented, several of the bases and capitals being ornamented with human and animal figures. At end in a different but almost contemporary hand-writing are added "Benedictio Vestimentorum; Oracio quando Abbas ordinatur in Monasterio; Consecratio Manuum;" and a list of Rents due from various places in Lorraine, calf, £120. Inventory of Furniture, etc. received from Sir Anthony Denny, Keeper of the King's Palace of Westminster, by Humfrey Orme, keeper of the Standing Wardrobe in the Tower of London, for the use of the King (Edward VI) by command of the Lord Proctor, 9 July. 1 Edw. VI.

This is a very interesting record, describing the various pieces embroidered with the King's Arms, the King and Queen Jane's arms together crowned within a garland of Roses, the History of Joseph, of the 12 Months, of David and Absalom, of our Lady and Angels playing upon Instruments, of the Acts of the Apostles, etc. The CLOTHS OF ESTATE, garnished with precious stones; the CARPETS and CUSHIONS of gold, silver and silk needlework, with Queen Anne Bullen's Cyphers, the letters H. and A., roses of red and white, etc.; a carpet of arras "with woodewithes and men of Inde with the Dukes Armes in thre places;" a cushion embroidered "with Scallop Shells with Quene Katheryns Cognizance and this worde, I like as he loveth," etc.

These Manuscripts are worthy of publication, the marginal notes made subsequently as to the state and disposal of the different articles are very interesting—certain cushions used by the King and Queen (Philip and Mary) at the Church door at Winchester, a bedstead altered for King Edward VI, various articles specified as having been given to Lord W. Howard, then Lord Admiral, Sir Edward Waldegrave, Sir Henry Jernegan, and others.

- 12 HORÆ BEATÆ MARIÆ VIRGINIS, in usum Romanum, cum Calendario, sm. 4to. Manuscript on Vellum, by a North French Scribe, ornamented with numerous capital letters, elegant borders, and 24 MINIATURES, richly illuminated in gold and colours, some leaves cut out, old French red morocco, covered with gold tooling, £35. circ. 1400

The Calendar is unusually full of Saints' names, many of them English and little known. Some of the Miniatures display considerable artistic skill, and do not belong to the ordinary species of such works. There are large pictures of St. George and the Dragon, St. Catherine, St. Anthony, St. Denis, and other designs not usually seen in Books of Hours.

- 13 HORÆ BEATÆ MARIE VIRGINIS secundum Usum Romanum cum Calendario, sm. 8vo. French (not Flemish) MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM (with rubric and prayers in French), numerous CAPITAL LETTERS, BORDERS, and 15 MINIATURES, finely illuminated in gold and colours, black morocco, gilt edges, £28. cir. 1430
- 14 HORÆ BEATÆ MARIE VIRGINIS, cum Calendario, sm. 8vo. MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM, within elegant floriated borders, richly ornamented with numerous capital letters, and 56 MINIATURES (15 large and 41 small, including the 24 illustrating the Calendar), finely executed in gold and colours by a French artist, and having additional services (printed) inserted at end, old French brown morocco, gilt edges, £20. Sec. XV
- 15 HORÆ BEATÆ MARIE VIRGINIS secundum consuetudinem Romanæ Curiae, cum Calendario, 16mo. Manuscript on Vellum, with 15 Miniatures and Borders, illuminated in gold and colours, a curious specimen of Italian Art, blue morocco, joints, silk linings, gilt edges, by Chilliati, £36. Sec. XV
The larger painting prefixed to the Officium Mortuorum is singular in its subject and its execution.
- 16 HEURES DE NOSTRE DAME, sm. 4to. illuminated MS of the 15th century on 186 leaves of fine vellum, by a French scribe, in fine and perfect condition, with eleven Miniatures well executed, very numerous initial letters in gold and colours, and nearly every page illuminated with delicately drawn scroll ornaments down the margin, in the ancient olive morocco binding, with a cipher composed of a triangle and 3 circles interlaced, £40. cir. A.D. 1450
- 17 HORÆ BEATÆ MARIE VIRGINIS ALIAQUE OFFICIA secundum Usum Romanum, cum Calendario, 4to. Manuscript on Vellum, illuminated throughout with borders of Pen-Tracery (with gilded leaves, coloured flowers and foliage) and numerous capital letters (the initials of the several Hours being very rich and beautifully painted). The Calendar is written in gold, azure and crimson, with three-side borders, in which are depicted 24 Miniatures (representing the signs of the Zodiac and the occupations for the different Months) of great merit and beauty. In addition this beautiful MS. which is unfortunately imperfect, is ornamented with 4 large and 17 small MINIATURES, finely illuminated in gold and colours, and highly finished with great pictorial skill, red velvet, gilt edges, £65. SEC. XV
This beautiful Manuscript was purchased by Sir William Tite, as "An exquisite illuminated Missal, of the finest period of the art, with forty-six miniatures and rich arabesque borders. This beautiful Missal belonged to Mary (sister of Henry VIII). Dowager Queen of France, and Duchess of Suffolk. Her autograph is on the first leaf. It was purchased at the sale of the Duchess of Portland's Collection." With regard to this autograph, see Sir W. Tite's Lecture on illuminated Manuscripts, in which this volume is described. He says: On a leaf opposite the commencement appears the name "Marie de Suffi," intended for that of Mary Tudor, daughter of Henry VII, Queen-Dowager of France, and third wife of Charles Brandon Fourth Duke of Suffolk, but it is no doubt a fictitious signature." A long printed description of the MS. and its adornments is inserted in the volume.
- 18 HORÆ. Hier beghynē Onser lieū Vrouwē Getidē in Duytsche, 12mo. cir. A.D. 1480-1561

Early MSS. in Irish are of extraordinary rarity; and the present is one of particular interest as being the Book of a celebrated family of Irish scribes, and one to which later writers have made frequent reference. Of some (but according to Mr. O'Curry's list, only a few) of the pieces in this volume there are copies existing in the libraries of the Royal Irish Academy and of Dublin University; and it will readily be conceded by those who know the subject that nothing of the kind has occurred in the public sales for many years of equal importance with the Leabhar ui-Maolconaire.

- 24 JOHANNIS ALFONSI de Benavento Repetitio de Potestate et Arbitrio Confessoris et de Canonibus Penitentialibus et de actibus confessoris, small 4to. MS. on Vellum, the first page decorated with an elegant border and initial letter, within which is contained a fine miniature representing the author's presentation of his book, in the original boards, covered with impressed leather, £10. 10s Tejares prope Salamanticam, 1455-56

The author, a Decretorum Doctor, notices in his final inscription that he put the last touch to his work in Tejares whilst the plague was rife in Salamanca.

- 26 LECTIONARIUM, CONTINENS EPISTOLAS et EVANGELIA, very BEAUTIFUL MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM, each page richly ornamented with initial letters illuminated in gold and colours, and having the first line of the Epistle or Gospel of the Day written in capital letters of silver, in the original oak boards covered with stamped leather and protected by clasps, sm. folio, in a morocco case, £650. SÆC. XI

This magnificent specimen of early Calligraphy and Ornamentation was probably executed in Bavaria, as on the fly-leaf is written "Liber iste pertinet ad Monasterium Ottenburen," that is the famous Monastery of Ottenbeuren in Bavaria.

- 27 LECTIONARIUM ET SEQUENTIE CUM ANTIPHONARIO ET ORATIONIBUS PRO FESTIS ECCLESIE ROMANÆ, a magnificent MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM, with Intitulations in letters of gold, by an Italian Scribe, richly ornamented with initial letters exquisitely painted in glowing colours, heightened with gold, and eight excellent Paintings with superb borders executed in the highest style of the finest period of Italian Art, most probably by TADEO MINIATORE (Pope Leo Xth's famous Illuminator), oak boards, covered with crimson velvet, with gilt corners and clasps, the centre ornaments being four Nielli (portraits of Leo X and Cardinal Bembo on obverse and their arms on reverse of covers), beautifully engraved, and almost certainly from the hand of BENVENUTO CELLINI, £120. folio, circ. A.D. 1540

"THIS SUPERB MANUSCRIPT is said to have been the gift of Pope Leo X to Cardinal Bembo, and is certainly one of the most beautiful specimens of Italian ornamentation ever offered for sale." The preceding note by Sir William Tite is somewhat croneous, as Leo X had been eighteen years in his grave when Cardinal Bembo received his hat. But Pietro Bembo may have had the MS. presented to him by his friend and patron Leo X; and afterwards, on being decorated with the purple, employed his friend and protégé Benvenuto to engrave the portraits and escutcheons on the memorial volumes. At least we know that Benvenuto executed a medal of Bembo before the latter became cardinal in 1539; another begun before and ended after that event; and a third on which Mazzuchelli thinks he was at work in 1546. See Vita di Cellini, 8vo. Milano, 1806, page 303, where one of those portraits is described in such a way as to show its identity of character with that on the MS.

The eight paintings represent—I. Birth of Christ; II. Christ rising from the Tomb; III. Nativity of St. John the Baptist; IV. St. Augustin expounding to four kneeling Monks; V. Saint John writing his Gospel; VI. Visit of the Three Maries to the Sepulchre; VII. High Priests and Scribes; VIII. Four Monks praying beside the Corpse of a Bishop; beneath each of which is a magnificently painted border. Altogether these two volumes, formerly in the possession of Count Ciegognara, form a gem of the highest value, and would grace even the noblest library.

About A.D. 1100

- 28* LECTIONARIUM, Græce, sm. 4to. MS. on 162 leaves of vellum, defective at beginning and end, bound in vellum, £6. 10s About the year 1100

- 29 LECTIONARIUM, Latine, 4to. MS. on Vellum, containing the Scriptural extracts in use throughout the year, with the accompanying Prayers and the Music of the Chants, wanting the first leaf, ancient binding, £16. 16s circ. A.D. 1100

There is a memorandum written in A.D. 1222, in the Castle of Waldeck.

- 29* METRICAL CHRONICLE of England, from William the Conqueror to Henry VI, ROLLED MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM, £8. 8s cir. 1490

A similar Chronicle (but varying in many particulars) was printed by Hearne in the Appendix to his Robert of Gloucester, where it is entitled "A Petegrue from William Conquerour, of the Crowne of Engelonde, lynnyally descending unto Kyng Henry VI."

The original Chronicle was compiled about the year 1430 odd, and the present copy although apparently not made till about the end of the century, bears no alteration or addition of any kind.

- 30 Music and Dancing. A Collection of Dance Tunes, with Music, figures of Dances and directions in Italian, square 12mo. MS. on paper, bound in vellum, with another MS. of Dance Tunes, with music and figures, the headings in French, inserted at the end, 12mo. £1. 7s *Sec. XVIII

- 31 PECOCK (Bp. Reginald) Ye donet of cristen religion and ye gaderid counceles of Seint Ysidre, sm. 8vo. an ENGLISH MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM, morocco, £36. circ. 1460

At the end of the "Gaderid Couceles of Seint Ysidre" there are some pages of curious English rhymes, from which I extract the following:—

"Erthe upon Erthe wolde be a King
 But how Erth schal to Erthe thenkith he nothing
 Erthe upon erthe wyfieth castels and touris
 Thanne seith Erthe to Erthe, this is al ouris
 Erthe gooth upon erthe as molde upon molde
 So gooth erthe upon erthe al glitering in gold
 Lyk as erthe unto erth neuer go schuld
 And zit schal erthe unto erthe rather than he wolde."

See the account of this MS. in Mr. C. Babington's edition of "Pecock's Repressor," 1860. The work was composed about 1450, and in the copy above described all the first part is contemporary with its original, while the second part is but little later.

- 32 PETRARCA (F.) 'Rime, sm. 4to. Manuscript on Vellum, by a Venetian Scribe, with 7 Miniatures and numerous initial letters, finely illuminated in gold and colours, olive morocco joints, gilt edges, by C. Lewis; from the library of Dr. E. C. Hawtrej, Head-Master and Provost of Eton, £31. 10s about 1460

A most valuable Manuscript, in which there is a Sonnet, which Dr. Hawtrej was unable to find in other Manuscripts or in any printed edition.

- 33 PETRARCHA (Franciescho) Trionfi, Sonetti et Canzoni, sm. fol. splendid Manuscript on VELLUM, with two beautiful borders, 2 historiated capitals containing portraits of Petrarch, and elegant initial letters, all finely illuminated in gold and colours by an Italian Miniature of the first order, the coat of arms of some illustrious family painted at the foot of the first page, morocco, super extra, covered with gold Grolier tooling, gilt gaufré edges, by F. Bedford, £200.

about 1470

- 33* PETRI TRECENSIS (Comestoris) Historia Sacrae Scripturae, dicta Hystoria Scholastica, large folio, fine MS. on Vellum, with numerous large illuminated initials decorated chiefly in the grotesque manner, in red russia binding, £14. Sec. XIII

This work possessed considerable importance in former times, and was frequently printed in the early days of typography. This copy contains the dedication by the author (Peter of Troyes, called Comestor) to Gillaume, Bishop of Sens, which is usually absent; and also a Supplement to the Allegories of the Bible. The illumination is of a peculiar kind; the figures rude and antique in character.

- 34 PROCOPIUS. Belisarius (sic) de Bello Gothorum, sm. folio, MS. on paper, with fly-leaves of old vellum on the boards of the binding, which bear fine specimens of the so-called Visigothic writing of the tenth Century, £4. 4s
Scriptis Romeus Lull, 1467

The preface which is very well written implies that this is an original work by a patriotic Italian. He has however only paraphrased the text of Procopius.

- 35 PSALMORUM LIBER secundum Usus Monachorum Sancti Michaelis Montis Oliveti Ordinis Benedicti, small 4to.
Manuscript on VELLUM, by an Italian scribe, with beautiful borders, miniatures, and initial letters, finely illuminated in gold and colours, from the Duke of Roxburgh's copy, £200. ÆC. XV

- 35* PSALTERIUM, cum Canticis, Litania, Hymnis, Orationibus, &c. 16mo.
Manuscript on Vellum, by a Low German Scribe, having the Calendar ornamented with the 12 Signs of the Zodiac, and the Text with bordered capitals, and 12 initial letters containing miniatures executed in gold and colours in a style similar to Early English; with three larger paintings of the Annunciation, Crucifixion and Descent of the Holy Ghost on a gold ground, prefixed to the text, red velvet, with clasps, £25. cir. 1300

In the Kalendar, the word Evangelista is spelled with a w instead of a v; and at the head of the Matins of our Lady an inscription is given, the language of which seems to belong to somewhere in the region of Westphalia, perhaps Münster. The grotesque figures that usually surmount the large plain capitals are frequently remarkable for grim humour and quaint fancifulness of design.

- 36 PSALTERIUM DAVIDIS CUM HYMNIS VARIIS (cviii) thick small 4to. beautiful Manuscript on VELLUM, by an ITALIAN SCRIBE, richly illuminated in gold and colours, the reverse of the first leaf exhibiting the intitulation: Incipit Liber Psalmorum, &c. in letters of gold on an azure ground, above and beneath which are winged boys supporting escutcheons, surrounded by laurel wreaths, on which are depicted armorial bearings very similar to those of the MEDICI family (9 Torteaux).

The Psalms commence on the next page in letters of gold, also on an azure ground, beneath a Miniature of David kneeling in a rich landscape, and playing on a Psalter, his gaze fixed on the clouds in which is seen the Almighty bearing a cross with Christ crucified. The elegant border of this page is composed of exceedingly rich ITALIAN ARABESQUES of gold and colours, in which the armorial bearings are also repeated. In this border are also exhibited 8 fine Miniatures (the Annunciation, 5 small half-lengths of figures of the Prophets, each holding a scroll with a prophecy concerning Christ; Joseph and Mary kneeling with the infant Jesus, and a very elaborate painting of the Day of Judgment). The margins of these pages in letters of gold are painted green, and ornamented with burning branches in gold and red.

The Psalms are divided into 7 Nocturns, at the commencement of each having an elegant border formed of flowers, birds, infants, and golden studs. The volume is further decorated with innumerable capitals alternately in gold and colour. The numerous large initials are also in gold ornamented with burning branches, which no doubt formed the device of the owner.

Old French blue morocco, gilt edges, the back full gilt and ornamented with armorial bearings (a fox passant, a French regal crown between 2 mullets in chief), £275. SÆC. XVI

37 SPECULUM VITÆ, a Mirror of Life, in English, smallest folio, (8vo.) interesting English Manuscript on VEL-LUM, old russia, with some interesting MS. notes inserted by the late Mr. John Bruce the antiquary, £100. circa 1380

Formerly in the collection of Mr. Singer, from whose hand is the following description :—

THE MYRROUR OF LIFE, formerly attributed to Richard Rolle, or Richard of Hampole, residing in or near the Nunnery of Hampole, near Doncaster ; but as it appears from MS. Reg. c. viij, pointed out by Sir F. Madden, it is a translation from the Latin of John of Waldby, by William of Nassyngton. The poem begins with the spiritual advantages of the Lord's Prayer, of its seven petitions, their offices, &c. &c. and ends with the seven Beattitudes. In the course of enumerating the vices and virtues, much that is interesting, as illustrating modes of life and manners, occurs ; and I know that Mr. Douce had made large extracts from the MS. in the Brit. Museum on this account. For instance, in the section, DE TEMERARIO OFFICIO ET ARTIFICIO, fol. 88b, the following characters are sketched—Common Women, Jugglers, Sneck-drawers or Roberds-men, Faitours or Beggars, Harlots (seemingly Wandering Minstrels), Heralds, Champions, Tollers of Market Towns, and Hangmen. One is rather surprised to find the Heralds in such company, but they are accused of taking care of their advantage in adjudging the prize at Justings and Tournaments to grete lordings, hallooing names with great cry, &c. The Harlots are thus described :

“ Harlotes walkes thorw many touns,
With specked mantels and bourdouns,
And ilk mans hows they go in Thare they hope ouze to wyn.
Bot Harlotes men calles namly
Alle that haunte Harlotry.
Harlotes falles ay stonde on the flore
And play some time at the spore
At the bene and at the cat
A fowle play hald I that.
When men biddes tham for thair fe
Thay say—Maystres wol mot ze be.
For the rwle of thair religion
Is suche by thair profession ;
This is a poynt of tham ilk tyme
To licken men thare they come in ryme.
Zit use they ofte other japes
Some ledes beres and some ledes apes,
That mas joy and solace to tham that sees Al thes er folys and niceties.”

This MS. is beautifully written, and was formerly in the Library of the Fermors, a distinguished Catholic family at Tusmore, in Oxfordshire, so well known from Belinda the heroine of the Rape of the Lock. The first leaf is unfortunately wanting. At the end (the recto of folio 200) is the following colophon :

“ Explicit tractatus de oracione dmca s. de Pater Noster. In quo reprehenduntur multa vicia. Et in quo continentur oms virtutes quo in hac vita degentibus sunt necessarie. Et specialiter illiteratis docende, ad Dei honorem. Hic liber est scriptus—qui scripsit sit benedictus.”

- 38 STUKELEY (W.) COMMON-PLACE Book, folio, Autograph Manuscript of this celebrated Antiquary, with numerous valuable original drawings, having 2 holograph letters of R. Thoresby and E. Prideaux to J. Austis added by Dr. Stukeley, £96. 1717-48

The drawings are very valuable to the Topographical Collector, and embrace Ruins of Whitehall, Site of Old Verulam and St. Albans, Druidical Stones and other Remains, Plan of Abury, "My House at Barnhill, Stamford," Celtic Antiquities, various ancient Monuments (several coloured) in Norfolk, Lincolnshire, Yorkshire, &c.

- 39 TERENTII COMEDIE, 8vo. FINE MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM, by an Italian Scribe, with initial letters finely illuminated in gold and colours, an elegant border, with coat of arms on the first leaf; blue morocco extra, gilt edges, by C. Lewis, £50. circ. 1470

- 40 VALENCIAN MISSAL: INCIPIT LIBER MISSALIS, SECUNDUM CONSUETUDINEM SEDIS VALENTIÆ, CUM CALENDARIO, large folio, SPLENDID SPANISH MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM, finely illuminated in gold and colours, the first page of text ornamented with an EXQUISITE ARABESQUE BORDER, displaying the arms of the owner supported by flying cupids, and a BEAUTIFUL MINIATURE of the Annunciation richly painted in colours and heightened with gold. Before the Canon of the Mass are TWO LARGE PAINTINGS (12 by 8 inches) of the ECCE HOMO and the CRUCIFIXION, by an EARLY SPANISH ARTIST, admirably executed in vivid colours heightened with gold; the whole volume in astonishingly perfect preservation, and bound in the original oak boards, covered with stamped morocco, £148.

SÆC. XV (1477)

This splendid manuscript was written in the year 1477, as appears from the first leaf of calendar which commences "In hoc Anno Domini m.cccc.lxxvii est littera dominicalis e ut in cruce." Specimens of early Spanish art are excessively rare, and the present MS. is one so remarkably fine and so brilliantly decorated, in the Italian style, which then came into use amongst the Spaniards, that it would form a specially valuable feature in any palæographical collection. There is, as compared with the Italianesque ornamentation, a more distinctive character in the two large paintings, which are truly imposing works of Art. The face of the mother in the picture of the Crucifixion is an extremely beautiful specimen.

- 41 Welsh. GAMBOLD (W.) English-Welsh and Welsh-English Dictionary, 2 vols. sm 4to. with Welsh Grammar, sm. 8vo.; together 3 vols. AUTOGRAPH MANUSCRIPT, calf gilt, £10.

This valuable Dictionary was never printed. The Grammar was published in 1727. There are apparently some two or three MS. copies of the Dictionary in existence, all written by Gambold himself, in an extremely neat and elegant character.

- 41* PALÆOGRAPHICA: a royal folio volume, interleaved with more than 40 fine specimens of Calligraphy and Illumination, being fragments of varying size and character out of MSS. on Vellum, ranging from the eleventh to the fifteenth centuries, bound in half red morocco, £28.

SÆC. X-XV

This collection displays work of the early Lombard and Burgundian schools, and of the French, English and Flemish styles, with some curious ones of German origin. There are very fine specimens of Flemish Art, miniatures richly illuminated on a large scale; and amongst the French there is a late but splendid example of the Grisaille. At the end of the original fragments, a considerable number of engraved facsimiles from MSS. is inserted.

The MS. is considered by Sir Thomas Duffus Hardy, who stands almost alone in his opinion, to have been written in the sixth century; while the new Palæographical school (at the head of which is Mr. Bond) and many other scholars give indignant denial to such a claim of antiquity, and refer it to various periods between the Ninth and Eleventh Centuries.

A work interesting from various points of view; as a rare book; as the production of a brilliant boy of fourteen, who afterwards perished miserably in prison by the act of his father Ranuzzo I. This Block-Book is of the edition which is ranked by Heineken as second, by Sotheby as fourth, and which I consider should stand fifth in order.

FIRST EDITION, (64 leaves, with signatures A to H), containing 121 woodcuts, the last a facsimile, so admirably executed as almost to defy detection; BEAUTIFUL COPY, probably the finest in existence, as pure and perfect as if recently issued from the press; A BLOCK-BOOK OF EXTRAORDINARY RARITY (the only copy ever offered for sale by auction, and considered UNIQUE, was Libri's, which sold for £25.) This copy has the rare blank leaf at end, wanting in the Libri.*

Opera di Giovanniandrea Vauassore ditto Vadognino: Stampata nouamètre nella inclita città di Vinegia Laus Deo, s. a. (circa 1510)—Ugone Cardinale de S. Vittore Opera Volgare intitolata Specchio della S. madre Chiesa, Vinegia, 1526—fine copies, 6 vols. in 1, thick sm. 8vo. old vellum, £25.

The excessive rarity of a complete copy of the OPERA NOVA, the sole Block-Book in Italian known, has led bibliographers to differ in their descriptions of the volume. Zani describes it under the title Biblia Pauperum, of which he says it is a copy, with certain plates taken from Albert Durer, published in 1509, and others from Designs by Bellino and Mantegna. Cicognara mentions only 120 plates, and Burnet is in error in describing the volume as containing only 118 woodcuts; see the description of this rarity in the Catalogue of the reserved portion of Mr. Libri's Library, pp. 154-55.

- 94 BIBLIA PAUPERUM, reproduced in facsimile from a copy in the British Museum, with an Introduction, by Berjeau, atlas 4to. (pub. at £2. 10s) hf. bd. £1. 10s 1859

Technically a very singular production.

A German Block-book, of which only one copy exists, in the Museum Meermann-Westreenianum.

- 97 FORTALITIUM Fidei in v libros (per Alphonsum à Spina), large folio, fine copy in the original boards, with leather backs, £2. 2s s. l. et a. (1475)

Brunet states that this second edition is printed with the types of Richel at Basle: it is in double columns, 47 lines in a full page. The work is a curious mixture of History and Superstition. It contains a number of recent miracles which had been shewn to and worked upon Jews, and also a sort of History of the Crusades. La Valliere's copy sold for 90 francs.

- 97* COLLATIONES quas dicuntur fecisse Rex SALOMON sapientissimus et MARCOLPHUS facie deformis et turpissimus tamen ut fertur eloquentissimus, sm. 4to. curious large woodcut representing the Confabulation, 12 leaves, bds. from the collection of Dr. Kloss, £2. 12s 6d s. n. circ. 1485

- 98 LIBER VAGATORUM. DER BETLER ORDEN, sm. 4to. curious woodcut on title, vellum, £4. 4s s. n. (circ. 1510)

- 105 LOW GERMAN BIBLE, First Edition with a date. De Biblie mit vltigher achtinge recht na deme Latine in Dudesek averghesettet, mit vorluchtinghe unde glose . . . Nicolai de Lyra unde anderer . . . Doctoren, very thick folio, numerous coloured woodcuts and illuminated initials, a few lines in Isaia supplied in MS., bound in ancient stamped calf binding, £20. Lubick, Steffen Arndes, 1494

Very rare. The only other two copies of which I have any note are one sold by myself in 1858 for £12, and one priced by T. O. Weigel in 1865, 120 Thaler. This Bible may well claim to be the first Low German version, as the undated one which was printed at Cologne a few years earlier is really more Niederdeutsch than Plattdeutsch.

Mainz.

- 106 LIVIUS (T.) Patavinus Historicus duobus libris auctus cum L. Flori epitome, indice, etc. folio, fine woodcut borders and initials, old calf, 10s Moguntia, Joannes Scheffer, 1518

- 107 SCHATZBEHALTER (der) oder Schrein der waren Reichtümer des Heils, stout folio, with 95 remarkably beautiful large woodcuts, the full size of the page, by MICH. WOHLGEMUTH, completely uncoloured, with the very rare first (blank) leaf, a fine copy in brown morocco extra, gilt edges by Bedford, £36. Nürnberg, Anthoni Koberger, 1491

- 108 ——— another copy, folio, wanting one leaf, £6. 10s 1491

A tall clean copy of an extremely rare and curious work. The woodcuts in this most extraordinary volume, which occupy the whole length of the page, represent subjects of the Old and New Testament, but chiefly the life and passion of our Saviour. Many of the designs are highly singular, and are evidently the work of WOHLGEMUTH, the tutor of ALBERT DÜRER, and the engraver of the cuts for the NUREMBERG CHRONICLE. Strutt characterizes the productions of this artist as "bold in execution and original in design."

- 108*CHRONICON NUREMBERGENSE, auctore Hartmanno Schedel cum Supplemento "De Sarmatia," royal folio, FIRST EDITION, containing about 2000 spirited woodcuts, by Wolgemuth, Master of Albert Durer, very tall copy, superbly bound in brown pigskin extra, gilt edges, a masterpiece, of Bedford's, £25. Nurembergæ, Koberger, 1493

EDITIO PRINCEPS. A volume of extraordinary interest, embellished with upwards of 2250 woodcut engravings of the principal events, characters, and cities, described in the work, executed in a masterly and spirited style by the ingenious Artists, Michael Wolgemuth and William Pleydenwurff, as the last colophon in the work informs us. This Colophon is given at length in the Bibliotheca Spenceriana, where will be found the fullest and liveliest description of the volume, with faint facsimiles of a few of the Cuts. A colophon occurring at p. 286 of the volume denotes Hartmann Schedel as the author or editor. The present is a picked perfect copy with the title and six unnumbered leaves frequently wanting.

- 109 THOME DE KEMPIS Opera et libri Vite, folio, calf neat, 36s Nuremberge, Caspar Hochfeder, 1494

- 110 DER BESCHLOSSEN GART DES ROSENKRANTZ MARIE, 2 vols. small folio, many quaint woodcuts, pigskin, with clasps, £10. 10s

Nürnberg, Dr. Ulrich Pinter, 1505

At the end of Vol. I are Manuscript Sermons in German, by Maister Hainrich. Some of the woodcuts illustrate mediæval warfare, but most of them the Biblical events. One of the scarcest of the early woodcut books.

- 111 TEWRDANCKH:—Die geuerlicheiten und eins teils der geschichten des loblichen streyt paren und hochberümbten helds, und Ritters herr Tewrdannkhs, (Adventures and part of the History of the noble, valiant, and renowned Hero and Knight, the Lord Theuerdank) . . . on the back of the last leaf: Gedruckt in der kayserlichen stat Nürenberg durch den Eltern Hannsen Schönsperger zu Augspurg (Without date, but with a dedication which is dated 1 March, 1517), folio, Editio Princeps, many fine woodcuts, old calf gilt, tall copy, £18. Bologna.

- 115 PETRARCA, Rime, sm. 4to. facsimile title, fine large copy, vellum, £7. 10s Bononia, 1476

A rare and valuable edition, printed with the characters of Azzoguidi, the first typographer of Bologna. The facsimile title would be accepted as genuine by almost every eye.

- 116 SAVONAROLA. Prediche del Rev. P. Frate Hieronymo da Ferrara facte in S. All these pieces are very rare. Printed in tract form, they were easily destroyed, and have now come to realise high prices at sales of Italian Collections. "L'exemplaire (of the Prediche dell a. 1496) auquel étaient ajoutés 3 ff. MSS. d'une écriture contemporaine, a été vendu 113 fr. 1863."—Brunet.

Florence.

- 117 BOCCACCIO (G.) IL DECAMERONE, sm. 4to. the original uncastrated Giunta Edition, but title and signatures a i, d iiii and a v so beautifully facsimiled by Harris as to defy detection, unless specially pointed out, morocco super extra, by F. Bedford, £12. 12s Firenze, Giunta, 1527
The excessive rarity of the original Giunta Edition, by many bibliographers considered the best, is too well known to Amateurs to require any comment. Mr. Dunn Gardner's copy sold for £54. and the Earl of Charlemont's for £57.
- 118 MARULLI (Michaelis Tarchaniotæ) Hymni et Epigrammata, sm. 4to. the first page of text elegantly illuminated, large copy in calf, RARE, 30s Florentiæ, Societas Colubris, 1497

Milan.

- 119 QUINTILIANI Institutiones Oratoriæ, folio, old French calf, gilt edges, £8. Mediolani, Antonius Zarothus Parmensis, 1476
A very rare edition; and also one of the earliest books produced by the first printer in Milan, where typography began in 1474.
- 120 HIERONYMI (Sancti) Vita, sm. 4to. with rubricated capitals, without pagination or signatures, FINE COPY, £5. (Mediolani) Impssum p Magistrũ Philippum de Lavagnia, 1475
- 121 LIBER CONFORMITATUM. Incipit opus quod intitlatur de Conformitate vite beati Francisci ad vitam Dni. Jesu Christi Redēptoris nri. editum a fratre Bartolomeo de Pisis, sm. folio, woodcuts and woodcut initials, morocco gilt, £4. 4s Mediolani per Gotardum Ponticum, 1510
RARE; this celebrated work was suppressed by Papal order and put in the Index, because of what was considered its blasphemous character. The author simply drew a detailed comparison between the life of the Saviour and that of S. Francis of Assissi. Some of his parallels are amusingly farfetched.

Rome.

- 122 VALLA (Laurencius) de Romani sermonis elegantia, 1480—Datti Elegantiolæ, s. d. 2 vols. in 1, sm. 4to. hf. bd. 12s (Romæ, Steph. Planck), 1480

EXCESSIVELY RARE. There are twelve leaves of preliminary matter mentioned by Brunet (apparently on the authority of Audiffredi) but he says that they were not to be found in any of the copies he quotes. Those leaves are not in the Spencer copy.

Treviso.

- 123* DIONYSII HALICARNASEI Originum sive Antiquitatum Romanarum libri XI, Latine, folio, Editio Princeps, a slight wormhole through eight leaves, otherwise a fine copy, bd. 32s Tarvisiũ, Celerius de Luere, 1480

Tusculanum.

- 124 TERENCEII Comoediæ, interpretantibus Donato aliisque, Svo. woodcuts, vellum, £4. 4s Tusculani, Alex. Paganinus, 1526
RARE. The text is printed in a peculiar type, a sort of sloping roman or semi-italic, in the centre of the pages, surrounded by the commentaries, which are in a smaller but similar character. This type distinguishes the works of Paganini alone, and gives to all the productions of his press (especially those printed at Tusculanum on the Lago di Garda) a considerable value in the eyes of bibliophiles.

Venice.

- 125 CICERONIS EPISTOLÆ AD ATTICUM, folio, very fine copy in old calf, with a coronet and monogram on the back, £10. Venetiis, N. Jenson, 1470
This book alone would be sufficient to give Jenson a prominent position among the greatest masters of his art, and yet it must have been one of his earliest productions.

- 126 SALUSTII Opera, sm. folio, with a large illuminated initial and painted border to the first page, very fine copy in gilt binding, edges gilt, £12.

Venet. Johannes Colonie et Joh. Manthen, 1474

This excessively rare edition is one of the earliest of this favourite author. It is bound up with another very scarce work: Plutarchi Apophthegmata in Lat. trad. à Philelpho, Venet. Vindelini, 1471.

EXCESSIVELY RARE. Second edition of this interesting book of travels. Brunet, never having seen it, drew his description from Molini's list and the Walckenaer catalogue. There is no copy in the Grenville collection, and only one in the British Museum (in the Banks library).

- 140 BOCCACCIO (G.) Il Decamerone, small 4to. calf, £10.
Vinegia, Gregorio de Gregori, 1516

A rare and very important edition which has fetched at various times £16. to £63. It is the first which possesses any critical value; the first in quarto form; and the first which contains the exact text of Boccaccio's work. Niccolo Delfino was the editor.

- 141 LA COMEDIA DI DANTE ALIGIERI con la nova esposizione di Alessandro Vellutello, sm. 4to. Editio Princeps of this celebrated commentary, with 110 curious woodcuts, old russia, gilt edges, by Roger Payne, £4. 4s
Vinegia, Francesco Marcolini, 1544

This rare edition is remarkable in many respects. It is the first appearance of a celebrated commentary, it is entirely printed in italics, and it is ornamented with woodcuts which in design and execution are amongst the finest specimens of the art. It is also one of the best of the old editions of the text. Vellutello speaks with contempt of the critical value of the editions printed by Aldus of both Dante and Petrarch.

Venetia, 1574

The first Poem in the volume is the well-known work "IL VENDEMMIATORE," which was naturally placed in the Index as an infamous and dangerous production. It is a light and elegantly written poem on a subject which is banished from the domain of all honest literature.

Paris, par Guillaume Anabat pour Gillet Hardouyn et Germain Hardouyn, (1500)

The illumination is perhaps due to the hand of Germain Hardouin, who was a famous Miniaturist as well as bookseller. The above edition of the Book of Hours is one of the earliest ever printed for Gillet Hardouin, and is in many respects different from the later ones. There are some curious rhyming French verses at the bottom of each month in the calendar, some of which are difficult to understand, and which, are themselves of the most unusual occurrence. They seem to be mnemotechnic for the purpose of keeping each month's proper saints in mind, but are also grotesque, as when it is said in January, Anthoin boit le jour vin cent fois.

I have no reference to any other copy of this edition.

- 151 HEURES A LUSAGE DE ROME (avec Calendrier et Almanach [1497-1520] roy. 8vo. C, and ending on the last leaf of sig. T, two leaves mended; with NUMEROUS MS. NOTES in a hand contemporary with the impression; and on the last leaf an account of the size of the volume, in the autograph of Mr. Jamieson, to whom it was presented by Earl Spencer in 1816; recently bound in red Turkey morocco gilt, EXCESSIVELY RARE, £120.* 1482

Only seven other copies are known, all imperfect, and only one of which contains the colophon as copied above. In the description of the Siege of Harfleur, occurs the following passage.—“And there he played at the tenys with his harde gonne stones, and they that were within the tounne whan they sholde playe, theyr souge was well away. And allas that ever any suche tenys balles were made, & cursed al tho that were bygan, & the tyme that ever they were borne.”

Emprynted in the cyte of London in the Fleetestrete in the sygne of ye sonne by WYNKYN DE WORDE, ye year of our Lorde M.CCC.CC.VI

This second edition by Wynkin de Worde is excessively rare, and the copy is particularly desirable from its fine condition. The title and the last leaf have woodcuts, with the title block-printed. COLLATION: a, 4 leaves; a, 6 leaves; b to z, in alternate sheets of four and eight leaves; aa to nn, in alternate sheets of four and eight leaves; oo and pp, in six leaves each; making altogether 218 leaves.

- 169 WHITINTONI (Roberti) Lichfeldiensis Vulgaria, et de Institutione Grammaticulorum opusculum, Lat. et Anglice, smallest 4to. woodcut border round title, wanting the last leaf, VERY RARE, £2. 16s Wynkyn de Worde, 1520
- 170 SYMON (styled by himself "The Anker of London Wall, wretched Symon") The FRUYTE OF REDEMPCYON, sm. 4to. woodcuts, fine copy, hf. morocco, £32. Wynkyn de Worde, 1532
Excessively rare, unknown to Lowndes, who mentions only an edition with signatures A to E, dated 1530, which is probably imaginary. This copy has signatures A to F. The only other editions known are those of 1514 and 1517.
- 171 [HIGDEN (DAN RANULPH, monke of Chester) POLYCRONYCON, (Englysshed by one Trevisa vycarye of Barkleie), folio, black letter, with some woodcuts, title in red, with woodcut of George and the Dragon, which is also on the last page, a very rare blank leaf between table and first leaf of text, fine copy in ancient calf binding, with the autograph of Lyverich ffoster in 1545, £28. Southwerke, by my Peter Treveris, 1527
VERY RARE. There are very few specimens in existence of the typographical labours of Peter of Treves, who reprinted the above edition page for page from that of Wynkyn de Worde of 1495.
- 172 TYNDALE, otherwise called Hychins (Wyllyam) Obedience of a Christen Man, 12mo. title in facsimile, large copy in olive morocco, £9. At Marlborow in the lade of Hesse by me Hans luft, 1528
It being desirable to keep the early English books together, even those printed on the continent are inserted under the heading of England.
- 173 PROCESSIONALE ad usus insignis ecclie Sar. observandos accomodum, presertim in iis que in habendis processionibus ad cerimoniarū splendore faciunt imprimis opportunū, sm. 4to. printed in red and black, with woodcuts, and the Music throughout, calf neat, £50. Johannes Raynes, 1544
EXCESSIVELY RARE. Apparently only two other copies are known, one in the British Museum, the other in the Bodleian. Lowndes registers these as two separate editions, through an imperfect apprehension of the colophon in the Bodleian copy, which he or some one for him must have examined. The subscription states that this edition is reprinted with corrections (of course in London) by John Raynes, from the former edition printed by the widow of Chr. Ruremund (in Antwerp) sometime after 1528.
- 174 TESTAMENT (THE NEWE) in Englyshe (Tyndale's Version, edited by Sir John Cheke) and in Latin of Erasmus Translacion, sm. 4to. the English in black letter, the Latin in Roman type, (22 of Lea Wilson) fine copy, quite complete, with exception of title page, which is an admirable facsimile by Harris, old morocco, gilt edges, £28. Wyllyam Powell, 1549
At the end of the Testament follow "the Epistles taken out of the Olde Testament, which are red in the Church after the use of Salysbury upon certayne dayes of the yeaere." A worse copy, also with facsimile title, sold for £35. in Mr. Dunn Gardner's sale.
- 175 LATIMER (Bp. Hughe) Fyrste Sermon, Jhon Day, 1549—Seconde Sermon (with Sermons III. to VII. in the same volume), ib. 1549—2 vols. in 1, 16mo. BLACK LETTER, very fine copy in morocco extra, gilt edges, old style, by Hayday, VERY RARE, £9.
This is the complete set of Latimer's Lenten Sermons, preached before Edward VI. in 1549. Utterson's copy fetched £6. 6s in 1857; from that time no other perfect one was seen in the auction rooms until the above came into my hands at Sir William Tite's sale. The next which occurs will probably bring a still higher price than the book is now marked.

- 176 TESTAMENT (Newe) wyth the Notes and Expositions of the dark places therein (Tyndale's Version, Lea Wilson 30) sm. 4to. black letter, woodcuts, (including portraits of Edward VI. and of the Devil with the wooden leg at Matt. xiii.) title beautifully facsimiled by J. Harris, morocco super extra, gilt edges, by F. Bedford. £21. R. Jugge, 1552

Very rare. Utterson's copy sold for £25. and Offor's (imperfect) for £22.

- 177 UDALL (Nycolus) Flowres for Latine Speaking selected out of Terence, 16mo. black letter, title mended and slightly cut in headline, red morocco, gilt edges, £3. 16s T. Marshe, 1568

- 178 ERASMUS, the Praise of Folie, Morie Encomium, a booke made in latine by that great clerke Erasmus Roterodame, Englished by Sir Thomas Chaloner, sm. 4to. black letter, outer margin slightly wormed, yellow morocco, joints, gilt edges, £7. 17s Cd T. Berthelet, 1549

The date given in the colophon is 1569, but it is probable that the right one is 1549, as printed on the title. The translator's preface is a sensible and entertaining composition. He admits having exercised a certain freedom in his version, as for instance, substituting native proverbs whenever an English rendering of the Latin aphorisms failed to express their force.

- 179 SURREY (Earl of) SONGES and SONETTES, written by the right honorable Lorde Henry Haward late Earle of Surrey, and other, small 8vo. black letter, a fine portrait of the author inserted, but the colophon in facsimile by Harris, red morocco, gilt edges, from Sir William Tite's sale, £50. Apud. Ricardum Tottel, cum privilegio imprimendum solum, 1557

Excessively rare edition of the only great English poet, who flourished between Chaucer's time and the age of Spenser and Shakspeare. There were three editions or rather three issues of this first edition printed in the same year. Of each of the first two only a single copy is known—both of them in public libraries. Of the above, which is the third, only one other copy is at present known; and that is in the British Museum. There was one sold at Bindley's auction, but considerably defective, for £17.; and another, a damaged copy, at the Heber sale, which fetched £15.; but both have now disappeared. The above volume brought £50. at the Tite sale.

- 180 PRESTON (Thomas) LAMENTABLE TRAGEDY mixed ful of pleasant mirth, conteyning the Life of Cambises King of Percia, small 4to. black letter, title and several leaves mended, and slightly cut in headline, red morocco extra, gilt edges, by W. Pratt, £7. 7s John Alde, n. d.

Excessively rare. The flyleaf bears the following Manuscript note by Mr. Halliwell. "Licensed to John Alde in 1569-70. The copy in the British Museum is believed to be the only other known of this ed. by John Alde. Shakspeare alludes to this interlude in the second Part of Henry the Fourth, II. 4." There is also a copy in the Bodleian. It is amusing that two Persian peasants, Hob and Lob, are made to talk in the Somersetshire dialect.

- 181 GOSPELS OF THE POWER EVANGELISTES in the vulgar tounge of the Saxons (with the English translation revised from the Bishop's Bible added, EDITED BY JOHN FOXE), sm. 4to. black letter, with the very rare dedication to Queen Elizabeth, slightly wormed in the bottom blank margin, fine copy, in the original vellum wrapper, £15. John Daye, 1571

A volume of extreme rarity, evidently never seen by Lowndes, as he states it to be dedicated to Archbishop Parker instead of Queen Elizabeth. Even in the XVIIth century the rarity of copies was so great that a former owner of Earl Spencer's copy, in a MS. note, records that "I was twenty yeares looking for to buy one of these bookes."

- 182 FENTON (Geffray) Form of Christian Pollicie, small 4to. black letter, in the original calf binding, covered with gold tooling, gilt gaufré edges, Archbp. Matthew Parker's copy, with his arms in gold on side, and his autograph on fly-leaf, £16. H. Middleton for R. Newbury, 1574

It were very desirable that some patient and competent scholar should endeavour to find out who was the author of this little volume. He was a man who had made his first attempts to win fame (probably not literary) on the death of his wife, and who, though new to the poetic art, is described by the printer as "an advocate worthy enough to be judge of the Muses' greatest contentions."

Baile atha Clinth [Dublin] Seon Francke alias Franckton, 1608

There is a copy of this volume in the Grenville collection, in the catalogue of which it is described as "exceedingly rare." Few volumes of the early Irish press can now be had, and there is none of them which equals in interest or surpasses in rarity the one above described. The only other book of any pretensions which had been printed in Dublin was a reimpression of the English Common Prayer, but the Liturgy in Irish is really the first important work of that press, and the very circumstance of its appearance in the native language (in which nothing of intrinsic value had yet been produced), may be said to stamp it with the character of a national monument.

The collection contains the Arundel, Pomfret, Selden, Dawkins, Wheeler, and Rawlinson cabinets. The Oxford or Arundelian Marbles were so called from Thomas Earl of Arundel, who availing himself of the assistance of the famous Sir William Petty, (ancestor of the Marquis of Lansdowne), collected them in Italy, Greece, and Asia, at great expense, in the time of James and Charles I. They were presented by his Grand-Son Henry Howard, afterwards Duke of Norfolk, on the suggestion and advice of the memorable and excellent John Evelyn.
- "Selden, Prideaux, and Maittaire published imperfect copies of some of the ancient inscriptions. It remained for Chandler, carefully to examine and collate the inscriptions, rectifying mistakes, supplying defects, and making out some which others had despaired of. This is the most important and trustworthy of all the works that exist on the interesting subject of Mediæval Costume. The ideas of most people in this respect, are very vague, being derived from pretty picture-books of fancy figures, in which nothing like precision or scientific treatment is ever met with. Indeed, Hefner's work may almost be called the only safe guide in this branch of Archæology, which ought to be so attractive to the painter and to the general student of history and manners.

The text is in Italian and French, and was contributed by M. Pacini. The plates are engraved by the first artists of Italy.

The greater part of these paintings are not engraved in any other collection, but many of them are described in Lanzi's History of Painting in Italy.

The 24th subject, the Martyrdom of St. Sebastian, after A. Pollaiuolo, consists of two plates, both numbered 24. This is not mentioned in the text, and the second plate, which is an outline engraving, may therefore be easily missed.

Winterton, 1796-1829

Only one other complete set is in existence, and that I recently sold. Even the Fowler family has only a portion of a set.

This magnificent Work was published by subscription, in single prints, issued at long intervals, several at 31s 6d each. Sir Joseph Banks, upon an occasion of addressing the Society of Antiquaries, said, in reference to the representations of Mosaic Pavements in the above work, "Others have shown us what they thought these remains ought to have been, but Fowler has shewn us what they are, and this is what we want." For graphic truthfulness and effect, these representations have never been equalled. The Prospectuses are very interesting, and are now great rarities.

- 318 FOWLER (William) Coloured Engravings of the principal MOSAIC PAVEMENTS which have been discovered in Great Britain, Monastic Buildings, Fonts, Brasses, also of the STAINED GLASS WINDOWS of the Cathedrals of York, Lincoln, &c. &c. including a most splendid Series of Seven Norman Earls of Chester, and two Saxon Earls of Mercia, from the Windows of Aston Hall, Warwickshire, 2 vols. atlas folio, CONTAINING 51 MOST BEAUTIFULLY COLOURED PLATES, in exact imitation of the original subjects, all mounted on thick drawing paper, with the "Advertisements" to a few of the plates, half russiâ, £20. Winterton, 1798-1813

320 FOWLER'S Engravings, a series of 24 plates (2 duplicates) of Stained Glass and Mosaic Pavements, mounted on cardboard, and finely coloured, in 1 vol. atlas folio, with some "Advertisements," half calf, £6. 6s

The ingenious Mr. Fowler was originally a journeyman carpenter, of patient and persevering habits; the difficulties he had to encounter in executing the present work were almost insurmountable. The work, which is scrupulously correct in all its features, is entirely his own; the drawing, the engraving, the preparation of the colours, and even the making of the paper, (for he could get no paper-maker to undertake it) are all the work of his own hands. Not forty copies were ever completed.

L'un des plus beaux monumens élevés aux art est, sans contredit, cette vaste collection d'estampes. commencé en 1802, sous le nom de Musée Français, continuée sous le titre de Musée Royal, par MM. Laurent père et fils. A l'exposition de 1819, la médaille d'or fut décernée à Mr. Henrie Laurent, le jury considérant cet ouvrage comme le plus parfait qui ait eu lieu depuis l'existence de la gravure,

This very interesting publication is undoubtedly the most magnificent work that has issued from the Parisian Press; and will perpetuate the matchless collection which formerly graced the Louvre, combining, as it did, nearly all the excellence of which the various countries on the Continent could boast in painting and sculpture. And although a chain of wonderful events has restored many of the brightest gems of art to their rightful owners, so much of excellence still remains, that the gallery of the Louvre is yet to the man of taste, the greatest attraction in Paris, and the very circumstance of the dispersion of so many wonderful productions gives additional value to the work which describes them in a collected state.

This work contains engravings of all the chief paintings concentrated in the Louvre by Napoleon, before they were again dispersed—whilst the folio Musée Français and Supplement do not, together, comprise more than 482 subjects. It is necessary to observe that this work is not a mere collection of prints, as it contains many luminous and masterly dissertations upon the style, excellence, and defects of the various schools of painting, lives of the most eminent painters, and finally, a minute description of every painting, statue, &c. drawn up with extreme care and correctness.

The set is printed throughout on PAPIER VÉLIN, with PROOF IMPRESSIONS, but of Vol. I and XI the capitals are shaded, no copies with "lettres grises" were executed.

 Some of these portraits are from life, and personages of his own time, as Luca Giordano the painter, but most are from old paintings. They include Vittoria Colonna, Philip II of Spain (both of them striking pictures), Gello the author of Circe, Henri IV, Luther, Abraham Ecchelenensis, Ignatius Loyola, Pietro de Pietri, Cardinal Falconiere, etc. His treatment of hair is remarkably good, as well as the use of cross-hatching.

"William Hogarth is one of the figures in history—in art-history at least—whose importance increases with time. This is the case with so few men in the annals of literature and the arts, that we in England may consider the possession of this one man of true native blood and cosmopolitan importance as equivalent to that of a hundred of the rank and file of talent—to the whole Bolognese school perhaps, or to the entire French painters down to the time of Watteau."—Academy, April 11th, 1874.

The first and second parts contain the Dance of Death, in 47 very finely engraved subjects, among which is included a plate of a small but exquisite Dance of Death, engraved by Holbein upon the sheath of a dagger, the Passion of our Lord, and two plates, the Rich and the Poor. The third part is composed of 12 coloured plates of Swiss Costume, and the fourth part contains 6 portraits, including those of Holbein, his wife, and Erasmus of Rotterdam.

395 HOLBEIN (Hans) Icones Historiarum Veteris Testamenti, small 4to. beautiful woodcuts, fine copy in olive morocco super extra, gilt edges, very rare, £25.

Lugduni apud Joannem Frellonium, 1547

Bel exemplaire, très frais d'épreuves, de ce recueil que M. Ambroise Firmin Didot dans son excellent "Essai sur l'histoire de la gravure sur bois" (Paris, 1863, in-8. col. 70), appelle à plusieurs reprises, et avec raison, un CHEF-D'ŒUVRE. On sait que cette édition contient deux planches qui manquent dans toutes les éditions précédentes. Le nom d'Hans Holbein se trouve en toutes lettres (chose rare) dans un Carmen préliminaire. Dans ce volume, qui est également intéressant pour l'histoire des arts comme pour celle de la poésie française, toutes les gravures sont accompagnées d'une explication en vers français. Un exemplaire s'est vendu 186 francs à la vente Veinant, avant que l'attention des amateurs se portât aussi fortement, qu'elle l'a fait depuis, sur les anciennes gravures en bois publiées en France au XVI^e siècle.

396 HOLBEIN (Hans) IMAGES of the OLD TESTAMENT, small 4to. beautiful woodcuts, fine copy in vellum, very rare, £28. Lyons, F. Frellon, 1549

Horæ:

- 404 HORÆ INTEMERATÆ VIRGINIS MARIE secundum Usus Romanum, cum Calendario (and Almanach 1497-1520), sm. 8vo. PRINTED ON VELLUM, within elegant engraved borders, composed of sacred and grotesque subjects (including DANCE OF DEATH in 48 scenes, not including repetitions), and ornamented with large and small wood engravings UNCOLOURED, in the binding of Henry III of France, richly ornamented with gold tooling, composed of fleur-de-lis, with head of angel between branches at each corner, and having for centres of sides the Crucifixion, with skull at foot (the device of Henry III) and the Madonna, also worked in gold, gilt edges, £21.
(Paris) Achevees le XX Jour d'Avril, 1503

This edition, which is not mentioned by Brunet, is from the press of Verard, and is an excellent specimen of his art-work. There is a visible imitation of Simon Vostre's style, and the present volume is no unworthy rival of the best Livres d'Heures printed by him. The Saint Graal is on the title with the Benedictio below it, the anatomical man is on the third page, and on the reverse of the eighteenth leaf the tree of Jesse with the title Hore beneath. Collation: Pa, 8 leaves; b, 10 leaves; a—i in eights; k, 4 leaves; RA, 8 leaves; B, C, D, eight leaves each.

- 405 HORÆ DIVÆ VIRGINIS MARIE secundum verum Usus Romanum cum Calendario (1497-1520), sm. 8vo. Best Edition of Kerver's series, PRINTED ON VELLUM, within elegant engraved borders, and ornamented with large and small wood engravings (uncoloured), blue velvet, gilt gaufré edges, £20.
Paris, T. Kerver, 1505

Brunet remarks that only the earlier editions of Kerver's series of Horæ deserve particular attention for their beauty, and Mr. Didot observes that this edition of 1505 is finer than any which preceded it, while on the other hand the later editions are inferior.

- 406 HEURES A LUSAIGE DE ROME tout au long sans riens requerir avec Calendrier, 8vo. (Almanach 1510-25) PRINTED ON VELLUM, with large and small engravings and capital letters, finely illuminated in gold and colours, morocco super extra, rich gold tooling, gilt edges, by Chambolle-Duru, £28.
Paris par Gilles Hardouyn pour Germain Hardouyn (1510)

Collation: Signatures A—L in eights, with the colophon on the reverse of last leaf (folio 88). The 18 large plates are so illuminated, in opaque colouring, most probably by the hand of Germain Hardouyn himself, that they may be considered original Miniatures.

- 407 HORÆ BEATÆ MARIE VIRGINIS, secundum Usus Ecclesiæ Romanæ totaliter ad longum cum Calendario, sm. 8vo. PRINTED ON VELLUM, within woodcut borders, with the large and small woodcuts illuminated like miniatures, in gold and colours, old French olive morocco,

Paris par Gilles Hardouyn pour Germain Hardouyn (1521)

The ordinary issue of this edition is described by Brunet as having only a simple line-border round the pages, with a note that there was a Large Paper issue in which the engraved borders were added. The present copy has the engraved borders, but it is still a small 8vo. Presumably the ordinary issue would be a small 12mo.

- 408 Tory de Bourges: HORÆ IN LAUDEM BEATISSIMÆ VIRGINIS Mariæ ad Usum Romanum cum Calendario (and Almanach 1549-56), 12mo. printed within very elegant woodcut borders, and ornamented with beautiful wood engravings, from designs by the celebrated GEOFFROY TORY DE BOURGES, red velvet, gilt gaufré edges, in a morocco case, £28.

Paris, apud Thielmannum Kerver. 1550

I can only find a mention of three other perfect copies of this rare edition, which, in spite of Brunet's "médiocrement exécutée," is really a fine specimen of Tory's beautiful Renaissance work. Its rarity may be the cause that no one has corrected the strange variations between the three chief authorities on the subject. Brunet describes it as a reproduction of Tory's 1529 Horæ in 16mo, Bernard considers that it was copied from his 8vo. Horæ of 1531, while M. Didot holds it to be an imitation of the small 4to. of 1527; although each of these critics looks upon the three earlier volumes as different artistic works.

- 409 HULME'S PLANT FORM: a series of Sketches from Nature, impl. Svo. 100 plates in colours, (pub. at £3. 3s) extra cloth, gilt edges, now scarce, £2. 2s 1868

Extremely useful to Decorators, Manufacturers, and all engaged in practical Art; the volume contains nearly 1000 decorative designs, with descriptive text. The copies thrown upon the market have all disappeared.

- 410 INGHIRAMI (Fr.) MONUMENTI ETRUSCHI, o di Etrusco Nome, 6 vols. in 5, roy. 4to. 466 plates, many coloured like the originals, (pub. £33.) hf. morocco, top edges gilt, £12. Firenze, 1821-26

The most complete, exact, and satisfactory publication on these beautiful Works of Art, in Vases, Bronzes, Frescoes, &c. "Ce bel ouvrage offre la représentation la plus complète et la plus exacte qui ait encore été donnée des monumens appartenant à l'Art Etrusque, ou réputés Etrusques. Il est partagé en six séries: I. Urne. II. Specchi mistici. III. Bronzi. IV. Edifici. V. Vasi futili. VI. Monumenti ed Indice."—Brunet.

For genealogists and historical students the above is as good as the first issue, of which a less complete copy can be had as above described for £80.

"The volume is a noble one, and, as far as we know, is unequalled as to its general excellence. It forms a complete manual and reference book of Italian Art, and the literary portion is much in advance of the flimsy book-making accompaniment, which too often disfigures English collections of the same sort."—Saturday Review.

Sec. XV.

This is in perfect preservation, and dazzling with illumination of that broad kind for which the Art of Northern France was remarkable. The escutcheon of the noble family for which it was executed, is painted on the first leaf, dimidiated gold and ermine with a shield gold and azure surrounded by four martlets on the gold field. Some grotesque fancies are seen in the illuminations, such as a Confessor chaining up the fiend, a monkey about to fight a duel with a devil, and evidently confounded by the likeness to himself of his antagonist.

- 447 DIONYSII (SANCTI) ET SOCIORUM PASSIONIS HISTORIA, cum Epistolis adjunctis Hincmari, Ludovici Pii, Hilduini Abbatis et Abælardi de Seto. Dionysio, etc. folio, MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM, with 15 painted Initials, (containing MINIATURES) and numerous Capital Letters, finely illuminated in gold and colours, calf, £12. Sec. XIII.

This venerable volume, which formerly belonged to the "Bibliotheca S. Dionysii in Francia," wants the last leaf, which, however, has been supplied on paper, transcribed about the beginning of the last century, "Ex Cod. Victorino D. a 35.

This contains not only the pieces cited above, but also all the documents connected with the identification of various Saints Dionysius, the visit of one to Gaul, the translation of the relics, the dedication of the church, the inquiries instituted by Charles the Bold and Ludovicus Pius (Louis VII of France) and the replies of eminent scholars on the subject, etc.

- 448 BIBLIA LATINA, small 4to. fine MS. on Vellum, adorned with numerous illuminated large initial letters, the upper parts of which contain Miniatures of unusual delicacy (about 100 in number), while the lower run out into grotesque tail pieces of dogs, birds, monstrous figures, etc. bound in wooden boards, covered with leather, with clasps, £50. Sec. XIII

The age of this MS., the elegance of its calligraphy, and the number and character of the Miniatures, render it one of the cheapest articles of the kind ever yet offered for sale. Apparently there is nothing wanting except a portion of the first leaf of Genesis. Amongst the Miniatures there are frequent representations of men in armour, dressed in full chain-mail, with and without surcoats, with long triangular shields, and barred cylindrical helmets. In the painting at the beginning of Galatians, S. Paul is represented booted and spurred, in the moment of tumbling from his horse (a chesnut) which has already fallen to its knees. The Proverbs of Solomon have a picture of a schoolmaster who with a raised birch is about to strike the outstretched hand of a handsome boy. The illustration to Esther, with Haman hanging below the King and the Jewish beauty is curious, as also that which shows us the fool who hath said in his heart, etcetera. Many of the Miniatures possess a special interest in this way; and all are beyond the usual style of contemporary work. The MS. is of French execution.

- 449 HEURES DE NOSTRE DAME, et du Saint Esprit, avec Calendrier, etc. sm. 4to. the text in Latin, but the Calendar and headings in French, every page decorated with rich painted border of fruits, flowers, and arabesques, in which are inserted here and there figures of minstrels and grotesques, with 21 large Miniatures, which are interesting for the varieties of costume represented, bound in old russia extra, gilt edges, I. H. S. on sides, £28. Sec. XV

- 450 HORÆ BEATÆ MARIE VIRGINIS, 12mo. MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM, the Calendar written in gold, blue, and violet, with 13 large MINIATURES on gold and diapered backgrounds, and numerous illuminated borders and initial letters, calf, £25. circ. A.D. 1400

The Calendar, some of the Prayers, and the headings are in French, and the book is altogether of purely French execution.

- 451 HORÆ B. MARIE VIRGINIS secundum Usum Romanum, cum Calendario, sm. 4to. FRENCH MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM, finely written within elegant floreated BORDERS, and ornamented with numerous CAPITAL LETTERS and 47 beautiful MINIATURES [16 large (one with coat of arms) and 31 small, including those in Calendar], all richly illuminated in gold and colours, but unfortunately wanting a few leaves, old morocco, gilt edges, with the device of M. Habert (The instruments of Christ's Passion, with the initials M. H.) stamped in gold on sides, £85. Sec. XV

The text is in Latin; the Calendar and headings in French. This beautiful MS. possesses all the elegance and exquisite taste which distinguish the best style of old French art from the contemporary efforts of Flemish Miniaturists. A collector might wait and watch for many years, and then have to pay an enormous price, before he could obtain so fine a specimen of its kind. The price is comparatively very low, because of the defect above mentioned. The number of leaves wanting is probably three.

- 452 OFFICIUM BEATÆ MARIÆ VIRGINIS secundum Ordinem Humiliatorum, stout 12mo. A MOST EXQUISITE MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM, by a Venetian Artist, of the highest class, ornamented with 14 large and 16 small MINIATURES with BORDERS, and numerous CAPITAL LETTERS, beautifully illuminated in gold and colours, blue morocco, joints, gilt gaufré edges, in red morocco case, £200. Romæ, 1480

It might be stated, without much hesitation, that no such work of art as this has ever passed before through the London salerooms. The description above given is but slightly modified from that which appeared in the auction-catalogue, and is so trite that it would hardly draw the attention of connoisseurs who are accustomed to see ordinary articles belauded with the same perpetually-recurring phrases. But no mere description whatever would enable the imagination to realise the singular beauty of this little volume; the delicate grace of its miniatures and ornamentation, the skill of the composition, and above all the delicious harmony of its colouring. This exquisite chromatic finish would alone stamp the paintings as the work of a Venetian artist, notwithstanding that the text is dated at Rome; but as a further proof there are occasional indications of Venetian dialect in the Italian prayers, as faza for faccia, etc. Many dainty fancies are displayed in the minor figures, such as a child bearing a skull in one hand while he presses the other to his own head, a charming naked boy feeding a caged bird; and in the figures of the angels the painter has succeeded in producing types of more than mortal beauty. But it is likely that the eye will rest with most gratification on the page-borders in which upon a full dark ground are painted jewels, flowers, bronze figures, masks, statues, green wreaths, and other ornaments, with a richness of harmonious colouring that is inexpressibly fascinating.

- 453 PONTIFICALE ROMANUM, MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM, ornamented with 38 historiated INITIALS, containing MINIATURES of the costume used in each ceremony, calf, £21. Sec. XIV

On the last leaf of this valuable Pontificale is written: "Explicit Pontificale sive Ordinarium venerabilis patris et dñi domini Hugonis de rubéis dei et ap'lice sedis gratia ep'i parmën. s'm consuetudinem romane eccl'ie Actum sub. M.ccc.xxv die secd'o Julii. Deo gratias. amē."

Ugolino de Rossi was Bishop of Parma during the time when his house was all-powerful in that part of Italy. On the downfall of the family he was exiled for a few years by Mastino della Scala, but afterwards returned to his Bishopric and died towards the middle of the fourteenth century. Apparently two leaves are wanting in the above MS. which possesses however a great liturgical interest, as the ceremonial costumes and practices are faithfully observed in the miniatures.

"Of the importance of this great book to the antiquarian and the historical world it is hardly possible to speak too highly. Its purpose was to lay before the public a vast series of objects of ancient art, of architecture, of sculpture, etc., and to illustrate the whole by plates, executed in the highest style which the age admitted of. This the learned author effected most completely; and it is to this very book that the foundation of all our most important branches of archaeological knowledge at the present day may be ascribed. The obligations of the continental antiquary to Montfaucon are immense; and his work will stand the test of future ages, as one of the most astonishing and certainly one of the most extensive monuments of antiquarian research ever made by one man."—H. L. Jones, Gent's Mag. Dec. 1855.

It is truly a charming series. The title to the book is in Latin, French, German and Dutch. XIII.-XIV.—Vedute di Roma, 2 vols. 187 plates, bound in full size, unfolded
Roma, circa 1779

* * This is a very remarkable set of these grand and interesting Views. Being published as separate prints at long intervals, the original copies contain only from 100 to 110 plates. The present set, however, in addition to these original impressions, includes all those published subsequently, making the number 135.—Further than this, many duplicates have been added, shewing in some cases Remarkable Variations. Altogether the two volumes contain upwards of 180 plates, including two India proof portraits of Piranesi, and the rare engraved catalogue of his works, one leaf, in six different states.

morocco extra, gilt leaves, by Charles Lewis, (except Vols. 19 and 20, which are uniformly half bound), and 1 vol. (Vol. 21) 4to. unbound, £320.

Roma, 1756-1823, Paris, 1804-7

The present may truly be pronounced, in all respects, a MATCHLESS set of these grand and interesting works, and an ornament to the finest library: the large plates of Views, Vases, Candelabra, Sarcophagi, Tripods, and the Triumphal Columns, are bound of the full size. The impressions of the plates are most brilliant, and of uniform excellence throughout the work; the rich burr, which so soon disappears from an etched plate, is here in all its mellowness and perfection; and the extraordinary effect of some of the plates cannot be conceived but upon comparison with a copy in the ordinary state.

This set contains in addition to the remarkable Variations of the Plates in Vols. 13-14 (known in no other), the excessively rare and curious Letters of Justification to Lord Charlemont, with plates, in which he assigns the reasons why he did not dedicate his Roman Antiquities to that nobleman as had been intended. The cost alone of binding this set was £200.

EXCESSIVELY RARE. The impressions are in all but two instances very fine ; so that, considering the extraordinary scarcity of the collection, and that there are only four plates deficient in the entire series of 32, it must be allowed that the present copy would be a highly desirable acquisition to collectors. - 555 AUDSLEY AND BOWES'S KERAMIC ART OF JAPAN, to be completed in Six Parts, forming one handsome vol. folio, price to Subscribers, £1. 1s each part

When the last part is issued the price of the whole work will be raised to eight guineas.

No one who has examined the Art Productions of Japan can have failed to observe the great beauty of the Ceramic wares of the country, and the refined and educated feeling everywhere displayed in their decoration. Their general artistic excellence, and the skilful rendering of natural objects they usually present, have long commended them to the attention of the Artists of Europe, and many of our best-known Painters have shown by their works their appreciation of Japanese drawing and colouring. All branches of decorative art have to a marked degree benefited by the introduction of Japanese feeling and principles, and will, no doubt, be further improved as students more carefully and extensively study the best productions of Japan. Such being the case, no apology is necessary for the appearance of this Work, which is devoted to the description and illustration of the finest and most interesting specimens known to exist; the more especially as it goes over ground not yet taken up by any preceding publication.

The work will contain 50 plates produced in gold and colours, and in autotype; with descriptive letterpress, interspersed with numerous plates and woodcuts, printed in black and colours. The text will commence with a Treatise on Japanese Art generally, and will be accompanied with illustrations from all sources of interest, followed by descriptions of all the Ceramic wares of Japan with which we are at present acquainted.

- 649 VAN DYCK, Eaux Fortes reproduites et publiées par Amand-Durand, Texte par GEORGES DUPLESSIS, Bibliothèque du département des estampes à la Bibliothèque nationale, folio, £2. 15s Paris, 1875

Mettre à la portée de tous des œuvres que quelques privilégiés peuvent seuls songer à posséder un jour, et répandre dans le public des estampes qui sont appelées à avoir une influence salutaire sur les peintres qui font une étude particulière du portrait, telles ont été les raisons qui ont amené la publication des Eaux-fortes d'Antoine Van-Dyck.

Afin de donner à ces reproductions fidèles un cadre qui ajoutât encore à l'intérêt qu'à elles seules elles présentaient, il a paru opportun de mettre en regard de chaque pièce une description exacte des différents états des estampes originales, et de placer en tête de l'ouvrage une histoire complète des transformations que subirent ces planches depuis le moment où elles quittèrent l'atelier de l'artiste jusqu'au jour assez rapproché de nous où elles vinrent trouver un abri définitif dans notre grande collection nationale.

L'ouvrage, imprimé sur papier de Hollande de première qualité, n'a été tiré qu'à un petit nombre d'exemplaires. Les planches ont été imprimées dans les ateliers et sous la surveillance directe de M. Amand-Durand. Chaque épreuve a été choisie avec le plus grand soin.

Il a été tiré 20 exemplaires des portraits sur parchemin au prix de £5.

- 654 VASARI, Vite de' Pittori, 11 vols. 8vo. numerous portraits, russica gilt, FINE COPY, £2. 2s Siena, 1791

"In perusing his Lives, I fancy myself listening to the individuals of whom he has collected the traditions and the precepts. It was thus, think I, that Raffaello and Andrea imparted these facts to their scholars; thus spoke Buonaroti; the friends of Giorgio heard this from Vinci and Porta, and in this manner must have related it to him. I am delighted with the facts, and also with the luminous, simple, and natural manner in which they are expressed, interwoven with the technical terms that originated in Florence, and worthy of every writer whose subject is the fine arts."

The insertion of the unpublished MSS. in the above copy renders it unique.

The complete book is by far the grandest and most elaborate work published in any country, of its Roman Antiquities. It is supposed no province of the Roman Empire contained a greater number of extensively and richly decorated Roman Villas than England; so much at least may be inferred from the splendid vestiges of Roman Edifices and Pavements. This work was the result of twenty years' elaborate research. The greater part of the Drawings were made by Richard Smirke, Esq., an Artist distinguished for the accuracy of his pencil, and his zeal for antiquarian exactness. The plates exhibit most interesting and curious examples of Art and Magnificence.

This splendid work must always form a most important article in an English Topographical Library. Very few complete copies exist, and these may rank among the rarest works on English Topography, as the plates have been destroyed.

In 1820 the publishers advertised—"Complete sets of this Work may be had, £37. 16s in boards, or with the volume of Woodchester Antiquities, £48. 6s. The number of complete sets is necessarily limited to Fifty. The plates of Vol. I, Vol. II, and of the Woodchester volume have been destroyed." The Large Paper Gloucestershire was already then out of print.

NO PERFECT COPY HAS OCCURRED AT ANY OF THE LONDON SALES FOR THE LAST SIXTEEN YEARS.

"Nash's Mansions" has always been considered one of the most beautiful and attractive works ever published, and has met with a proportionate success.

Buyers of this work should be very particular in selecting an original copy; the later impressions are very bad.

This celebrated work is now extremely rare in the coloured state. This is a genuine original subscriber's copy, in beautiful condition.

This work is not entirely picturesque. Independent of other subjects, the Author has given, in the first volume, a chapter on the Poets and celebrated Musicians of Naples, with an abridged notice of their Lives and Works. "THE BERNESE OBERLAND" consists of Twelve Views selected from a number of Drawings made by Mr. Walton in the Summer and Autumn of 1872. During the last three or four years, the Bernese Oberland had been so frequently suggested, both privately and by the Press, as a desirable field for illustration by Mr. Walton, that he was induced to visit the country again last year, in execution of a commission having special reference to this work.

 This fine collection of Sculptures contains 28 engravings from the Antique and 20 from marbles by Chantrey, Westmacott, Thorwaldsen and Canova. The impression was very limited, and entirely disposed of in presents. The late Duke of Bedford used to buy up all the copies which occurred for sale, often as high as 30 guineas.

This is a grotesque book of religious counsels and parallels, illustrated with designs of greater imaginative power than usually shewn by Schaeufelein. I might instance the fool listening to a debate between God and the Devil.

- 742 LULLI (Raymundi) Ars inventiva Veritatis, cum Commento Alphonsi à Proaza, sm. folio, Editio Princeps, woodcuts and diagrams, fine copy, £5. Valenciæ, Didacus de Gumiel, 1515

RARE. The dedication is to Cardinal Ximenes, whose arms appear on the title, with a Cardinal's hat printed in red. On the back of the second leaf is an engraving of Randa in Majorca, where Lull resided as a hermit; and on the back of leaf C there is a large woodcut shewing him landing on the coast of Africa to argue for the truth of the Christian religion, and being stoned by a crowd of Musulmans.

Vuittembergæ, apud Johannem Lufft, 1543

This rare and interesting volume forms a complete authoritative exposition of Luther's religious doctrines in the year 1543. The portions of it which may excite most curiosity are the "Notæ veræ Ecclesiæ," and the long dissertation "de Sacramenta Altaris."

- 744 Maximilian. LE TRIOMPHE DE L'EMPEREUR MAXIMILIEN I, en une suite de 135 planches gravées en bois, d'après les desseins de HANS

Woodcuts—continued.

BURGHMAIR, avec une description dictée par l'Empereur à son Secrétaire Treitzsaurwein, oblong royal folio, hf. russia, £18. 18s

- 747 MEYNRHADI (S. Martyris et Heremite) PASSIO, sm. 4to. 21 spirited woodcuts, fine copy in morocco extra, gilt edges, by Hardy, extremely rare, £7. 7s

(Basileæ) M. Furter, 1496

A curious volume, recording the life, death, and miracles of a little-known saint who was murdered near Zürich, A. D. 863. There appears to be only one other edition of the work—a blockbook, of which there is a copy in the Royal Library of Munich. The cuts in the above volume are presumably reproductions of those in the blockbook. There is apparently no difference in the degree of rarity between the two editions.

- 748 POLIPHILLO. La Hypnerotomachia di Poliphilo, cioè Pugne d'Amore in Sogno; dov' egli mostra che tutte le cose humane non sono altro che Sogno, folio, with the beautiful illustrations attributed to Giovanni Bellino, vellum, £12. 12s

Venetia, figliuoli di Aldo, 1545

The SECOND edition is equally rare with the first, and has exactly the same woodcuts. This curious work is by no means in macaronic language, as Brunet states; but simply in pedantic Italian, with slight Latinizing peculiarities in the spelling. The Hebrew, Arabic, and Greek are merely introduced as inscriptions to shew off the learning of the author. He was a Venetian monk, Francesco Colonna, and composed his strange Love-Dream at Treviso in 1467.

- 749 RAPEGOLIS (Ant. de) Figurarum Biblia, 16mo. lit. goth. woodcuts and rubricated capitals, old calf, 20s

(? Geneva, 1479-80)

EXCESSIVELY RARE EDITION, probably the Editio Princeps of this famous satirical Romance. Brunet merely describes it as "une édition fort ancienne," and places it third in order after the two undated ones which are ascribed to Guillaume Leroy at Lyons. But it seems to be really earlier than those of Lyons, and to have been printed at Geneva by Adam Steinschaber about 1479 or 1480; from whose press issued likewise the first editions of Fierabras, Melusin, and other romances, which were immediately afterward reprinted at Lyons.

- 751 ROSARII (S.) Antithesis Christi et Antichristi videlicet Papæ versibus et figuris venustissimis illustrata, 18mo. curious woodcuts, in which the Virtues of Christ and the Vices of the Pope are depicted on parallel pages, calf extra, gilt edges, by W. Pratt, scarce, £4. 4s

On a ii is the following inscription: "iste liber est Magistri Joannis plueml' Ingoldstaten anno dom. 1502," and a coat of arms on a field azure, a branch proper.

Woodcuts—continued.

- 753 [SPECULUM HUMANÆ SALVATIONIS]. (Lyon, M. Husz) 1478
- EXCESSIVELY RARE. First Edition of the famous Speculum in French. Trunet mentions three preliminary leaves not found in this copy, which however contains the complete text and series of woodcuts. No other copy has occurred in any public sale in England since Sir Mark Sykes' books were sold, just fifty years ago; and the only one which seems to have appeared in French auction-rooms was imperfect, from the Le Prevost Library, sold in 1857.
- 754 VIRGIL, LES ENEYDES de Virgille, translatez de latin en francoys par Messire Octovian de Saint Gelaiz, en son vivant evesque d'Angoulême reveues et cotez par Maistre Jehan Divry, sm. folio, Lettrés Gothiques, woodcut title and device of printer, calf, £2. 16s Paris, Le Noir, 1514

These were accompanied by a detailed description of each plate, to elucidate the principles which should guide the artist in the conventional treatment of foliage, designed from Nature. That work met with a success which has far exceeded the author's expectations, and a Second Edition is now in preparation.
- The object of the present work is to supplement the former one by a comprehensive and carefully selected series of actual Examples of Art Foliage, drawn from the Mediæval Buildings of our country, to illustrate the most successful treatment of the various types of conventionalized natural forms, in Sculpture and Painting.

This new edition contains many alterations and additions; a second volume will probably appear containing notes of Tours in the SOUTH of ITALY. The present volume gives a complete view of Italian Gothic Architecture North of the Apennines. To the professional Architect the work is indispensable; to the Amateur it will prove a most desirable companion in his visits to Bergamo, Coccaglio, Brescia, Verona, Padua, Vicenza, Venice, Mantua, Cremona, Pavia, Bologna, Modena, Parma, Piacenza, Milan, Monza, Como, etc.

Street, in his "Brick and Marble Architecture," referring to Perkin's "Italian" and "Tuscan Sculptors," says :—To the latter (Mr. Perkin's Works) indeed I owe I know not how many acknowledgements for the information I have derived from him. He has done that for the History of Mediæval and post-Mediæval sculpture in Italy, which had before hardly even so much as been attempted, and his facts and conclusions are almost always so stated as to command the assent of his readers.

The above is the 7th copy taken off and contains the best impressions of the plates. The coppers used in the French edition of the work were re-engraved in a superior manner for this Italian edition.

The book is the completest work of its kind and gives a succinct view of the progress, decline and renovation of Architecture, Sculpture and Painting. A great number of Illustrations are given drawn from MSS. and of much interest to the Palæographical student. The Arts of Engraving on Wood, on Gems, and Medals are also represented.

- The chief value of this collection consisted in the MANUSCRIPTS; the printed books included a vast mass of useless Literature, not worth shelf room. Donors of Libraries to Public Institutions should either grant with their gift the power of sale, or give at the same time such a sum of money, as would pay for the keeping and occasional re-binding of the books. Only a Librarian knows the endless labour and the expense to keep large numbers of books in order and decent condition.

Cette Bibliographie systématique, si vivement souhaitée, n'a pas de précédents. Les livres d'art se comptent par milliers, le nombre s'en accroît chaque jour, et le développement des études de cet ordre est très considérable: dès lors un guide devenait indispensable, et ce guide n'était autre qu'une biographie méthodique et raisonnée des beaux-arts.

A book of singular importance, and the only one published upon the Social Annals of the British people. No work, professing to be a history of England, can pretend to any real value, unless based upon the statistics which show forth the inner lives of the masses, and their gradual progress through the phases of civilization. These statistics are collected here; and it may be remarked as a rather curious fact, that the late Mr. Buckle, for whose work these details of domestic history would have been amongst its most valuable ingredients, seems to have been wholly ignorant of Eden's State of the Poor.

Contents.

- Parliamentary History, by Cobbett, from the earliest period to 1803. 36 vols.
 Parliamentary Debates, by Hansard, First Series, from 1803 to 1820. 41 vols.
 Parliamentary Debates, Second Series, from 1820 to 1830. 25 vols.
 Parliamentary Debates, Third Series, from 1830 to 1858. 151 vols.

A Work of the nature of the Parliamentary Debates, forming at once a perfect Record of the Proceedings of Parliament, and a repository of the eloquence and political wisdom of the great and wise of the time, may be looked upon as an Encyclopædia of the Laws, History, and Policy of this Country.

The correctness of it has been throughout so manifest as to render unnecessary any Official Report of the Daily Parliamentary Debates, and quotations from its pages have always received the authority usually conceded to official documents. A more valuable work of reference, either for Members of Parliament or Public Institutions, does not exist.

This very interesting work contains the most complete account of the great naval war, comprising elaborate details of the engagements, copies of the despatches, memoirs of Admirals, anecdotes, sketches, &c. It is indispensable to any naval library.

This work has a great strong Transatlantic interest. Many of the engagements chronicled took place in American waters, and it contains the biographies of such men as Vancouver, Anson, and others, who were explorers as well as naval officers.

The general substitution of steam for sails, of iron for wood, of fast fine forms for slow full forms, has made the ancient rules of Shipbuilding a mere matter of history. The above work embodies the thoughts, the experiments, the practical experience of a laborious lifetime, spent chiefly in the pursuit of engineering and naval architecture, and is of a very high value.

This work is generally believed, and with good reason, to be alluded to by Shakespeare in As You Like It. It is very illustrative of allusions both in Shakespeare and Ben Jonson. Some copies contain 11 leaves less than the above, marked with a kind of flower. The first leaf of sheet I was cancelled, and twelve additional leaves inserted in its place, forming the complete book as in this copy. The second leaf of sheet I is erroneously marked H 2. In some copies, both the cancelled leaf and the additional sheet occur, but the formerly is certainly out of place, being repeated. There are, therefore, three different kinds of copies, all virtually perfect.

Between Gg and Hh are also 2 leaves, the first marked ¶, forming a chapter "of the Duello or Combat."

An important periodical which gives the history of the efforts made abroad for the improvement of the breeds of horses, and considering the great results achieved

- 1399 GIBBONS (Orlando) first set of Madrigals and Mottets of 5 Parts: apt for Viols and Voyces, in 1 vol. sm. 4to. the 5 parts complete, fine copy in calf, gilt edges, VERY RARE, £10. T. Snodham, 1612
- 1400 HAWKINS' (Sir John) General History of the Science and Practice of Music, 5 vols. 4to. with 51 portraits of celebrated composers, numerous engravings and woodcuts of Musical Instruments, many pieces of old Music, and facsimiles of MSS. fine copy in calf gilt, £6. 6s 1776

Hawkins' History having met with little success when first published—public attention being at the time engrossed with Burney's work—only a small number of copies were sold, but the value of Hawkins' work as a vast storehouse of curious and interesting information, having in recent times been proved, the commercial value has in consequence risen considerably. Hawkins must receive great credit for minute accuracy and deep research, more particularly in points interesting to the antiquary and the literary world.

- 1401 LAWES (Henry and William) CHOICE PSALMES put into Musick for three voices, the most of which may properly enough be sung by any three, with a Thorough Base; with divers Elegies by severall friends upon the death of William Lawes, 4 parts, sm. 4to. portrait of Charles I in each part, red morocco by Bedford, £12. 1648

One of the preliminary pieces is by Milton, another by Sir John Harington, and amongst the elegists will be found some interesting names. The great rarity of the collection is seen from the fact that only a very defective copy is described in the Biblioth. Anglo-Poetica, and Messrs. Lowndes and Hazlitt have followed that description for want of further information.

VERY RARE, and no less interesting. The fine old songs of the Elizabethan period, in which poesy and melody are fitly wedded, deserve more attention than they receive from an age of "nigger" harmonies and "slapbang" rhyming.

- 1425 WHEELKES (Thomas) BALLETTS and MADRIGALS to five voyces, with one to six voyces, 5 parts, sm. 4to. red morocco extra, by Bedford, £25. Thomas Este, 1608

VERY RARE. It is a charming collection, full of the sweetest productions of old English concerted music. Light and graceful compositions are these little poems, instinct with a delicate gaiety which Herrick might have striven to equal. Their spirit is conveyed in pieces like the following:

Whilst youthful sports are lasting
To feasting turn our fasting:
With revels and with wassails
Make grief and care our vassals;
For youth it well becometh
That pleasure he esteemeth;
And sullen age is hated
That mirth would have abated!

Others must have been suggestive to later poets, such as—"Sweet heart, arise! why do you sleep?" and "In pride of May the fields are gay, The birds do sweetly sing; So Nature would that all things should with joy begin the Spring."

This valuable collection is very rare, because of the accidental destruction by fire of a great number of copies. The pieces comprised in these volumes are in the original editions amongst the rarest of all Americana. They include the works of Gomara, Zarate, Oviedo, Letters to and from Cortes, the reports of Cabeza de Vaca, the Life of Columbus, by his son, etc.

- 1464 BARLAEI (Casp.) Historia rerum per octennium in Brasilia et alibi nuper gestarum sub præfectura Mauritii Nassoviæ, etc. large folio, 58 large folding maps and fine plates, each leaf mounted on a guard, vellum, £2. 10s Amst. Blæu, 1647

First edition of an important work. No copy of it was contained in Abbé Fischer's collection, or amongst the "Nuggets," both of which included the edition of 1660. A Vocabulary of the Chilene language is given on pp. 283-289. The historical value of the book still remains unaltered. It is almost the only, and is the best, authority upon the events of the period it comprises.

One of the most valuable and important collection of Voyages in existence, worthy to hold rank beside Ramusio, Hakluyt, Purchas, and De Bry (which indeed is hardly worthy to be named with the rest, because of its prominently pictorial and defective scientific character).

- 1472 BELCHER'S (Sir E.) Voyage round the World, performed in H.M.S. Sulphur, 1836-42, 2 vols. 8vo. plates and woodcuts, cloth, 16s 1843

 senting the Creation, etc. the first two leaves insignificantly wormed and the last leaf mended*, bd. £5. Venetiis, Albertinus de Lissona, 1503

The author's last edition, and the first which contains his account of the discoveries of Columbus—one of the earliest, fullest, and most curious notices of the New World which followed the publication of the Navigator's story. This work is not mentioned by Rich and Ternaux, who pass from the letters of Columbus (1493-4) to the narrative of Vespucci (1504). Mr. Harris quotes no copy of it in the *Bibl. Amer.
 Vetust.*, in which he only describes the edition of 1506, with a mere reference to that of 1502. A description of the latter will only be found in his Addenda, where he cites a copy existing in a New York library.

- 1476 BERISTAIN DE SOUZA (José Mariano) Biblioteca Hispano-Americana Septentrional, ó catalogo y noticia de los Literatos que ó nacidos ó educados, ó florecientes en la America Septentrional Española, han dado á luz algun escrito ó lo han dexado preparado para la prensa, 3 vols. small folio, hf. bd. £60. Mexico, 1816-21

Part of the second and the third volume are edited by Rafael Enriquez Tresp-lacios Beristain, a relative of the author who was then dead. The excessive rarity of this work, its extent and nature, and the authority which it carries, all combine to make it a desiderandum in every great library. It contains the names of nearly 4000 writers, who can be claimed as Americans by birth or residence, with a biography and bibliography of the works of each. There are at least a hundred public libraries in the United States which desire and can afford to buy it, but only occasionally does a copy turn up to meet the demand.

 discovery of the New World must not omit the islands which were like stepping stones in the advance of early explorers.

An interesting set of essays, many of which were originally published by Cobbett in America, in ephemeral form; and which reflect credit upon his courage, since they mingle unqualified praise for everything English and monarchical, with unmeasured abuse for republicans and the rest of the world. Even such acts as the sacking of Dr. Priestley's house, and the persecution of that modest philosopher, are justified by this roaring publicist, who with all his gifts of vigorous sense and clear language, and in spite of his acquired information and his experiences of travel, was still the mere John Bull who divides the world into two antagonistic bodies—Englishmen and Foreigners.

Madrid, 1864-71

This valuable or rather invaluable collection of unpublished documents, the publication of which is authorised by the government of Spain, is no less important for the early history of America than those rare sixteenth century volumes which are supposed to form the indispensable foundation nucleus of every great library devoted to the illustration of the Discovery, Conquest, and Settlement of the Western Hemisphere. In an equal degree it concerns the historical geography of the Southern Indian Ocean.

Brusselas, 1625

This important work is of extreme rarity, although there exist editions printed in 1596 and 1634, as well as the above. It contains some of the most valuable materials in existence for the history of the Spanish Conquest and settlements in America; as well as of the manners, language, and religions of the aborigines. Davila Padilla was born in Mexico in 1562, and had the fullest opportunities of obtaining authentic information. He is the earliest writer who mentions the establishment of Printing in the New World.

- 1564 ——— la misma Historia, sm. folio, engraved title, old calf, £6. 6s ib. 1632

Second and best edition; at least, so considered, because of the additional chapter (212) at the end, which had not previously appeared, and which contains an account of the signs and marvels which had been seen by the Indians before the arrival of the Spaniards. This chapter, el ultimo del original, had been omitted by the editor when first printing the narrative, as one containing matters of which the author could not say, as of all the rest, quorum pars magna fui. The two editions, which are really distinct publications, and not merely two issues of one, were probably printed in the same year.

- 1568 DONCKERS' (Hendrick) SEA ATLAS: Pascaerten, a collection of 26 large maps, coloured, six of which relate specially to America, each 26 inches by 22½, the inscriptions in Dutch, sometimes Dutch and English, but with a short Spanish text prefixed, vellum, from the Library of the Marquis of Astorga, £10. 1671-74

An Atlas of the highest importance for the history of American Cartography; and yet to all appearance totally unknown. Not only are the maps different from all those mentioned in Asher's series (34 in number), but in several instances they contain the first mention of towns that are now flourishing. Doncker had already engraved the Atlas which bears the name of Goos as publisher, but the above volume is quite a different work, and of far greater interest. Amongst the names of towns which appear here for the first time in printed maps, are Salem in Massachusetts, and Warwick and Providence in Rhode Island. But many other entries will be similarly found to show the character of these maps as documents of prime importance. The absence of this atlas from the printed lists of Americana that I have been able to consult, and especially from the essay of Mr. Asher, prove not merely that an exhaustive work on the early maps of New Netherland has yet to be written, but also the great rarity of the volume.

- 1582 EXTRACTO HISTORIAL del Expediente que pende en el Consejo Real de las Indias a instancia de la CIUDAD DE MANILLA y demás de las ISLAS PHILIPINAS, sobre la forma en que se ha de continuar el comercio de los Textidos de China en NUEVA ESPAÑA, sm. folio, vellum, VERY RARE, £3. 3s Madrid, 1736

AN IMPORTANT WORK, exposing the wise policy which discouraged a petty antagonism between the two chief colonies of Spain. The object of the Minister who prepared it was to promote the Importation of Silk, Woollen, and Linen fabrics from China to Mexico. It illustrates the sound and able statesmanship with which Spanish Colonial affairs were at that time conducted.

This work, the authenticity and genuineness of which have been so severely questioned, deserves close attention from the students of Arctic exploration.

"The present edition is greatly prized on account of the beauty of the paper and impression."—Harrisse
"Ouvrage estimé et peu commun de cette édition qui est l'originale."—Brunet.

The discovery by Christopher Columbus, a Genoese, of a way to the Indies shorter than any known before, in here recorded (although with the mistake that the voyage had been accomplished in thirty-one days). Fulgosi says that this new method was shorter, easier, and far preferable to the long and dangerous voyage along the Coast of Africa and through the Southern (i.e. the Indian) Ocean, by which others (Vasco de Gama and the Portuguese) had sought the same regions. In spite of its errors, this constitutes an interesting and very early notice of the two most important voyages in the long annals of Geographical Discovery.

The Invention of Typography by "Contembergus Argentinensis" is also related, with an insinuation that the inventor had been directly inspired by God. By this wonderful art, he says that the great writers of ancient days may be said to have begun their existence in 1440.

This little school book of iv and 88 pp. is not quite so correct as, with its special purpose, it ought to be. The error on the title is not the only specimen. But it is extremely rare, perhaps unique, as I find it nowhere recorded; although I have met with the title of an English reprint, some thirty years later.

Mr. Galloway, an American, who deserted from the national side to that of the British, was the anonymous author of these rare tracts, which advocate a vigorous continuance of the war and a relentless destruction of the rebels.

(? Mexico or Madrid), 1783

This valuable State paper was prepared for the secret instruction of the Viceroy and his successors in the due administration of the Government, to enable them to secure just imposition of taxes, the verification of revenue receipts, and to control the entire financial system of the Mexican dominion. The Marquis de Sonora, better known as Don José de Galvez, is said by Aleman to have created the "Board of Trade" ministry in Mexico, and the historian goes even so far as to attribute all the material and commercial prosperity of the country to that statesman. One chapter of his work is devoted to California and Sonora. The Emperor Maximilian caused twenty copies of this Informe to be printed in 1866, but without the extra documents, also signed by Galvez and dated as late as 1778.

This is a rare and, according to Asher, a very important set of Charts, so far as the geography of Anglo-America is concerned. However, the chief map of those territories is identical with the corresponding plate in Van Loon's Atlas, although indeed the two plates which give a general representation of Western America are not the same.

Only 25 copies printed, and of these only 20 for sale separately.

Of the original Map I can only trace the existence of two copies, one of which is to be seen in the Grenville copy of Hakluyt, 3 vols., and a second which was stated by the traveller Kohl to be in his possession. It is by far the finest result of Cartographical labour which appeared from the epoch of the discovery of America down to the time of D'Anville—that is far more than two hundred years. Hakluyt intended to insert this map in the work published in 1589, but it was not yet ready, and some copies were sent out with a substituted engraving, which is called in the preface “one of the best general mappes of the world.” The latter map was simply a re-engraving from the latest mappemonde of Ortelius (1588), and identical with the one which was regularly published in the English edition of Linschoten's Travels; having therefore no original value or interest.

The engraver of the great Map, or—as Hakluyt calls it—Terrestrial Globe, was “Mr. Emmerie Mollineux of Lambeth, a rare gentleman in his profession, being therein for divers years greatly supported by the purse and liberality of the worshipful merchant, Mr. William Sanderson.”

- 1663 JUANA INEZ DE LA CRUZ (Soror) la Unica Poetisa Americana, Musa Dezima, Obras, 3 vols. sm. 4to. vellum, EXCESSIVELY RARE, £3. 10s Madrid, 1690; Madrid, 1725; Barcelona, 1701
 The third volume consists of verses by Spanish-American writers in her praise. The first volume contains pieces in Mexican, in Negro-Spanish, in Basque, and in Latin mixed up with the Spanish poems. The works of this accomplished lady are so rare, and so generally unknown, that it will be difficult to find a reference to them in the bibliographical handbooks. "Bouterwek places her on a level with Lope de Vega for facility of invention and versification, and considers some of the dramatic pieces of the Mexican nun (especially that entitled 'El Divino Narcisso') as surpassing in merit all the similar writings of the Spanish poet."

 VERY RARE. Sir William Keith was Governor of Pennsylvania. The History of Virginia is all that was executed of a scheme which contemplated similar works for all the colonies.

- 1668 KING, FITZROY and DARWIN, Narrative of the Surveying Voyages of the ADVENTURE and BEAGLE, 1826-36, Examination of the Southern Shores of South America, 4 vols. 8vo. numerous maps and plates, cloth, £3. 3s 1839

- The two volumes of text contain not only copious hydrographical notes upon all the numerous Islands and Lands in the Pacific, but give also the history of geographical discovery in that Region. The ATLAS is very scarce.
- 1672 LABAT. Voyage du Chevalier des Marchais en Guinée, et à Cayenne, 1725-27, 4 vols. 12mo. maps and plates, calf, 12s Amst. 1731

- 1674 LAET (J. de) Novus Orbis seu Descriptio Indiæ Occidentalis, folio, 14 maps and several woodcuts, old calf gilt, £4. Lugd. Bat. apud Elzevirios, 1633
- 1675 ——— Histoire du Nouveau Monde, folio, 14 maps, old calf, arms of a Cardinal-Archbishop on the sides, £2. 16s Leyde, 1640
- The special value of this work and these editions consists in its maps of North America, New England and New Netherlands, from which succeeding writers copied. In fact, Laet's work was the standard Atlas of the Western Hemisphere for nearly a century and a half. Mr. Asher, in the Bibliographical and Historical Essay, says that he could not find a copy of the French edition in Holland, and was therefore obliged to quote Ternaux's description.
- 1676 LAET (J. de) Notae ad Dissertationem, et Responsio ad Dissertationem secundam H. Grotii, De Origine Americanorum, 2 vols. in 1, 12mo. vellum, 10s Amst. Elzevir, 1643-44

- "L'auteur donne des détails très-étendus et très-exacts sur les coutumes, les mœurs, la religion des sauvages de l'Amérique, et notamment de ceux du Canada. Il avait été à même de bien connaître ces peuples, ayant longtemps vécu chez les Iroquois."—Biog. Univers.
- "On y trouve un grand détail de mœurs. . . . Aussi n'avions nous rien de si exact sur ce sujet."—Charlevoix.
- 1678 LAHONTAN, Nouveaux Voyages dans l'Amérique Septentrionale, 2 vols. in 1, 12mo. First Edition, 26 maps, plates and views, old calf gilt, 30s La Haye, 1703
- With Vocabulary of the Algonquin language.
- 1679 ——— Seconde édition augmentée, 2 vols. 12mo. 27 maps and plates, not from the same coppers as the first edition, old calf gilt, 25s ib. 1706
- The difference in the number of plates is really in favour of the first edition, as that has a small Carte générale, which is not in the second. The latter has a fresh, frontispiece and a figure of a sphere in addition. The augmentations are merely imaginary dialogues between the author and an Indian chief in which questions of high morality and political economy are discussed.
- 1680 LANGSDORFF (G. H.) von) Voyages and Travels in various parts of the World, 1803-7, 2 vols. 4to. plates, bds. 15s 1813-14
- Gives a valuable account of the Natives of the Aleutian Islands, of Kamchatka, Siberia, Japan, Brazil, etc.

- 1681 LA PÉROUSE, Voyage round the World, 1785-88, published by Milet-Mureau, translated from the French, 2 vols. impl. 4to. with the folio ATLAS of maps and plates, bds. 25s 1799

 EXCESSIVELY RARE. It is many years since a complete set of these treatises was last in my possession.
- 1683*[LAS CASAS, OBRAS] Relacion de la Destruycion de las Indias—Treynta Propositiones en las quales se tocan cosas pertenecientes el derecho que la Iglesia y los principes Christianos tienen sobre los Infieles—Disputa o Controversia entre Las Casas y Sepulveda—Tratado sobre la materia de los Indios—Remedios para reformacion de las Indias—Pedazo de una Carta—6 parts in 1 vol. sm. 4to. russia extra, £2. 2s (Barcelona, 1646)
- The general title with which this collection of Las Casas' Treatises was published is generally absent, and the consequence is that bibliographers (including the latest writer on this special subject) describe this as "the counterfeit edition, bearing a title with the false date of 1552, but easily recognizable by its Roman type." Now there was no intention whatever to deceive: the first page of the reprint is the title of the Brevisima Relacion, and naturally bears its proper date of 1552, just as the pieces that follow bear their own.
- 1684 LAURIN, le Chansonnier Canadien, ou Nouveau Recueil de Chansons, 16mo. hf. morocco, 12s Québec, 1843
 Most of these songs are of pure Canadian origin, although there are a few Parisian pieces interspersed; and comprise some very spirited and racy compositions. Their is a quaint vigour in the language which forms a strong contrast with the elegant feebleness of most modern French poetry.

The squabble between the Spanish West India Directors (if I may so name them) and the Peruvian Chamber of Commerce, although not of very wide interest, nevertheless involves the history of the foundation and administration of the Board of Trade for the Indies, and the bases of the fiscal settlement of the new territories. It also foreshadows the break between Spaniards and Creoles which led to the separation of the two countries.

- 1690 LONG (Major) Travels. JAMES (Edwin) Account of an Expedition from Pittsburgh to the Rocky Mountains, 1819-20, under the command of Major Long, compiled from his notes, etc. 3 vols. 8vo. maps and plates, £2. 2s 1823
- 1691 McCOY (Isaac) History of Baptist Indian Missions, condition of the aboriginal tribes, etc. 8vo. cloth, 15s Washington, 1840
A useful narrative, although the author seems to have wasted much time in groaning and in writing down his groans.
- 1692 McCULLOH, Researches philosophical and antiquarian concerning the Aboriginal History of America, 8vo. map, bds. 21s Baltimore, 1829
RARE.—This is considered by Prescott and other writers to be the best work in the language on the sources and material of the aboriginal history of the New World. Hence its scarcity.

The first volume is important for the general history of Peru in the sixteenth century; the third contains many valuable particulars concerning the Indian tribes and their customs. The second volume is full of saints and devils.

One of the maps represents the entire of North America; the other, Nova Scotia and the neighbouring states as far southwards as Virginia. It is an interesting collection, the English documents, with translations, being given as well as the French ones, and the reports and commentaries. There is a continual examination and discussion of the early maps and geographers, and also of books of travels in North America.

This has the rare map of Virginia and New England, engraved by Ralph Hall in 1636, which is very seldom seen in the Book. All the copies were issued with simply a duplicate of the New Spain map impressed opposite the text to Virginia, this being mentioned in the Errata with a statement that a correct map of New England was then being prepared in America, which would be published on its arrival in England. It is inserted at the beginning, and gives a special value to any copy of the English translation in which it occurs, as in the above. I know of no other than the above in which it is to be found. Dr. Bliss' contained a map of New England, but not the right one, having been inserted from Smith's Virginia. The translator's name was Wye Saltonstall. That of the map-maker seems to be omitted in all the books of reference where one might expect to find it.

- 1754 (Official MS. Memoranda of the Office of the Lords Commissioners for Trade and Plantations.) Abstract of the Commissions and Instructions formerly and at this time given to the Governors of His Majesty's Plantations in America, with references to the books and papers, shewing the alterations that have been made therein; as also Observations on the most remarkable occurrences in each Government, especially before the establishment of this Office in 1696, roy. folio, 61 neatly written pages, containing a very large body of notes and observations of extreme interest, for the History of New England, Virginia, and the older states of the present Union, bound in the official rough calf, £20. 1740

This valuable volume contains the most authentic Chronicle of Anglo-American affairs that can anywhere be met with. The secret instructions and memoranda for the guidance of colonial agents, at which the historian could only guess, are set down here with the most perfect candour, not for the edification of the people, but for the information of ministers who never imagined that such a private record could escape from its official prison.

- 1754*LISTS of Imports and Exports to and from America and West Indian Colonies during the years 1749 and 1750, roy. folio, MS. in bds. 10s 1750

This yields some curious information as to the nature of the trade between Great Britain and her Colonies.

- 1755 ONA (Pedro de, natural de los Infantes de Engol en Chile) ARAUCO DOMADO, (poema epico) stout 12mo. good copy in limp vellum, from the Bathurst library, VERY RARE, £4. Madrid, Juan de la Cuesta, 1605

This is a poem respectably dull, when compared with Ercilla, but nevertheless creditable to the first native poet of Chile. Its historical value is however greater than its literary merit; and the student must refer to the stanzas of the Aranco Domado (fortunately unembellished by a brilliant imagination) for many details of the conquest and settlement of Chile that are not to be found in Ovalle or elsewhere.

- 1756 ORDENANZAS REALES para la Casa de la Contratacion de Sevilla y para otras cosas de las Indias y de la Navegacion y contratacion dellas, sm. folio, hf. morocco, uncut, VERY RARE, £3. 3s Valladolid, 1604

A reprint of the first edition of 1554, with the additional decrees issued by Philip II, down to 1583. This royal code by which the Spanish West-India House was established and regulated, is of considerable importance to any one who would comprehend the relations between the parent country and the colonies, and gain a true understanding of many obscure passages in the History of the New World.

- 1757 ORTELIUS THEATRUM ORBIS Terrarum, opus nunc TERTIO ab ipso recognitum, multis locis castigatum et novis tabulis auctum, stout folio, 112 coloured maps, old vellum, £5. ib. 1584
- 1758 — alia editio, denuo ab auctore recognitum acc. Parergon et Nomenclator Ptolemaicus, large folio, above 125 coloured plates, old vellum, £4. 10s ib. 1592

- 1759 OVALLE, Historica relacion del Reyno de CHILE, sm. folio, small map, and 33 (out of 35) plates and 18 woodcuts, Spanish calf, £3. 10s Roma, 1646
- 1760 — the same, a fine and PERFECT COPY, with the large original map, 21 portraits, 14 other plates, and 18 woodcuts, red morocco extra, by Bedford, £16. 16s Roma, 1646
- EXTREMELY RARE, especially when in the above state. Brunet speaks of 23 portraits, but mentions nothing of the other 14 plates, although he does the 18 woodcuts. COLLATION: Title, Prologo, Advertencia, and Protesta, 4 leaves; text, pp. 1-456, including Index.
- The plates in the above volume are curious. One at p. 58 represents a miraculous tree like the Saviour crucified, growing in the Valley of Limache, in Chili; another the sudden appearance of the Virgin, at a battle between the Indians and the Spaniards; others, the various games, costumes, etc. of the Indians, with the manner of transferring their houses from one place to another. “Ouvrage recherché, mais difficile à trouver.”—Brunet.
- 1761 OVIEDO Y VALDES (G. F. de) Historia general y natural de las Indias, islas y tierra firme del Mar Ocean, publ. por la Real Academia de la historia, cotejada con el codice orig., enriquec. con las enmiendas y adiciones del autor, é ilustr. con la vida y el juicio de la obras del mismo por D. - The rarity of this volume is shewn by its omission from the lists of Rich and Ternaux, especially the latter. Even among the Nuggets it does not appear, nor in the many recent catalogues of Americana. The translator’s name is absent from French literary history. His work comprises the first ten book of Oviedo’s History, of which only twenty had as yet been published in the original Spanish.

A very scarce Collection of News Letters, many of which were suppressed, and the above volume contains nearly all that were published. They are chiefly political and satirical—often jocosely written in a sort of Peruvian Spanish slang.

- The parent edition of a new series of Ptolemies. Sebastian Münster, the famous cosmographer, edited it, (first in 1540, of which the above is a re-issue with a new date) re-designing the maps, according to the lights of fresh discovery, and thenceforward each new edition has followed or improved upon his work. In the first Map—Typus Universalis—the continent of America is divided into three parts: Francisca (Canada); Terra Florida, Temistitan (i.e. Mexico) which is broken off from Florida by the circumference line of the circle, and consequently appears on the extreme right in the Asiatic half of the globe; and America seu insula Brasiliæ (South America). Maps 2-28 contain the series of Ptolemy's ancient maps, as designed by Münster. Then follow the twenty maps of the modern world, of which the seventeenth contains the Novus Orbis, that is, North and South America, which is on the whole very correct for the time and place of production, extending from Labrador to Tierra del Fuego. The only feature in it, which is decidedly wrong or imaginary, is the delineation of the western and northern coasts of North America, in which of course no correctness could be expected.

- VERY RARE. Only three or four copies are known. There is an American reprint of this interesting journal executed in 1844 at New York, from the only copy then known to be in existence, which had recently turned up. It is an extremely important narrative by the colonel of a partizan corps which performed some of the roughest and most successful service effected by the British army during the War of Independence. As a book of military instruction it is still highly valuable.

Francckfurt, (Weygandt Han), s. a.

The first edition was printed at Marburg in 1557, and this one which is called the second, appeared at the same time, in Frankfurt. The woodcuts in both are said to be different, but those in the Frankfurt edition are the prototypes of the De Bry engravings on this subject. The present edition is also said by Mr. Markham, in the bibliography prefixed to the Hakluyt Society's translation of Hans Stade, to be very scarce, a remark which he does not make concerning any other of the editions. The book possesses very great intrinsic value and interest as a record of early exploration, and of acquaintance with races of the New World no longer existing.

Henrie Bynneman for Thomas Hacket, 1568
The special subject of this work is South America, but it also treats upon the Northern continent. and the discovery of the New World. It is not only rare (there being few libraries which can boast of possessing the English translation), but is also a most entertaining book, full of extraordinary stories which he gathered from the mouths of the people during his stay in Rio de Janeiro. This is one cause of its great rarity, as it thus entered into the class of popular books, and was eagerly read in former days, copies being in consequence liable to injury and destruction, and therefore scarce. There was only one edition of the translation; there were two of the French original, which is also a very rare book. Thomas Hacket was the translator as well as the publisher.

This volume is excessively rare. I do not find it mentioned by any bibliographer except Beristain, and even he does not seem to have seen it.
- 1865 TRAVELS of several Jesuit Missionaries into the Archipelago, India, China, and AMERICA, from the French, 8vo. plates, old calf, 4s 1714
- 1866 TRUMBULL (J. Hammond) Origin and Early Progress of Indian Missions in New England, with a list of Books in the Indian language printed at Cambridge and Boston, 1653-1721, roy. 8vo. hf. morocco, uncut, £2. 12s 6d Privately printed, Worcester, Massachusetts, 1874
The first bibliography of its kind, and for that reason comparatively imperfect; but nevertheless one of high value, far surpassing in extent and correctness the entire aggregate of similar notices that might be gathered from all previous printed sources of information. The author is probably the only person in the world who knows the languages concerning which he writes.

B. 4to. LARGE and THICK PAPER, numerous beautiful portraits and plates, very fine copy in old calf gilt, £5. Amsteldam, 1683
- VERY RARE in this state. The Lives of the great Dutch Seamen form a work of singular interest to the student of geographical History. There is no list of plates by which to collate the volume; but it seem possible that the three portraits are deficient.
- 1872 VAN LOON. Klaer lichtende Noort Ster, ofte ZEE-ATLAS, waer inne vertoont werde de Gelegentheyht van alle de Zee-kusten des Aerdegodens, roy. folio. elephant coloured frontispiece and 45 double maps, all carefully COLOURED, etc. vellum, calf back, £10. Amst. 1661
- A very valuable work, unmentioned by Asher in his excellent Bibliography of the Atlases and Maps relating to the New Netherlands, although its North American charts are different from the Atlases and Charts examined by Asher. It is unquestionably the best Atlas representing the coasts of the now United States yet published to that time, and proves that the Brothers Van Loon were accurate and painstaking geographers. Some of the maps are naturally reproductions from the great Atlases of Blaeu, Laet, and Jansson, and the name of the latter appears occasionally, but the differences which make the book important are to be found in the delineations of regions which were daily becoming better known, such as the European colonies in North America. This Atlas seems to be the original, or earliest existing form of a series of Dutch maps mentioned by Asher, to which belongs even the Chartbook of Pieter Goos. His statement that Goos's maps were different from and superior to all anterior works of the kind, suffices to fix the value of the Atlas of Van Loon.

- 1874 VENEGAS (Miguel) Noticia de la California, y de su Conquista, sacada del MS. 3 vols. sm. 4to. maps, limp vellum, £2. 16s Madrid, 1757
- The first map is one of California only; but as that name was used in a more limited sense than at present, the second map, which is general, supplies the deficiencies. This second map is a very curious one, showing the entire Pacific shores of Asia and America, with records of the latest explorations by the Spaniards, Russians, and English, especially on the upper Californian shores, and Columbia.

A very rare and curious volume. It is not uncheerful to read of dissenters amongst the Puritans, and of sentences of excommunication passed by the sufferers for freedom of religious opinion. And when we see Mr. Weld's malignity and falsehood concerning poor Ann Hutchinson and those who agreed with her, it is consoling to think that he himself was expelled from the church some time afterwards.

- The very interesting Codex, of which the above is a careful reprint, was discovered in Mexico by Beltrami in the year 1826, and came into the hands of the present editor by purchase from the heirs. It was composed, between 1529 and 1590, in pure and elegant Nahuatl, by Bernardino Sahagun, a Spanish Monk of the Franciscan order. Mr. Biondelli, by his introductory observations, has thrown considerable light upon the Nahuatl language, its affinity to other families of language, its grammatical peculiarities, and upon the traditions, institutions, and monuments of the Aztecs; thus forming a complete treasury of everything appertaining to the ancient Mexicans.

This is in many ways an interesting volume, being not only the best work on Quichuan Grammar that has yet appeared, but also exhibiting choice specimens of the modern Spanish literature of New Peruvia. The author in spite of his Spanish name is an enthusiastic worshipper of the old language, cultivated by him from childhood amongst the unmixed descendants of the Yncas. The old Ynca Cipher-language is explained in a special section; and the text of a famous Quichuan drama is given entire at the end, from MS. sources.

Grassi, 1591
- VERY RARE. Brunet, in describing this volume, which he had probably not seen, makes no mention of the eight fine plates, but speaks of "deux cartes." The engravings may therefore have been deficient in the copies which he had found noticed; in the above, there is, besides one large map representing the entire continent of Africa (except the western promontory from Barbary to Guinea) with the sources and course of the Nile. This is of excessive rarity.

- VERY RARE. This book is wrongly described by Brunet, who apparently never saw the frontispiece which unites the two volumes as two parts of one work. It is also incorrect that the first volume (Ethiopia Oriental) was printed at Lisbon: both parts were printed in the same year by the same man at the same place—the Convent of St. Dominick of Evora. The work begins with a description of the four parts of the world, of which the first is America.

- 2329 Y SEINT GREAL, being the Adventures of King Arthur's Knights of the Round Table in the Quest of the Holy Greal, in Welsh, originally written about the year 1200, (in Norman-French), with Notes, by the Rev. Robert Williams, 8vo. sd. 15s 1874

The preface asserts that Walter Map composed the original of this famous Romance "in Norman-French." The Welsh text is unfortunately a translation executed apparently in the fourteenth century; and not a fragment of the legends embodied in the first Latin or French work on the Grail. Still, it is the oldest existing British form of the Grail Romance.

The finest collection of old Welsh Poetry in existence. It is the source of almost all our information on the subject.

"Of all the labourers in the field of Celtic antiquities, none deserves more honourable remembrance than Owen Jones, the poor peasant of Myvyr, who, unassisted by patronage, devoted his life to the preservation of the literature of his country. He came up to London, a poor boy, engaged as a clerk in some city establishment, and, after forty years of self-denial, with the accumulation of his scanty earnings, published the Myvyrian Archaeology, at his own cost, in 1801 and 1807. It was a work which might have been done by a king, an institution, or a society of the noble and the learned; but it was accomplished, and scrupulously accomplished by a poor Welsh peasant."—Athenæum, No. 1814, Aug. 2, 1862.

- 2786 ARISTOTLE'S WORKS, translated and illustrated with copious Elucidations and a Dissertation on the Philosophy of Aristotle by Thomas Taylor, 8 vols. roy. 4to. uncut, only 50 copies printed, £10. 1801-12
- Contents:—Metaphysics, 1801—Ethics, Politics, and Economics, 1811—Organon, 1807—Treatises, 1808—History of Animals, 1809—Treatise on Animals, and Problems, 1802—Rhetoric and Nicomachean Ethics, 1811—Dissertation, 1812.
- This voluminous and elaborate work is a strong and indubitable proof of the translator's extraordinary industry and very great abilities. He persevered in executting it in opposition to a numerous train of unexampled difficulties, which would have entirely subdued a less resolute spirit. In the Organon, or Logical Treatises, Mr. Taylor has given copious extracts from the Commentary of Ammonius Hermias on the Treatise entitled "de Interpretatione," and also from Simplicius on the Categories. His elucidations from the Commentary of Simplicius on the Physics are still more copious, and contain, in addition to much other valuable matter, extracts from the lost writings of Parmenides, Melissus, Empedocles, Democritus, Anaxagoras, &c. which Simplicius says were very rare even in his time. In the books on the Heavens, and on the Soul, the reader will find the substance of the Commentaries of Simplicius on these Treatises. In the treatises likewise on Meteors and on Sense and Phantasy, he will find the Scholia of Olympiodorus on the former, and Priscianus on the latter, both of which are replete with peculiarly important information. The notes on the Metaphysics contain nearly the whole of the Commentaries of Syrianus that are extant, and are a most able and satisfactory defence of the Platonic doctrine of Ideas, against the apparent opposition of Aristotle.

The philosophic reader is indebted for the publication of this work to Wm. Meredith, an ardent admirer of the philosophy of Plato and Aristotle, who supported Thos. Taylor in his other works with great liberality.

- 2819 ——— another copy, 12mo. brown morocco, gilt edges, £2. 16s 1502
First Aldine edition. It was edited by Aldus and Avantius. Brunet calls it "rare et recherchée;" and Dibdin, "very rare." Clement says there is every reason why this edition should be very rare, as a great number of copies have been destroyed in the colleges, by such students as were capable of making use of them; others again are deposited in the public libraries; whilst the remainder, being dispersed throughout Europe, have become the objects of the research of the curious, which are the reasons why this edition is met with by accident alone. MacCarthy's fetched 139 fr. 50 c.
The preface is curious to the bibliographer, as pointing out the number of copies Aldus printed of those books "in hac forma minima," which would appear to have been 3000 of the Latin authors, and (on the authority of the preface to the Euripides) 1000 of the Greek.
- 2820 CATULLUS, Poems of, translated with preface and notes by George Lamb, 2 vols. 12mo. hf. russia, 7s 6d 1821

 The chief value of this work is not its version of Cicero, but the quaint original rhymes and the fine engravings which adorn it. Scenes of every kind are found among them, illustrating all the phases of life and society in the early part of the sixteenth century; a sick man surrounded by lawyers and doctors, highway robbery, common theft, murder, torture and execution, soldiers gambling, surgeons operating, artists painting, mystical and emblematic figures, etc. The reverse of the first leaf contains a fine portrait of Schwartzberg after Albrecht Dürer.

- 2881 HORATIUS, Editio Aldina Prima, 12mo. ruled red morocco, gilt edges, by Prautz-Bauzonnet, £25. Venetiis, Aldus, 1501
First Aldine Edition, said to be equal in rarity to the Virgil of the same date. Renouard's copy sold for 500 francs, Costabili's for 700 francs, and Bearzi's for 1000 francs.
The first books printed in Italics, then invented and cast by Francesco di Bologna for Aldus, was the Virgil published by the latter in 1501; and he followed up his success with the Horace above described. The caveat addressed to other printers and booksellers which appears on the last page of this volume refers to this new type as hujuscemodi literulæ.

- 2884 HORATII Flacci Opera, 2 vols. 8vo. a copy of Pyne's superb edition, engraved throughout, first edition, with the "Postest," fine copy in old English blue morocco extra, £10. 10s
Londini, Johannes Pine, 1733-37
 A vague notion exists that there are only two issues of Pine's Horace, the first issue with the error on Cæsar's head, Vol. II. page 108, "Postest;" the second issue, the error corrected into "Potest." This is only half the truth. Pine's coppers were worked perhaps a dozen times, and as recently as 1775 a number of impressions were taken, after which they seem to have disappeared.

- 3046 DICTIONNAIRE historique des CULTES RELIGIEUX, 4 vols. 8vo. plates, hf. green morocco, 24s Versailles, 1820-21
- 3047 DUPUIS, l'Origine de tous les Cultes, Planches, 4to. frontispiece and 22 plates, with explanatory text, being the Atlas separately, hf. bd. 15s Paris, 1795
- 3048 FABER'S (G. S.) Origin of Pagan Idolatry, ascertained from historical testimony and circumstantial evidence, 3 vols. 4to. map and three plates, half green calf, RARE, £6. 6s 1816
Dr. Faber was a learned man who believed in Adam and Eve, and who held that all heathen religions of ancient days were derived from traditional corruptions of the early narrative of Genesis.
- 3049 GUBERNATIS (Angelo de) ZOOLOGICAL MYTHOLOGY, or the Legends of Animals, 2 vols. 8vo. cloth, 20s 1872
This is one of the most valuable contributions to the literature of Comparative Mythology which the study of that admirable science has produced. The folk-lore and legends of many nations, Teutons, Celts, Slavs, and Italians, are investigated and compared with the stories of ancient Indian and classical literature; involving a wealth of illustration that can scarcely be rivalled elsewhere.
- 3050 HIGGINS'S ANACALYSIS, an attempt to draw aside the veil of the Saitic Isis, or an Inquiry into the Origin of Languages, Nations and Religions, 3 vols. in 2, stout 4to. xxxii and 867 pages, five plates containing 34 compartments of figures, etc. hf. calf, £14. 14s 1833-36
Extremely rare. On page vii of the preface this passage occurs: "I have only printed two hundred copies of this work." It is composed of the refuse collected from dunghoops of antiquated learning.
- 3051 SCHMIDT (W. A.) Geschichte der Denk- und Glaubensfreiheit im ersten Jahrhundert, 8vo. cloth, 2s 6d Berlin, 1847
- 3052 SUPERNATURAL RELIGION: an Inquiry into the Reality of Divine Revelation, 2 vols. 8vo. Fourth Edition, (pub. 24s) cloth, 16s 1874

Celtic.

- 3053 BARTH über die Druiden der Kelten und die Priester der alten Teutschen, als Einleitung in die altteutsche Religionslehre, 8vo. hf. calf, 4s Erlangen, 1826

Celtic—continued.

- 3053* DAVIES' Celtic Researches, on the Origin, Traditions, and Languages of the Ancient Britons: with Introductory Sketches on Primitive Society, 1804—Mythology and Rites of the British Druids, ascertained by national documents, with an appendix of ancient poems and extracts, and remarks on Ancient British Coins, frontispiece, 1809—together 2 vols. royal 8vo. hf. calf, uncut, 30s 1804-9

Highly esteemed in Wales, but not elsewhere considered to be a book of extraordinary value.

- 3054 HIGGINS'S CELTIC DRUIDS: or an attempt to shew that the Druids were the Priests of Oriental Colonies, who emigrated from India, and were the Introducers of the first or Cadmean System of Letters, and the Builders of Stonehenge, of Carnac, and other Cyclopean works in Asia and Europe, 4to. map and 45 plates, bds. £2. 16s 1829

The industry with which Higgins gathered his facts and the intensity of his devotion to the History of Ancient Faiths, are scarcely equal to the dogmatism with which, like all half-educated people, he maintained the most absurd theories.

- 3055 STUKELY (W.) Stonehenge, a temple restored to the British Druids, folio, portrait and 35 plates, 1740—Abury, a temple, with some others, described, folio, 40 plates, 1743—together 2 vols. in 1, folio, many plates and plans of Druidical Remains, and woodcuts, hf. morocco, £3. 16s 1740-43 (reprint ca. 1830)

There are wanting in the Preface and Dedication to Abury, two leaves.

Egyptian.

- 3056 WILKINSON'S (Sir Gardner) Materia Hieroglyphica, the Egyptian Pantheon, Early History of Egypt, etc. with 4 appendixes, 3 parts, sm. 4to. plates, with slips and additional leaves, and a separate Atlas, in oblong sm. folio, of 22 leaves containing 60 plates, privately printed, VERY RARE, £5. Egypt and Malta, 1828-30

Oriental Religions.

- 3057 FABER'S Mysteries of the CABIRI, or the Great Gods of Phenicia, Samothrace, Egypt, Troas, Greece, Italy and Crete, 2 vols. 8vo. calf, 21s Oxford, 1803

A favorable specimen of Mr. Faber's learned, narrow, orthodox talent.

- 3058 KALPA SUTRA and NAVA TATVA: two works illustrative of the Jain Religion and Philosophy, translated from the Maghadi, with an Appendix on the language of the original, by Stevenson, 8vo. cloth, 7s 6d 1848

A thoroughly excellent book. It contains the Sacred Book of the Jains, the only remnant of ancient Buddhism in India, and also the textbook of their Philosophy; with the translator's valuable remarks on the Pracrit form of language in which the Kalpa Sutra is composed. It was written in Gujerat A.D. 411.

- 3059 MÜNTER, Religion der Karthager, 4to. 2 plates—Sendschreiben an Creuzer über einige Sardische Idole, 2 plates—2 parts in 1 vol. sm. 4to. hf. calf, 5s Kopenhagen, 1821-22

- 3059* TYTLER'S Inquiry into the origin and principles of Budaic Sabism, 4to. plates, a stained copy, hf. calf, 25s 1817

Budaic Sabism is the author's title for that ancient system of Religion common to all mankind after the Flood! He finds it in Buddhism and Brahmanism and the worship of the Regenerative Energy; and identifies Greek and Hindu deities.

Gnosticism and Mancheism—see THEOLOGY—HERESIES.

Mormonism.

- 3060 The BOOK of MORMON, 8vo. calf, £7. 7s Palmyra, U.S. 1833

This first edition, printed in a remote country village, near the residence of the "Prophet," is of the utmost rarity.

Polynesian.

- 3061 GREY (Sir Geo.) POLYNESIAN MYTHOLOGY, and Ancient Traditional History of the New Zealand Race, sm. 8vo. music, cloth, 8s 6d 1855

Scandinavian and Teutonic.

- 3062 THORPE (B.) NORTHERN MYTHOLOGY: comprising the Popular Traditions and Superstitions of Scandinavia, North Germany, and the Netherlands, and an epitome of German Mythology, 3 vols. sm. 8vo. cloth, out of print, 24s 1852

BARTH—see No. 3053

- 3063 VULPIUS, Handwörterbuch der deutschen und nordischen Völker, 8vo. plates, hf. calf, 3s 6d Leipzig, 1826

Serpent and Phallic Worship.

- 3064 ANCIENT SYMBOL WORSHIP: Influence of the Phallic Idea in the Religions of Antiquity, by HODDER M. WESTROFF and C. STANILAND WAKE, with an Introduction, additional Notes, and Appendix, by ALEXANDER WILDER, M.D. 1 vol. 8vo. beautifully printed on superior paper, cloth extra, 7s 6d New York, 1874

The introduction and notes are new; the two essays are reprinted from the proceedings of the Anthropological Society. Dr. Wilder's notions seem good to some readers on both sides of the Atlantic: if this be a criterion, the book is valuable.

- 3065 DEANE'S Worship of the Serpent traced throughout the World, second enlarged edition, 8vo. bds. 30s 1833

Mr. Deane proves that Satan tempted Eve in the likeness of a serpent, not in that of a monkey or any other animal.

- 3066 DULAURE, Histoire des différens Cultes: des Cultes qui ont précédé et amené l'Idolatrie ou l'adoration des figures humaines; des Divinités génératrices, ou du Culte du Phallus, 2 vols. 8vo. hf. bd. 30s Paris, 1825

Books on Phallic worship are eagerly sought for, and seldom worth reading. Dulaure's is one of the most sober and interesting.

- 3067 FERGUSSON'S TREE AND SERPENT WORSHIP; or Illustrations of Mythology and Art in India, in the first and fourth centuries after Christ, from Sculptures of the Buddhist Topes at Sanchi and Amravati, super royal 4to. original edition, 250 pp. 100 photographs and plates, hf. red morocco, gilt top, uncut, £4. 4s 1868

- 3068 INMAN'S (Dr. Th.) ANCIENT FAITHS embodied in Ancient Names: or an attempt to trace the Religious Belief, Sacred Rites, and Holy Emblems of certain Nations, second edition, 2 stout vols. 8vo. numerous plates and woodcuts, (pub. at £3.) cloth, new, £2. 10s 1872

"R. P. Knight, the writer of the first 'Essay,' was a Fellow of the Royal Society, a Member of the British Parliament, and one of the most learned antiquaries of his time. His Museum of Phallic objects is now most carefully preserved in the London British Museum. The second 'Essay,' bringing our knowledge of the worship of Priapus down to the present time, so as to include the more recent discoveries throwing any light upon the matter, is said to be by one of the most distinguished English antiquaries—the author of numerous works which are held in high esteem. He was assisted, it is understood, by two prominent Fellows of the Royal Society, one of whom has recently presented a wonderful collection of Phallic objects to the British Museum authorities.”

Payne Knight is unjustly described in the preceding note from the new editor's hand. He was a Greek scholar and a dilettante archæologist, but hardly “one of the most learned antiquaries of his day.” His book on the Worship of Priapus, however highly prized by certain collectors, is a flimsy, coarse, and unscientific production. The author of the second Essay, with a greater abundance of material, and a more exclusive devotion to the unsavory subject, is quite equal to his precursor in want of competence to execute a scholarly work on this cultus.

An extremely curious volume, which seems to have escaped the research of bibliographers. It deals with the metaphysical theories of the universe, the nature of the soul, and the existence of matter; and also with the opinions of early and late writers—including Rupertus Tuitiensis on the Eucharist.

- From Girardot de Préfond's library. A magnificent exposition of the merciless creed of orthodox Christianity concerning the punishment of the wicked. The author, who was a Doctor of the Ambrosian College at Milan, asserts the material nature of Hell's torments, describes its appearance and size, and its exact locality in the centre of the earth, and contemptuously stigmatizes the heretics who believed in the fires of remorse and other metaphorical subterfuges. The nature of spirits, the struggle of Lucifer with the Archangel Michael, the present privileges of demons and their actual condition, are all treated with the same minute historical accuracy.

In urbe Lubicana, Lucas Brandis, 1475

A magnificent volume. THE FIRST BOOK PRINTED AT LÜBECK, and EXCESSIVELY RARE. The two maps are documents of considerable importance for the study of the history of Geography in the Middle Ages. There is an additional interest in the fact that they are also the FIRST PRINTED MAPS in existence.

The book contains a history of the Bible, of the Church and the Popes, of the Empire and its States, with a Calendar and Martyrology; besides a geographical account of all the countries of the known world. Some curious theories are mentioned in the Life of the Virgin concerning the exact manner of the Saviour's conception and birth.

- 3143 AUGUSTINUS (S.) DE CIVITATE DEI, folio, Editio Princeps, the third book printed in Italy, and in the same type as the Lactantius of 1465, very large copy, with initial letters illuminated in gold and colours, a few slight mendings visible, blue morocco, gilt gaufre edges, with arms of Earl Spencer in gold on sides, £90. In Monasterio Sublacensi, 1467

FIRST EDITION of one of the great monuments of human genius. Only three works printed by Schweinheim and Pannartz during their two years' residence with the monks of Subbiaco are now known: Lactantii Divinæ Institutiones, 1465; Cicero de Oratore (probably 1466); and the above magnificent volume, which is unquestionably the most important of the three. It is the greatest work of the great man who first infused a soul into the marble form of ancient Philosophy, who first introduced Christianity into the world of learning and enlightenment, and who shewed in this very work how the Empire (Civitas Mundi) must go down before the New Faith (Civitas Dei), of which he was the noblest exponent and representative that had yet appeared.

- 3144 AUGUSTINUS (S.) de Civitate Dei, large folio, very fine copy with illu- minated initials, bd. £7. 10s Venetiis, J. et V. de Spira, 1470

A fine copy of a great book, which is also a cheap specimen from the famous press of the first printers at Venice, where typography was then only one year old.
The colophon is in verse, and records some curious facts—for example, that this was the third book printed at Venice, and that Johann of Speier, now deceased, had printed one hundred copies of each of the earlier books, Pliny and Cicero; ending with the statement that Wendelin his brother had arrived to finish the uncompleted impression of Augustine, and would remain at Venice.

B. de Zanis de Portesio, impensis Luceantonii de Giunta*, 1506
- Brunt states that the volume contains an engraving of an instrument of death-punishment which resembles the guillotine. I cannot find any such; the nearest approach to such a method of decollation, which is seen in these woodcuts, is the affixing to the martyr's neck of a cleaver upon which the executioner strikes with a large mallet.
- 3163 PASSIONAEL, efte dat Levent der Hyllighen, to Dude uth dem latino, mit velen nyen hystorien . . . de beth heer to den mynschē vordunkert uñ vorborghen sint ghewezen, folio, xylographic title, with large woodcut on the back, numerous fine woodcuts throughout the volume, large and fine copy in antique calf neat, by Lewis, £28. Basel, Adam Petri, 1511
- VERY RARE. It is a reproduction of the Low German Passional printed at Lübeck a few years earlier, but with an entirely new series of woodcuts, which differ toto cælo from the rude and primitive illustrations of the North German editions.

It is extremely curious that the great printer of Basel should have published a Low German translation of the Aurea Legenda rather than one of the High German texts which were so plentiful.

- 3164 PASSIONAL. Dit es d'leven ons Heeren Jhesu Christi, sm. folio, title in red and black with two woodcuts, numerous large and curious woodcuts throughout the volume, old stamped calf, £5.

- 3174 MANSEL (Dean) Gnostic Heresies of the first and second Centuries, with his Life by Lord Carnarvon, edited by Lightfoot, 8vo. cloth, 9s 1875

The great learning, the subtle intellect, and the lucid style of the late Dean Mansel are admirably exemplified in this volume—one of the most important contributions ever made to the history of the early Christian Church. It will give a more definite notion of the Gnostics than anything hitherto printed.

1872
What is Swedenborgianism? Ninety-nine persons out of every hundred would be unable to answer the question; yet it is one of considerable interest in these days of spreading Spiritualism. It is a fine Theosophy, derived by the great teacher from actual converse with spirits far nobler than those who play tambourines and lift stout gentlemen in chairs. Swedenborg was a philosopher as well as a Mystic, and a profound thinker whose thoughts became intensified into beatific visions. His notions are often singular, but his principles are always pure and lofty; yet even he offers a heaven of youth and beauty and ineffable delights of the senses.
Few can struggle through the voluminous Arcana Coelestia; and there is no student of the history of the human mind as displayed in various religions, who will not welcome the clear English exposition of Swedenborgianism which is now for the first time offered to the public by a temperate believer.

A very rare work, having been privately printed by Cardinal Pole. On Henry hearing of its production, he set a price on Pole's head. Even the Cardinal's own friends looked unfavourably upon the book, which was the principal cause of Pole suppressing it after some few copies had been distributed.

 "I hold the memory of Calvin in high veneration. His works have a place in my library, and, in the study of the Holy Scriptures, he is one of the commentators I frequently consult."—BR. HORSLEY.
 "Calvin was both a wise and a good man; inferior to none of his contemporaries in general ability, and superior almost to all in the art, as well as elegance, of composition, in the perspicuity and arrangement of his ideas, the structure of his periods, and the Latinity of his diction. Although attached to a theory which he found it difficult in the extreme to free from the suspicion of blasphemy against God, as the author of sin, he certainly was no blasphemer, but, on the contrary, adopted that very theory from an anxiety, not to commit, but (as he conceived) to avoid blasphemy,—that of ascribing to human what he deemed alone imputable to Divine agency. With respect to the application of it, at a later period, to enthusiastical purposes, no one would have more severely reprehended such an application than he himself."

Hermann the Fifth, Count of Wied, the Archbishop-Elector of Cologne, was the only prince of the Church who accepted the doctrines of Reform. It was with the assistance of Bucer and Melanchthon that he prepared the above Regulations, of which most copies must have perished three years later when, deposed by the Pope, and replaced by Adolf of Schauenburg, he was obliged to retire to Wied; and the Roman Catholic party effaced all monuments of his heretical rule.

The first noteworthy production of the Rhyming Cobbler, roused to enthusiasm by the boldness of Luther. The poem is preceded by a prose preface of three pages, and begins thus :—
"Wacht auff! es nahent gen dem tag Ich hör singen im grünen hag

The second and third pieces resemble each other, although they are not quite the same. The Latin purports to be dated by Beelzebub in 1351, the verdeutsch text is stated by Flaccius Illyricus to bear date 1410, with the name of Nicolas Oren. Flaccius professes to have rendered it from an actual original of that sort in a Magdeburg monastery, which he thought would be worth publishing; but a similar German letter (the first above mentioned) had been printed before he was born. The authorship of this curious and furious production is left to scholars to determine.

- 3323 LUTHER, Von der Babylonischen Gefengknuss der Kirchen, sm. 4to. portrait, calf gilt, £2. 10s s. l. et a. (? October, 1520)

Very fine copy of an edition unmentioned by the bibliographers. On the title there is a large portrait of Luther in his monastic costume, and in the dedication he styles himself "Martinus Luther Augustiner." He describes with grim humour the persecution of his book on the Indulgence published two years previously, which he already regrets having written, and the attacks made upon him by Emser and other Romish writers.

- 3324 LUTHER. Deudsch Catechismus, Mart. Luther, sm. 4to. First Edition, title within elegant woodcut border containing a Crucifixion, numerous contemporary notes on the margins of the text, slightly wormed at the beginning, red morocco, VERY RARE, £12. Wittemberg, Georg Rhaw, 1529 Heber's copy fetched £5. 5s. The woodcuts render this edition peculiarly valuable.

The third edition, reprinted from the second Wittemberg, and also in 12mo. at Nürnberg in the same year, was sold by me in 1864, for £5. and another copy in 1874 for £6. 6s.

3341 [DOMINIS (Marcus Antonius de)] Scogli del Christiano Naufragio, 16mo. fine copy in the original gilt vellum, 20s Con licenza de Superiori, (? London) 1618

A violent attack on the Romish Church and prelates, printed anonymously, while in London, by the refugee Bishop of Spalato, who afterwards, as the next article will show, returned to the bosom of Mother Church (and perished in Sant' Angelo).

The edition must have been almost entirely transmitted to Italy, and have fallen into the hands of the ecclesiastical power, as until recently no Italian original was known, and the book was supposed to exist only in the French and English versions.

s. n. (? Basileæ, cir. 1550-63-44-45)
 The complete set of Ochino's Italian Sermons is very rare. Seldom are more than two or three volumes found together, even in the richest libraries. The first volume is a reprint, probably executed about 1550, while the others are original issues, apparently printed in 1543 and 1544. The last part has only a blank leaf where the others have titles.

- 3356 SERVETUS de Trinitatis Erroribus, 1531—Dialogi de Trinitate, 1531—2 vols. in 1, 12mo. blue morocco, gilt edges, £3. 3s

s. l. 1531-32 (reprint executed about 1740)

This work brought down upon Servetus the wrath of both Romanists and Reformers; so that, when Calvin put him on the fire, he did but act as the executioner for Christendom. Servetus held that there was only one God; he did not deny the divinity of Christ, but affirmed that Christ was identical with God, and that the Holy Ghost was simply an attribute of the Deity. Thus he explained away the "Three Persons" whom orthodox Christians are so careful to distinguish.

- 3357 SERVETI Dialogorum de Trinitate Libri duo. De Justicia Regni Christi capitula quatuor, 12mo. facsimile reprint, hf. calf, £1. 1s

Anno 1532, (cir. 1750)

In the preface he asks pardon for the errors of his former work "De Trinitatis erroribus," but not for the errors of doctrine, only those of language; and the text of this second treatise repeats all the arguments of the former, with additional force and keenness.

Etherington, who had suffered several years imprisonment for his nonconformist doctrines, became a little bolder in the later days of growing resistance to royal and episcopal authority. The Rev. Stephen Denison's White Wolf is a curious and learned, but arrogant production.

- 3366 DIGBY (Kenelm) Mores Catholici, or Ages of Faith, 11 vols. sm. 8vo. bd. RARE, £8. 8s 1831-42

The pen of this elegant writer is like the wizard's wand. The dry bones of antiquity are clothed anew with living forms; the arid wastes of mediæval history blossom like gardens of flowers; all things seem good and holy and bright. There is a singular fascination in the pages of the Mores Catholici; yet the most critical reader must accord to it the praise of deep learning—a quality seldom found in a work of high imaginative power.

portrait, fine copy in old calf gilt, 12s 1723
An able work by a profound thinker. He labours to show that our senses and power of observation are so defective that to seek from Reason the explanation of all phenomena would be unwise and unsafe, and we ought therefore to acquiesce in the doctrines of Revealed Religion. It is a good argument against Reason, but a poor one for Faith.

COLLATION: 24,597, and 33 pp. It is the FIRST EDITION of Bugenhagen's Psalter translated "in goeden verstandeliken Duytsche" by Bucer, and printed by Adam Petri de Langendorff.
This translation seems to have been intended for North Germany as well as Holland. Although generally looked upon as pure Dutch, an examination by a competent scholar would no doubt shew some distinctive Plattdeutsch peculiarities.

BIBLE (Holy) containing the Old and New Testament, with the Apocryphal Books in the earliest English Versions made from the Latin Vulgate, by JOHN WYCLIFFE and his followers, edited by the Rev. Josiah Forshall and SIR FREDERICK MADDEN, the two versions printed in parallel columns, and the notes underneath, cloth, £3.
Oxford University Press, 1850
All the known Manuscripts (170 in number) of the English translations of the Old and New Testament by Wycliffe and his followers have here been most carefully collated by the first Palæographer in England, and an accurate text of TWO VERSIONS has thus been obtained. This publication is the best issued for years from the Oxford University Press,—England should be proud of this Literary Monument, a glorious inheritance from the Middle Ages.
The ample critical notes and various readings will prove of great interest to Saxon and English Scholars.
The previously existing editions of the New Testament, 1731, 1810, 1848, were all printed from one Manuscript only; their value is very slender.
- 3475 NEW TESTAMENT, the first printed in the English Language (1525 or 1526), translated from the Greek by W. Tyndale, reproduced in facsimile with an introduction by F. Fry, with facsimiles of leaves of other books, red morocco extra, sides richly tooled and gilt, gilt edges, and tooled, £5. 15s Bristol, printed for the editor, 1862
Only a limited number of copies printed at £8. 8s in cloth.

3476 (BIBLE, in which are containd the Olde and Newe Testament translated into Englysh by THOMAS MATHEW,) (John Rogers) stout folio, First Edition of Matthew's Bible, black letter, with numerous large woodcuts, having the two titles to the Prophets and the Apocrypha, but wanting the preliminary leaves, four at the end of Revelation and the Colophon, with leaves supplied from another copy; taken to pieces for rebinding, otherwise a good fragment of this EXCESSIVELY RARE BOOK, as it is, a bargain for £50. Grafton and Whitchurch, 1537

3477 ——— Another copy, folio, without preliminary leaves, a few intermediate and about ten leaves at the end, but having the above mentioned titles, with all faults, £15. 1537

This edition is of great importance in the annals of the English Bible. It may be called the second version, as it was the first after Coverdale's, from whose text it was published with the improvements by Rogers.

Sir Mark Sykes' copy fetched £78. 15s; Fletcher's, £105.; Lea Wilson's copy, at Gardner's sale, 1855, £150; Perkins', wanting two leaves, £195.

3478 BYBLE IN ENGLYSHE (Cromwell's revised by M. Coverdale), folio, title inlaid, the book concluding with the second last leaf of text, old calf, £25. T. Petyt and R. Redman for T. Berthelet, 1540

Excessively rare in any condition. I have note of only one copy disposed of by auction during a long space of time, namely Offer's, which although defective produced £44. at his sale ten years ago.

3479 PSALTER, or Booke of Psalmes, both in Latyne and Englyshe, black letter, imperfect, £2. 16s R. Grafton, 1540

This early French translation curiously enough forestalls the Breeches Bible, as it renders the famous verse in Genesis "ilz couisrent ensemble des feuilles de figuier et firent pour eulx des braies."
"The translation of Le Fèvre is said to be the basis of all the subsequent French Bibles, whether by Roman Catholics or Protestants."—Horne's Introduction.

Brunet remarks with justice on the rarity of this Bible, which is one of the least common of all the ancient editions. It is, moreover, the first Bible printed at Naples, and, like all the earlier books printed by Matthew of Moravia, is seldom seen, especially when in good condition. The text of Jerome's Prologue is preceded by two Epistles, one from the monk Blasio Romero to Taqui, the French Minister at the Court of Naples, asking him to pay the expense of the printing, and saying that if the Ambassador were to take back some copies to the French King it would be similar, but preferable to carrying coats of mail from Milan to his royal master; the other from Taqui, agreeing to the proposition.

Hence the necessity of a small Supplement to that work, which will then embrace the whole 1800 examples. Lond. 1828-37

This impression, THE WHOLE OF THE TEXT OF WHICH IS PRINTED IN AN UNIFORM SIZE, is got up in a very superior style, all the plates having the appearance of highly finished drawings. ONLY 25 SETS WERE TAKEN OFF, and the whole were coloured under the IMMEDIATE INSPECTION OF PROFESSOR DON, an advantage liberally accorded with the sole motive of rendering the work as perfect as possible.

Vol. I contains the portrait and 37 plates; Vol. II 32 plates, two of which are are double size, but not coloured,—with this volume is an index to the first 2 vols.; Vol. III contains 30 plates, with the descriptions. Both plates and letterpress of this volume are very irregularly numbered. The backs of some of the plates are stained.

"The Journal consists of two distinct sections: the one devoted to General Botany, the other to the Botany of the British Isles. In both divisions Original Papers on subjects new to Science are given, and when necessary, illustrated either in the text or by special Plates. Each number contains a full-paged plate by Fitch, illustrative of New Species described in the letter-press. Original Communications of necessity relate to the different sections of the Science, and form the bulk; yet Structural, Morphological, and Physiological Botany are attended to. Nor is Geographical nor Palæontological Botany neglected. The Editor specially watches over this, the important portion of the Journal, and he confidently hopes that the excellence of these communications will make this Journal a Standard Work, and obtain for it a circulation where otherwise it would be unknown. . . . Bibliography will also receive attention, not only in Reviews, but in Systematic Lists, accompanied with short critical Notices."—Prospectus.

- The above is without doubt one of the grandest Works on Botany that have ever been produced; it is a book that no Scientific Library should be without.
- The publication was effected at the expense of the Brazilian Government, but when the work was completed and sent to Rio de Janeiro, Civil War raged in Brazil, and the whole edition, excepting 100 copies kept back in Europe, was issued for cartridges, hence the extreme rarity of them.
- The Vegetation of the Brazilian Empire is the richest of all the Countries on the Globe; this FLORA, containing Representations of the 1676 Plants and Flowers found there, is therefore the most complete work of its kind. De Candolle, in his "Prodromus," constantly refers to this Monument of Brazilian patronage of Science.

This work was introduced at the commencement of the year 1842, with a view of forming a complete illustrated encyclopædia of Shells; the undertaking being mainly stimulated by the vast amount of new and imperfectly known materials collected by Hugh Cuming, Esq., during two prolonged voyages of fourteen years duration, in both the old and new hemispheres. The zeal and excellent discrimination with which the researches of this eminent naturalist were prosecuted, especially in noting localities and circumstances of habitation, have added a value to his collection far beyond that of any hitherto formed; and the friendly interchange of specimens effected since his return to England, with various Museums and Collectors both in Europe and America, has furnished his cabinet with nearly all the desiderata, which either did not occur to him in his travels, or are inhabitants of those regions he had not the opportunity of visiting. The perfect condition in Mr. Cuming's specimens are preserved, and is another feature in the collection which renders it peculiarly serviceable for the purpose of illustration; and the author of the 'Conchologia Iconica' has not failed to embrace this opportunity of presenting each species in its finest state of preservation, and of the natural size, excepting those which on account of their minuteness, require the assistance of the microscope.

Of the species hitherto published so large a proportion are new to science, and the number recorded under the head of each genus exhibits so material an increase upon any former or contemporaneous list, that the author might be imputed to exercise more freedom in the introduction of new species than the nature of his materials permit; he can however state that every species undergoes the test of a rigid comparison, and none are recorded as new, but such as seem to have a character sufficiently permanent and unapproachable.

Renouard suggests that the printer of this was a descendant of the younger Aldus. The woodcuts in the work are very curious, and consist of complicated applications of the motive-power of water to blowing the bellows of an organ or a forge, turning a distaff, draining, moving cannon, etc., different means of raising water to high levels, curious pumps, and water-wheels. They include numerous ingenious engines, in which the powers of cog-wheels are fully appreciated. One woodcut represents a carriage, the body of which is supported in a similar way to a mariner's compass, thus securing perfect repose for the occupant and affording an early practical illustration of Mr. Bessemer's Channel-steamer invention.

With the exception of four of the six thin parts forming Vol. I, namely those for the Sessions 1839-42, the above is a complete set. No copy has occurred for sale during many years; series from Vol. 7 occasionally are offered, but the early volumes have quite disappeared.

- 4381 ——— another series, 1846-67; Vol. V part 2, VI part 1, VII part 1, VIII part 1, IX, X part 1, XI, XII, XIV part 2, XV part 2, XVII, XIX, an extract of 172 pages, "On Construction of Artillery by Long-ridge," XX, XXI, XXVI—together 21 vols. and parts, 8vo. many plates, one vol. half calf, the rest sewed, £7. 10s 1846-67

This very valuable publication contains the history and description of all the greatest Engineering works of the last half century (1828-71). There is no other publication of its kind that can bear the least comparison with it. From the time of Telford, Robert Stephenson, and Brunel, to that of the eminent men of the present day, scarcely a work of any consequence has been accomplished but it is fully described and carefully illustrated here.

Ichthyology.

4674 DR. JERDON'S COLLECTION of ILLUSTRATIONS MADE WITH A VIEW TO A GENERAL NATURAL HISTORY OF FISHES. The Collection contains :—

- I. DR. GÜNTHER'S CATALOGUE, in 8 vols. illustrated with several thousand plates, the majority of which are coloured, and include a large number of original Drawings of unfigured subjects, most of which are finished in water-colours, arranged in twelve cases ;
- II. Collections for the HISTORY of the FISHES of INDIA, comprised in more than a thousand original drawings of hitherto unknown or unfigured species, the greater part of which are beautifully executed in water-colours ; each drawing has the scientific and native names, with description on it, in four cases.

The whole are in 16 imperial 8vo. Solander cases, contents lettered, enclosed in a neat mahogany cabinet with lock and key, and is offered now for £120.

These drawings have been executed in India, in most cases from recently captured specimens, which is a great advantage in the study of Ichthyology, as Fishes in particular lose or change colour rapidly after death.

This valuable lot should be placed either in the British or India Museums, or in the Library of one of our great Scientific Societies ; to a Naturalist commencing or engaged in the study of Ichthyology, it would be invaluable, as many years' labour in the collection of materials would be saved.

La collection des planches enluminées de l'histoire naturelle des Oiseaux de Buffon est devenue, dit M. le baron Cuvier, la collection fondamentale et classique de figures pour l'étude de l'ornithologie, celle qui comprend le plus d'espèces et les fait le mieux connaître, celle que les naturalistes sont toujours obligés de consulter et de citer malgré les ouvrages magnifiques dont cette branche de la science a été enrichie dans ces derniers temps.
En effet, aucune collection ne présente une réunion aussi étendue, aussi méthodique d'objets plus fidèlement représentés, et qui, sans luxe inutile, satisfasse aussi complètement les besoins de l'histoire naturelle.—Preface.

Smit. The above copies are from the Library of the late M. Jules Verraux, the distinguished French Ornithologist.

Numerous valuable scientific works have been sacrificed to form this important collection.
- This celebrated work was published at twenty-five guineas in boards, with the plates coloured in the ordinary manner. The present copies are all COLOURED LIKE HIGHLY-FINISHED DRAWINGS, with studious accuracy, under the direction of several eminent Ornithologists. Stanley, John Dent, Esq. and Sir Mark Sykes.

- 5152 ORNITHOLOGICAL ILLUSTRATIONS collected during a long series of years and at an enormous expense by MR. P. O. DES MURS, THE CELEBRATED ORNITHOLOGIST. They contain representations of nearly three thousand Species, all most exquisitely coloured, extracted from about 40 valuable works, such as Scientific Voyages, Monographs and Transactions of the British and Foreign Learned Societies, whose titles here given, and from which will be seen the expensive works that have been sacrificed for the sake of the Illustrations. In addition to the intrinsic worth of the plates, the labour bestowed upon this collection by the late owner must be of the highest value to an Ornithologist or to a public Scientific Library: the whole of the plates have been cut out and mounted on superfine drawing paper, of uniform size, and each leaf bears the name of the Class, Family, Sub-family, Habitat, Authority, and the names of the publication or Scientific Voyage from which it has been taken, forming such a matchless collection as has never occurred for sale,—the entire collection being contained in eighteen paper cases, with 8 folio and roy. 4to. vols. and 1 vol. 8vo. of Text, hf. bound, offered a bargain for £105.

 Stuccoes of Churches and Palaces in Italy during the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Centuries, a splendid volume, impl. folio, frontispiece and 55
very large, elaborate, and most interesting engravings of RAPHAEL, GIULIO ROMANO, GIOVANNI DA UDINE, BALDASSARE PERUZZI, Sebastian del Piombo, Correggio, Moretto, Ambrogio da Fusano, Bramantino, Bernardino, Luini, Pinturicchio, etc. several ELABORATELY FINISHED IN COLOURS, and coloured key-plates given to shew the colouring of the rest: with TEXT: an Essay by J. J. HITTORFF, on the Arabesque of the Ancients, as compared with Raphael and his School, (pub. £8. 8s),
hf. bd. red morocco, gilt edges, £7. 7s 1854
- 7 ——— the same, THE PLATES OF ALL THE FRESCOS ENTIRELY
 COLOURED, under Director Gruner's own supervision by a first-class Miniature Painter, atlas folio, whole bound RED MOROCCO super extra, gilt edges, by Bedford, £105. 1854

 NOT MORE THAN 4 COPIES WERE THUS GOT UP OF THE ABSOLUTELY
 PERFECT COPIES, AND THEY ARE ALL SECURED SO AS NEVER AGAIN TO APPEAR IN THE MARKET.

This magnificent work is no less valuable to the Architect than to the Painter.
 It does not profess (says the Quarterly Review, in an elaborate article) to exhibit fresh decorative painting in that highest walk chosen by Michael Angelo and Raffaele (except as a handmaid), but as a purely decorative Art and subservient to Architecture. Owing its very existence to the exigencies of the sovereign art, and deriving its appropriate locality, scale and effect, from the edifice, it no less assists the Architecture, in return, by its arabesques and other tasteful accessories.

- 8 HOLBEIN. Recueil de Gravures d'après les plus beaux Ouvrages de Jean Holbein, publié par Chr. de Mechel, 4 parts in 1 vol. folio, LARGE PAPER, forty-four beautifully engraved proof plates, most brilliant impressions, and six rare plates of the fourth part, ordinary impressions, 50 plates in all, beautifully bound in green morocco extra, richly gilt borders, gilt edges, Dawson Turner's copy, £16. 16s Basle, 1780-90

The first part contains the Dance of Death, in 47 very finely engraved subjects, among which is included a plate of a small but exquisite Dance of Death, engraved by Holbein upon the sheath of a dagger. This latter is rarely found among collections of Holbein's works. The second part contains the Passion of our Lord, and two plates, "Rich" and "Poor." The third part is composed of 12 coloured plates of Swiss Costume, and the fourth part contains 12 portraits, including those of Holbein, his wife, Erasmus of Rotterdam, and the two very rare plates of Sir T. More's family.

* * The copper plates are destroyed. The ordinary copies, 2 vols. royal 4to. have inferior impressions, and deserve no notice.

The grand and picturesque effects of this great master of the school of English Landscape Painters are truthfully exhibited in this, which, after the Liber Studiorum, may be considered his finest work; the engraving was executed by the best English Artists, and possess all the fidelity to nature of the original drawings. Collectors of really fine works of art should lose no time in securing copies, as they will soon disappear from the market.

The "England and Wales" of Turner has always been considered by competent judges as his greatest work. His varied excellencies can only be properly appreciated when seen in the finest impressions of the engravings, like the above. "Modern artists, as a body, are far more just and full in their views of material things than any landscape painters whose works are extant; but J. M. W. TURNER is the only man who has ever given an entire transcript of the whole system of nature, and is, in point of view, the ONLY PERFECT LANDSCAPE PAINTER whom the world has ever seen."—Ruskin's Modern Painters.

In this fine work, by a series of accurate engravings from celebrated monuments, we trace the transitions of Architecture from the classic period to our own times. Sculpture, Painting, the Art of Engraving on Wood, on Gems, and on Metals are similarly represented.

FRANCE.

FRENCH ART, PHILOLOGY, HISTORY AND LITERATURE.

French Manuscripts.

- 5232 ANTIPHONARIUM: Responses for all the Church-Services of the Year, sm. folio, MS. on Vellum, with the Music of the Gregorian Chant arranged in five lines, not quite perfect, many of the texts written over with newer words in a hand of the early seventeenth century, apparently to abolish evidences of the special use, bds. £10. About A.D. 1300
- 5233 FRANC-MAÇONNERIE des Dames ou Ordre d'Adoption pour le Frère d'Anières, Lieutenant d'Infanterie au service de Brunswick, 12mo. 39 pp. sd. very curious, 25s 1770
 Portion of the rite is that a Brother must remove the new Sister's garter and affix a new one in its place. There is an excellent rule: "Que l'œil d'un Maçon ne considère pas la Beauté d'une sœur chérie pour la volupté mais en examine les qualités de l'âme."
- 5234 HORÆ BEATÆ MARIÆ VIRGINIS, 12mo. illuminated MS. on Vellum, with slender arabesque borders and 17 MINIATURES in the style called Camaieu-gris, the figures painted and shaded in grisaille on coloured backgrounds, by which a striking and remarkable effect is produced, bound in ancient morocco, rebacked, the sides covered with gold tooling, in which appear the limacon, the pot-au-feu, and the monograms PP, HH, DD, and MM, each encircled with S fermé, £63. about 1380
 The last twenty-five leaves are entirely in French, in a style of language which offers more than the usual crop of linguistic peculiarities—many of them to be explained not merely by the age of the MS., but by reference to some singular dialectal forms. The grisaille miniatures constitute, as is well known, the rarest kind of French book-illustration.
- 5235 HORÆ BEATÆ MARIÆ VIRGINIS, sm. Svo. illuminated MS. on Vellum, with 27 Miniatures and borders, the initials in gold and colours, red velvet, in a morocco case, £15. Sec. XV.
 The Calendar and many of the headings are in French.
- 5236 HORÆ VIRGINIS MARIÆ, sine Calendario, 16mo. illuminated MS. on Vellum, with numerous MINIATURES, and elegant decorative borders painted with flowers, birds, and insects on a golden ground, in an ancient cf. binding, with a crucifixion on the sides, £10. 10s About A.D. 1500-20
 Many of the prayers towards the end are in French.
- 5237 HEURES DE LA VIERGE, Svo. fine illuminated MS. on Vellum, with several elegant Miniatures, a leaf or two wanting at the beginning of text. bd. £10. 1451 (P about 1500)
 With several memoranda concerning members of the house of Forestier or Le Forestier, and a note that it had been presented by the Duchess of Orleans in 1647. The book is chiefly in Latin.
- 5238 REGULÆ ORDINIS CISTERCIENSIS, 12mo. MS. on Vellum, containing the regulations, duties, and privileges of the order of St. Bernard, bound in parchment, £2. 10s About A.D. 1280-1300
- 5239 MISSALE secundum usum ejusdam Ecclesiæ Burgundæ, folio, fine old MS. on vellum, with painted initials and the Music in neumes, not perfect, ancient boards covered with hogskin, £21. Sæc. XIIII.
 This MS. contains, in the Proprium Sanctorum, the service for the festival of St. Eurtius—seldom met with in books of the kind—which seems to indicate that it belongs to the diocese of Orleans. The probable date is shown by the addition made at the foot of another page—but in the same hand as the rest of the book—of the service for St. Stanislaus, who was canonized in 1253.

French Early Printed Books.

- 5240 GLANVILLE, Le Proprietaire des Choses (translate par J. Corbichon), folio, black letter, woodcuts, fine copy, olive morocco, g. e. by Padeloup, rare, £12. 12s
Lion, par Jehan Cyber, s. d. circa 1490

- 5241 OPUS plurium SUMMORUM PONTIFICUM Privilegiorum quibus ordo Cisterciensis munitus est, sm. 4to. two large woodcuts representing the Virgin and the Pope, surrounded by Cistercians, First Book printed at Dijon, fine large copy in ancient calf, £15.

Divicne, Petrus Metlinger, 1491

The editor of this volume was the Abbat Johannes de Cireyo, to whom the introduction of the printing-press into Dijon seems to be due. A work so creditable to an infant-press, both in type, paper, and general execution, is seldom found. There are occasional pen and ink corrections of errata, probably made by the hand of the Abbat himself.

- 5242 HORÆ AD USUM ROMANE CURIE, sm. 8vo. printed on Vellum, with numerous engravings and borders, uncoloured, only the small initial letters illuminated, hf. bd. £10.
S. n. (Paris, A. Verard, about 1495)

This edition is not mentioned by Brunet. The above title appears in the middle of the first page, on the back of which is the Almanac (1488-1508). On the reverse of A ii is the anatomical-man, and we have the illustration of St. John at Patmos on the front of B i, where the text of the book begins. The signatures run as follows: A, 8 leaves; B, 10; a to f in eights; A, 4 leaves; A, B, eight leaves each; C, 4 leaves. There is no Dance of Death in the margins. Four leaves are faulty (two of them very slightly), perhaps through a defect in the vellum, but the deficiencies are supplied in a contemporary hand.

- 5243 ERUDITORIUM PENITENTIALE, sm. 4to. Lettres Gothiques, with curious woodcuts (several with xylographic inscriptions), morocco extra, gilt edges, by H. Bedford, £25.

s. l. & a. sed Paris typis J. P. Manstener, circa 1497

Extremely rare. Unknown to Panzer, Hain and Brunet.

On what authority the impression is referred to Johann Philip Manstener, I am unable to say; but at least this much is certain, that the book was issued from a French press towards the end of the Fifteenth Century.

- 5244 TRETTE de Discipline de divine Amour, 12mo. Lettres Gothiques, blue morocco, rare, £4. 4s
Paris, pour Simon Vostre, s. d. (cir. 1500)

This work is not mentioned by Brunet, and is probably one of the rarest issues of the press of Simon Vostre.

- 5245 FROISSART, Croniques de france, dangleterre, descocce, despaigne, de bretagne, de gascongne, de flandres et lieux circonvoisins, 4 vols. in 3, sm. folio, Gothic letter, sound large copy in old calf gilt, arms on sides, £7. 15s
Paris, A. Verard, 1503-18

All the volumes bear A. Verard's device on the title-page. The first is without date; the second bears the following colophon: Cy finist le second volume
Imprime à Paris par Michel le noir Mil cinq cens et cinq; the third volume has no date: the colophon of the fourth reads: Cy finist le quart volume
Imprime à Paris Lan mil cinq cens et dixhuyt le xiiie four doctobre pour Anthoine Verard

This book is not only very rare, but also extremely curious, and belongs to a class of early literature now much sought after. It contains the Acts of the Apostles dramatised as a mystery, with a number of singular characters and grotesque stories added to heighten the effect. When it was played at Bourges, as the title states, it must have been divided into parts so as to cover a long space of time. The printer's device is a punning one: two angels tied, with the motto les anges liés.

5254 POLIPHILE. - "Mézeray was bred to arms; but an insatiable love of study converted his sword and carbine into printed books and manuscripts. Absorbed in this pursuit, he meditated his History of France, but an excess of application produced a dangerous disorder. Cardinal Richelieu, who, amidst all his intrigue and tergiversations, had the merit of projecting or patronising some of the most splendid publications in France, patronized Mezerai. * * * A donation of 50 crowns by him to the historian, stimulated Mezerai to redoubled exertions in the completion of his history. He had, moreover, through the interests of the Cardinal, a pension of 4000 livres from the Court: and on the death of Conrart, was appointed permanent Secretary to the French Academy. Never was a man more singular or fuller of bizarrerie, than Mezerai. His countenance, figure, and dress were almost equally repulsive. He was once stopped as a vagabond by the overseers of the parish, and commanded to follow them. So far from being displeased at this adventure, it amused him, and he entered into the joke accordingly. 'Gentlemen, (said he) I cannot well accompany you on foot, but as soon as they have put a wheel to my carriage, I'll accompany you wherever you please.' One of his oddities was to work by candle-light, even in the middle of the day, and in the midst of the summer; and he always attended his visitors to the door on parting, holding a lighted candle in his hand. * * * Mezerai loved truth, but would not take much pains to discover it; depending rather upon the texts of his predecessors. Yet he had courage and integrity; and gains in energy what he loses in accuracy. There is, however a coarse thread which runs through all his narratives, and those who call him the Tacitus of France, seem to mistake vulgarity for strength. His work may be thought in some measure, a reflexion of the motley features of his life."—Dibdin's Library Companion, p. 291-2.

The first work seems to be an amplification and continuation of certain portions of the second. They are both infamous attacks, not only upon the Bonapartes, but upon every eminent person, male or female, in Europe. Written in a spirit of Republican virtue; they contain the most disgusting details of vice and debauchery, and are enough in themselves to damn the communard party, in the literature of which these volumes must rank very highly. The name of Eugène de Mirecourt as author is no doubt a forgery.

5668 NAPOLEON III. Le Deux Decembre, 1855—Les Femmes galantes des Napoléons, 1862—Ramier, les Memoires de Badinguet, 1865—Discours de la Lanterne, par Rouquette; in 1 vol. 24mo. hf. red morocco, 10s

5669 NORBLIN DE LA GOURDAINE, Œuvre complète, 77 fine etchings in Rembrandt's manner, on India paper, mounted on thick paper, and united in 1 vol. folio, hf. bd. £20 (about 1770-90)

These Etchings are excessively rare; it would seem that the artist executed but few copies. Even his own name is little known; yet he was an illustrious pupil of Casanova, the painter of battle and sea-pieces, and held the position of court-painter to Stanislaus Augustus, King of Poland. Perhaps the latter circumstance helped to render him obscure, and the fact that most of his work was done in Poland, to make his designs rare. Most of these are very minute, but there are some fine large pictures, as in the surrender of Christ by Pilate to the Jews. The powerful effect produced by the contrast of gloomy shadows and startling lights is chiefly aimed at by Norblin, and none has succeeded better than he, except the great Rembrandt, in that line of illustration.

"M. Thiers, in concluding the splendid epic which he is pleased to call the remain whilst French is read, a monument of its author's literary ability, however little credit it reflects on his honesty of purpose."—Saturday Review, April 4, 1874.

ITALIAN HISTORY, FINE ARTS, AND LITERATURE.

Early Printed Books.

- 5810 PAULI DE SANCTA MARIA Scrutinium Scripturarum, folio, printed in Roman characters with Gothic initials and headings, bd. 30s
(Rome) Udalricus Gallus (cir. 1470)
The author had been converted from the Judaic faith early in the fifteenth century, and was Bishop of Burgos when he composed the above work. It contains some curious notices of Spanish Jews in the middle ages.
- 5811 (CARACCIOLI) ROBERTI DE LITIO OPUS QUADRAGESIMALE perutilissimum quod de penitentia dictum est, stout sm. folio, a couple of wormholes through four or five leaves, otherwise a good and large copy in the original boards, £7. 10s Venet. Franciscus Halbruna, 1472
VERY RARE. This is the first book printed by Francis Hailbrunn. It is quite complete, and agrees with Hain's collation, thus shewing that Brunet must have seen an imperfect copy, since he mentions only 260 leaves, while there are really 270 ; 2 for the table, 268 for the text.

NOT MORE THAN 4 COPIES WERE THUS GOT UP OF THE ABSOLUTELY PERFECT COPIES, AND THEY ARE ALL SECURED SO AS NEVER AGAIN TO APPEAR IN THE MARKET.

This magnificent work is no less valuable to the Architect than to the Painter. It does not profess (says the Quarterly Review, in an elaborate article) to exhibit fresh decorative painting in that highest walk chosen by Michael Angelo and Raffaele (except as a handmaid), but as a purely decorative Art and subservient to Architecture. Owing its very existence to the exigencies of the sovereign art, and deriving its appropriate locality, scale and effect, from the edifice, it no less assists the Architecture, in return, by its arabesques and other tasteful accessories.

- 6009 DANTE ALEGHIERI, CANTICA O VERO COMEDIA, COL COMENTO DI CHRISTOPHORO LANDINO, folio, 67 fine large woodcuts, several coloured, mostly the full size of the page, enclosed in elegant arabesque borders, a few letters deficient, and some margins slightly stained, otherwise a large sound copy in hf. russia, £7. 10s Bressa, Boninus, 1487
EXCESSIVELY RARE. Mr. Slade's copy fetched £59. There are but few specimens in existence of the Bonini press at Brescia. Printing had been established in that town about fifteen years before the date of the above Dante. The engravings are however entirely new, and very favourable examples of early Italian woodcuts.

This rare edition is remarkable in many respects. It is the first appearance of a celebrated commentary, it is entirely printed in italics, and it is ornamented with woodcuts which in design and execution are amongst the finest specimens of the art. It is also one of the best of the old editions of the text. Vellutello speaks with contempt of the critical value of the Aldine editions of Dante and Petrarch.

"This, as being the work of a foreigner, who had direct personal means of information, cannot fail of being an interesting object of consultation to an English historian or antiquary." It is dedicated to Queen Elizabeth, and contains an account of the lives and actions of many of the principal personages of her court, and of the most celebrated ladies of preceding ages: among those of the later periods are Eleanor, Countess of Leicester, Mary, daughter of the Earl of Hereford, Anne, Duchess of Bedford, Jacobina, mother of Humphrey Duke of Gloucester, Margaret of Anjou (in which chapter are some very curious particulars of the life of the Earl of Warwick), Elizabeth Rivers, Anne, mother of Richard III, Cecil Neville, mother of Edward IV, Isabella, daughter of the Earl of Warwick, Catherine Huntly, daughter of Alexander Gordon Earl of Huntley, Margaret of York, &c. &c.

SPAIN.

SPANISH ART, HERALDRY, GEOGRAPHY, AND LITERATURE.

Spanish Manuscripts and Early Printing.

- 6094 OFFICIUM BEATE MARIE VIRGINIS . . . cum septem Psalmis penitentialibus, etc. sm. Svo. elegantly printed on Vellum, with illuminated initials, a fine specimen containing the second half of the book from the opening of the Psalmi penitenciales to the end, calf, £10.

Valentie, [Lambert Palmart], 1486

An excessively rare edition, of which only one other copy has been recorded—that in the Göttingen library. This fragment is a fine example of early Printing on Vellum, and was probably executed by the first printer of Spain.

- 6095 CASTROVOL (Petri de) Tractatus vel si mavis Espositio in Simbolum Quicunque vult una cum textu, sm. 4to. the First Book printed at Pampeluña, curious woodcut of the Trinity on the back of title, a worm-hole through the outer margin, vellum, £12. Pāpilone impressus (1487)

This volume is so rare that its very existence is doubted; and although Maittaire and Panzer and some of the earlier writers quote it on still older authority, as having been printed at Pampeluña in 1489, yet the modern biographers dismiss those notices as apocryphal, and seem to think that if such a book ever appeared, it was not printed at Pampeluña. Consequently the introduction of typography in that town is usually referred to the year 1495. Even Mr. Deschamps, the continuator of Brunet, accepts that date, and hesitates to believe in the existence of a Pampelonian Castrovol.

- 6096 JOHANA Reyna de Castilla . . . e de las Yndias e Islas e Tierra firme del Mar Oceano Carta Executoria, sobre la Dehesilla de la villa de Montanches, official deed on vellum, with autograph signatures, £4. 4s
Granada, 1509

It may be interesting for an American collector to possess what is perhaps the earliest official document now purchasable which contains the designation of the Castilian sovereign as monarch of the Indies—who in this instance is the mad Queen Juana, the mother of the Emperor Charles V. With it is given away another official deed—an assignment or Lease from the Abbess and other Superiors of the Monastery of San Domingo in Toledo—dated in 1463; which may be useful to students of palæography.

- 6097 CALDERON, Auto sacramental alegorico TRIUNFAR MURIENDO, an UNPUBLISHED dramatic poem

Sevilla, Simon Fazardo, 1649
 Even with the slight defect above noticed, this copy may be considered a fine

one; for it is improbable the book could ever be found in better condition, as its practical and technical details made it indispensable to young artists, and the usual consequence of constant handling was the result.

- 6115 PACHECO, Arte de la Pintura, segunda edicion dirigida por Cruzada Villa Amil, 2 vols. sm. 4to. hf. morocco, £3. 10s Madrid, 1866

An excellent specimen of typography and careful reproduction. It had long been a desideratum.

"Pacheco deserves special notice, not only as a painter of various genius, but as the second master of Velasquez, and as one of the best historians of Spanish Art."—Stirling's Artists of Spain. Sir William Stirling mentions this book as "the work of many years and the garner into which he gathered the fruits of his extensive reading and observation. Palomino and Cean Bermudez drew from it great part of their materials; but as it has never been reprinted, it is now one of the curiosities of Spanish Bibliography." Mr. Ford had a copy; there is one in the British Museum; but the Bodleian and Cambridge University Library are stated by Sir William Stirling to be without it; and he had sought for it in vain in the Bibliothèque Nationale.

The book comprises several of Pacheco's poetical efforts, in which he is considered to excel. In the heading to one of these addressed to Velasquez on his picture of Philip IV. on horseback, he describes himself as the father-in-law of the young painter. Pacheco recognizes in Velasquez the Apelles of this more than Alexander (the King).

Ovalle was the Procurator at Rome of the Jesuits, at the time when his book was printed. To illustrate the work, he prepared the grand map which is contained in the second copy above described, and which bears a dedication to Pope Innocent X, as well as a notice ad Lectorem, and some other matter; but apparently it was considered too large for the regular issue of the book, and a reduction was consequently engraved which is found in all perfect copies of the Italian and in most perfect copies of the Spanish edition. A few impressions of the latter were however sent forth with the large map, probably for eminent personages and great collectors only.

"It is a little singular that this important work should have first appeared at Antwerp. Zarate went to Peru as Royal Treasurer under Nunez Vela in 1543, when having remained many years, he returned to Spain, and in 1554 accompanied Philip to England. He went thence to Antwerp for the purpose of putting his book through the press. He dedicated it to the King of England [Philip] under date, Anvers, March, 1558."

This work asserts that Lully was the first who applied the magnet to the needle for the mariner's compass, and whose arguments for the existence of a western continent prompted the action of Columbus. It contains also curious notices of the early Majorcan Cosmographers and others relating to Fr. Bernardo Boil, who, with twelve companions, was sent with Colon, in his second voyage, to convert the Indians.

 Of this valuable collection of 576 Old Romances, only 500 copies were printed. The introduction comprises an Essay on the Castilian Poetry during the 14th and 15th centuries. The notes are historical, critical, and philological, and the work concludes with a Glossary of Obsolete Words.

 Of the collection "de Obras de Burlas provocantes a Risa, Valencia," 1549, 4to. there is only one copy known, which is in the British Museum. It begins with one very long poem, and ends with another; the last being a brutal parody of "Trescientas" of Juan de Mena. The shorter poems are by well-known names, such as Jorge Manrique and Diego San Pedro. The general tone of the work, which is attributed to ecclesiastical origin, is as coarse as possible.
 The above edition of it, printed at London in 1841, has a curious and well-written preface, and a short, but learned, Glossary. From page 207 to the end p. 246, are a few poems not found in the original Cancionero de Burlas; one by Garcí Sanchez de Badajos, one by Rodrigo de Reynosa, &c.—Ticknor, 1849, Vol. I. p. 404.

 This edition represents the original text of Don Quixote and is divided into four parts, an arrangement abandoned in the Madrid edition of 1608 and all others that followed except this. It is moreover the only edition printed in Italy. The printers mention in the dedication that they printed the work in Spanish instead of an Italian translation so as not to rob the story of its graces, and because the Castilian tongue was then familiar to the gentlemen of Milan.

- "All agree that this work of Cervantes, although inferior to Don Quixote in invention and critical acuteness, has a more finished plan, and is written in a more equal and elevated style. In this he corrected several defects of language and construction, which exist in his more celebrated work, and deviated from the Latin mode of composition, adopting the simple and more natural style, to which the Spanish language was then tending. The dedication of this work, written after a long and painful illness four days before his death, is justly regarded as a most perfect expression of gratitude and of serenity."—Salva.

- Best edition of this famous chronicle. It was composed probably in the thirteenth century, and exhibits at once the character of a faithful history, of a great prose-poem, and of a romance of chivalry. "It is overflowing with the very spirit of the times when it was written, and offers us so true a picture of their generous virtues, as well as their stern violence, that it may be regarded as one of the best books in the world, if not the very best, for studying the real character and manners of the ages of chivalry."—Ticknor.

 This edition has no mention either of the printer or the place of impression, and the two parts are separately paged. It is therefore different from the edition of the same lately described in the Salvà sale-catalogue. In spite of the name that is given on the first title, as above, and of the name of Gaston Daliso de Orozco, that appears on the title of the second part; and again of the fact that this curious satire is incorporated in the collected works of Jacinto Polo; it is still uncertain to whom the authorship is properly to be referred.

This Romancero, or Book of Spanish Ballads, is excessively rare and very little known. Ticknor and Salvá do not mention it; and Brunet had cognizance of only one copy which was sold in Libri's sale, 1859. The name of the curioso does not appear; but the publisher was a Portuguese Jew at Amsterdam, and there is amongst the preliminary canciones one which is in the Portuguese language. The headings also are occasionally in Portuguese, and the taint of Lusian orthography is seen in the Ballads themselves.

A very curious collection giving a lively picture of the intellectual state of the Spanish people at the end of the XVIII and the beginning of the XIX century. It would be very difficult to bring together another collection so complete as the above, these little tracts being very easily destroyed.

 EXCESSIVELY RARE. The existence of such an edition was doubted by Salva, although he had seen a counterfeit of it executed in the middle of the last century. Even the counterfeit comprised only the second part (the book consisting of two: Sonetos and Rimas) and Salva in admitting that a 1605 edition might exist concluded from that fact that it could only contain half the matter of the edition of Madrid, 1609—the earliest known to him.

A History of the Dominican Order, containing the lives of Saints and ecclesiastics, with an account of the establishment of Convents in Europe, Asia, and America.

In the midst of a mass of silly stories recounting the miraculous works of dead men, there is an immense quantity of valuable information, biographical and historical.
The work begins with the birth of St. Dominick in 1170, and contains a record of more than five hundred years. The number of Irish members of the order is remarkable, and as each one is separately treated of, this history must be regarded as a desiderandum in an English library. The rarity, and the difficulty of obtaining complete copies, of the original edition, are evinced by the dates of the volumes. Luis de Souza who wrote the first three volumes from the undigested collections of Cacegas, died after the first volume was printed in the Convent of Bemfica. Vol. 2, was published by Antonio da Incarnacao in Lisbon in 1662, (not 1626 as Brunet has it); and the third was given to the press after the death of the latter, by an anonymous fellow-monk; and with this volume the original work of Luis de Souza terminated.

The Supplement was, however given to the world in 1773; and the entire work was reprinted in 1767. The reprint is tolerably scarce, but the original set of four volumes is, as above said, extremely rare.

GERMAN

LANGUAGE, SCIENCE, ART, HISTORY AND LITERATURE.

German Early Printed Books.

- 6528 DIE STREITER CHRISTI, sm. 4to. 14 leaves, of which nine contain full-length wood-engravings of an angel and the Eight Champions of Christ, beginning with St. Baldwin, with xylographic legends, and five leaves bearing text, £2. Mainz, 1430 (about 1820)
 The text is in ten rude lines, which seem to read: "Wir streiter Christi wol uns schla'n Die weil wir fir uns den himel han Got schirme fir der wehr zu seiner und zu unser ehr." It is a manifest forgery of modern times.
- 6529 DIE ANBÖTOR CRISTI, sm. 4to. a modern Blockbook consisting of 10 leaves, i.e. a xylographic title and 9 engraved figures of female Saints, sd. 10s 1460 (? Maintz, about 1820)
 A stupid forgery by the same hand that executed "die Streiter Christi" with the date of Maintz 1430.
- 6530 BIBLIA GERMANICA. Die Erste Deutsche Bibel, folio; Editio Princeps, fine copy in blue morocco extra, gilt edges, by G. Smith, £85.
s. n. Strassburg, (H. Eggesteyn, 1466)
 A doubt formerly existed concerning the priority of the German Bible printed by Eggesteyn and that by Mentelin; but Panzer, Dibdin, Ebert and Brunet have decided that the edition above described is the first Bible printed in a Teutonic language, and consequently stands next in chronological importance to the Latin Bible of Gutenberg.
- 6531 JOHANNIS CRISOSTOMI Sermones vigintiquinque in latinum traducti; de Cordis compunctione; etc. in 1 vol. sm. folio, hf. bd. £3 3s
s. n. (Coloniæ, Ulr. Zell, 1468)
- 6532 TAMBACO (Johannis de) Consolacio Theologie, sm. 4to. very fine copy in calf neat, tooled in antique pattern, £7. 15s
s. n. (Moguntia, Petrus Schoeffer, 1470)
 VERY RARE. A curious circumstance in the printing of this book is not noticed by Brunet; which perhaps indicates that all copies are not like the present. After the fortieth folio which ends the fourth sheet, a single leaf is inserted loosely, printed in a larger type than the rest of the book, for the purpose of supplying an omission made by the compositor. This additional leaf cannot have been added in all the copies, many of which had no doubt been distributed before the error was discovered.
- 6533 GERSON. Opusculum tripartitum de Preceptis Decalogi, per Magistr. Johānem de Jersona—Tractatus Johis. Gerson de Polluce Nocturna—2 parts in 1 vol. sm. folio, hf. bd. edges uncut, 36s
s. n. (Colon. Ulr. Zell, about 1470)

- 6534 BERNARDI (Sancti) Epistolæ; idem de miseria hujus vitæ, etc.; ejusdem Apologia de Concordia Ordinum, large folio, fine copy with several uncut edges, in whole russia neat, £2. 10s
s. n. (Argentorati, H. Eggesteyn, about 1471)
- 6535 COMESTORIS (Petri) Historia scholastica, large folio, fine copy in the original leather-covered boards, £3. sine nota (about 1472)
This magnificent piece of press-work is in the type which Braun erroneously refers to Christopher Waldarfer. It was executed by an unknown Strassburg printer.
- 6536 GRATIANI DECRETALÆ. Incipit Discordantium Canonum Concordia, royal folio, with printed initials throughout, and a Miniature on the first page, a fine copy of one of the grandest works ever printed at Schöffer's press, £5. Moguncie (Petrus Schöffer, 1472)
- 6537 HENRICI ARMINENSIS Tractatus de quatuor Virtutibus Cardinalibus, folio, fine copy in the original leather-covered boards, 36s

Rare first edition of this celebrated Chronicle.

This is the first of the editions described by Brunet, but notwithstanding its priority in the Manuel, it hardly seems probable that it was printed before the Mantz edition of 1491. The treatise "De Urinis" is not found in this copy.

- 6574 COLOGNE CHRONICLE, Die Cronica van der billiger Stat van Coellē, folio, numerous woodcuts, calf, RARE, £12. Coellen, John Koelhoff, (1499)
 This is the work in which Koelhoff the printer gives an account of the Origin of Printing, as described to him by old Ulrich Zell, the first typographer of the city, who was still living. The invention is referred to Johan Gudenburch in 1440, who is said to have brought the art into its perfect form "als dan nu gemeynlich gebruycht wirt" in the year 1450, when he printed the first book—a Bible—in thick characters—"such as now used in Missalbooks." "But the prototype (vurbyldung) was invented in Holland, in the Donatuses which had previously been printed there." This last statement has been the occasion of much controversy, and is really the only morsel of veracious evidence upon which the invention of the art was claimed for Holland.

Gedruckt tho Franckfurdt am Meyn, 1562

This famous Lowdutch book has always been a favourite romance in Western Europe. Whatever was its original significance, it has usually been invested with a satirical and political character; and one of the latest illustrations of this fact is seen in the woodcuts in the above volume. That on the title represents the Fox, in a monk's cloak and hood, holding forth the Rosary and the Bull of indulgences to the cock, while the companion fox is running off with the hen in the background.

Barth (in Pomerania) Hans Witte, 1586-88

Excessively rare. Printed at the private press of Duke Bogislaus, by whom the art of printing was introduced into this town only a few years before. It has been supposed that his editions were but small and merely intended for private distribution; but however this may be, the books he produced are of extreme scarcity and little known. This Bible is the most important of them all.

- 6658 — another, very fine copy, complete in 4 vols. impl. 4to. sumptuously and carefully bound red morocco extra, gilt edges, by Bedford, £50. 1840-50

This is the most important and trustworthy of all the works that exist on the interesting subject of Mediæval Costume. The ideas of most people in this respect are extremely vague, being derived from pretty picture-books of fancy figures, in which nothing like precision or scientific treatment is ever met with. Indeed Hefner's work may almost be called the only safe guide in this branch of Archaeology, which ought to be so attractive to the painter and to the general student of history and manners.

6665 MAXIMILIAN.—THE TRIUMPH OF THE EMPEROR MAXIMILIAN I.
in 135 Engravings on Wood, from the Designs of HANS BURG-MAIR, atlas folio, genuine Original superb Impressions of Sixty-three of the 135 Plates, all cut close, mounted on drawing paper, with a MS. English translation of the ancient description dictated by the Emperor to his Secretary, Marc Treitzsaurwein, in a portfolio, ex-trremely rare in this state, £25. (1516-19 and 1796)

The above copy of this most striking and the finest of the renowned Maximilian Series of Woodcut-books, is printed throughout on a better and thicker paper than the ordinary Large Paper Copies of the same work published in 1796. These early impressions were printed off during the Emperor's lifetime. No perfect set is known of these early proof impressions.

The plates which are especially remarkable for their beauty and clearness are Nos. 1-57, 104, and 120-124; they represent the Musicians, Fools, Hunters, the Army, the Officers of the Household, the Tournament, the Statue of the Emperor Frederick III., Swordsman and Pikemen, and Savages of Calicut.

6665* TRIUMPH OF MAXIMILIAN, 135 woodcuts, ordinary issue, hf. russia, £16.
1796

A most splendid and magnificent volume, exhibiting a very interesting and accurate view of the Costume of the XVth Century, as observed in the Processions of Maximilian the First. Sandrart having seen impressions from a few of these blocks, pronounced them masterpieces of art. They are, indeed, not less remarkable for bold and correct drawing, than for the perfection which they display in the art of engraving on wood.—See Bartsch, le Peintre Graveur, Vol. VII. pp. 229, etc.

TEWRDANNCKHS, folio, 118 beautiful woodcuts by Hans Schünfe- lein and Hans Burghmair, in blue morocco extra, gilt edges, by BEDFORD, £25. (Augsburg, 1519)

VERY RARE, even in Germany; the book being a favourite with collectors in all countries, from the beauty of its woodcuts, the chivalric allegory of the poem, and the extraordinary elegance of its typography, in which graceful curves and flourishes accompany the finely-modelled characters of the letterpress.

- 6671 SCHMIDT (G. F. the famous Engraver) a collection of his Etchings, 52 in number, with 3 of his copper-plate engravings, altogether 55 plates, in fine condition, mounted and bound in one volume, long folio, hf. calf, lettered "Eauxfortes de Schmidt," £84.

Paris, St. Petersburg, Berlin, 1740-74

EXCESSIVELY RARE. It is more difficult to make a collection of the engravings of this great artist than of most others, because of his having lived in Paris, Berlin, and St. Petersburg, and having left the results of his labours behind him at each place. The copperplate engravings are charming works of art, but his etchings will always be more highly prized by the curious, especially those which reproduce the designs of Rembrandt, with whose genius he had much in common. The etchings are besides much rarer; and amateurs are always glad to have the chance of securing at one instant, such a fine collection as is now offered—one which it would otherwise require the research of a lifetime to bring together. Some of the impressions in this series are remarkably fine; some very rare, as for instance the portraits of Schouvaloff, J. B. Rousseau, and of the old man pointing with his finger to his mouth (No. 112 in Crayen's Catalogue). One of the etchings is not mentioned by Crayen. It is a small plate, 3 $\frac{1}{2}$ inches by 3, containing the profile portrait of an old man, with a cloth or handkerchief wound in turban-fashion round his head; wearing small whiskers and beard, but no moustache; his mouth half open; looking to the right of the engraving.

A complete set of Hulsius should consist of 26 parts, but such a collection is of the most excessive rarity, beyond that of even the De Bry series. A copy fetched £335 a few years ago at Puttick's. It is considered that the intrinsic merit of Hulsius is also superior to that of De Bry, greater fidelity and accuracy both in the text and in the delineations having been observed by the former.

The first and second parts contain the Dutch Voyages to the East in 1595-97 and 1598-1600; the third, Barentz and Veer's famous Expedition to the North Pole in 1594-96; the fourth, Schmidel's Relation of South America; the fifth, Raleigh's Guiana; the sixth, the Circumnavigations of the Globe by Magellan, Drake, Cavendish, and Van Noort; the eighth, ninth, and eleventh, Dutch Voyages to the East, 1599-1604, 1604-5, and 1607-12: the fourteenth, Captain John Smith's New England; and the eighteenth, descriptions of the New World by Herrera and others.

These curious pieces are extremely rare, as they must have undergone many vicissitudes of fortune at the time of their appearance. Georg Reichart, a school-master, at Sehausen, near Leipzig, seems to have had his fanatical head completely turned by the miseries of the Thirty-years-War; but there is interesting matter in his methodized ravings, so far as they show the feelings and opinions of the populace of Saxony.

The first book printed by the greatest early printer of the Low Countries, and also the first book printed at Deventer. It is usually called the first with a date; but as Paffroet only began to work in 1477, and no other book bears so early a date, it is necessarily the only one entitled to the distinction above given to it.

Hagæ-Comit., Henricus Hondius, 1619

Suite précieuse de 37 grandes planches, y compris les 3 planches nouvelles, de l'invention de Hondius, représentant des sujets de la Danse des Morts, publiées ici pour la première fois. C'est, comme on sait, la grande cérémonie des pompes funèbres faites à Bruxelles en l'honneur de Charles-Quint, que ces planches représentent; elles ont été gravées en 1559 per Jean et Lucas Dueteom; la grande réputation qu'on fit, et à juste titre, à ces estampes, en nécessita divers tirages pendant la fin du XVI^e siècle; enfin Hondius se procura les cuivres de ces gravures, et en donna une édition augmentée de 3 planches.

Malgré le nombre assez considérable d'exemplaires qu'on a dû tirer de ces estampes, il est difficile de s'en procurer.

L'exemplaire de M. Capron provient de la vente Borlout; il est monté avec soin, et COLORIÉ ANCIENNEMENT. Cet amateur y a fait ajouter un portrait de Charles-Quint, gravé par F. Hogenberg (Hans Liefrinck excud.) vers 1550, et celui de Philippe II, par Morin, d'après le Titien.

Per Gerardum Leeu in opido Goudensi, 1480

The first and rarest of all the editions of these famous Apologues, which were so popular in the fifteenth and sixteenth centuries. The woodcuts are among the most interesting of the early Dutch efforts at book-illustration, and have frequently been copied.

Some of these engravings are in earlier state than usually found. It is well known that one or two later issues exist, bearing slight modifications in the plates. For one of these issues a title was engraved, which is found neither with the earliest nor the latest impressions of the plates.

The first book printed in the Dutch language, and also the earliest which contains armorial engravings, of which there are 246 altogether. It is interesting to compare the types in this volume with some of those used by Caxton: the resemblance between them is remarkable. The elegant woodcut arabesque borders have been slightly cut into.

English Manuscripts.

6988 THE NEW TESTAMENT TRANSLATED INTO ENGLISH
BY JOHN WYCLIFFE, small folio, fine perfect MS.
on VELLUM, being Codex S of Sir Frederick Madden's edition; bound in rough old calf and enclosed in a red leather bag, from the library of the late Thomas Banister, £850. Written about 1390

This precious Manuscript is the only perfect early codex of Wycliffe's work that can ever be offered for sale. It may be regarded as unique from many points of view. Of the seventeen copies of Wickliffe's Testament which are known to exist, fourteen are in great public libraries, the fifteenth is in that of Lord Ashburnham, and the sixteenth is that of Sir Thomas Phillipps. Only eight of the sixteen are perfect, and amongst the imperfect ones is that of Sir Thos. Phillipps. Furthermore, only three copies are known of a date earlier than 1400, and of these three the Banister MS. is the only perfect one. And finally, so far as the prologues to some of the Epistles are concerned, it supplied the only available text for Sir F. Madden's edition. Wearing so many titles of honour, the Banister MS. is a book which must form the central ornament in whatever library shall be graced with it.

Of the 170 MSS. that pass under Wickliffe's name, only the seventeen above mentioned have a right to bear it. They contain the New Testament, the translation of which he completed about 1380; and which is a different version from that usually met with. The latter was an independent rendering executed some thirty or forty years afterwards, the success of which caused the genuine work of Wickliffe to become extremely scarce. Of the Old Testament there exist likewise two differing versions, the earlier of which was in similar manner effaced by the later; but Wickliffe had nothing to do with that part of the Bible. All the facts here enumerated will be found clearly stated and proved by Sir F. Madden in the preface to his edition of the Wycliffite Scriptures.

Amongst the Egerton MSS. in the British Museum there is a Wycliffite Bible, which originally belonged to Humphrey Duke of Gloucester and bears his arms. This circumstance, taken in connection with the words "A vous me ly Gloucester," which are written on the first page of the Banister MS., seems to favour the supposition that we have here the autograph of the good Duke Humphrey, pledging himself to protect the then owner of the book. Wycliffe's New Testament was a perilous piece of property at that time, and only to be kept in secret; even then the holder strove to win assurance of protection from one more powerful than himself.

- 6989 CASSIODORI Senatoris Historia Ecclesiastica ex Socrate, Sozomeno, et Theodorito in uno collecta et nuper de Greco in Latinum translata, large folio, very fine and splendidly preserved MS. on vellum, with elegant painted INITIALS; bound in ancient vellum-covered boards, £36. about A.D. 1220

Written at the famous Augustinian Priory of Gisborough or Gisbourne in Yorkshire, probably in the early part of the reign of Henry III.

The Scribe commenced his work with the heading:—

"Liber sce. Marie de Giseburn."

Not only are early MSS. of this celebrated Church-history—the great handbook of the middle ages—very rare; but the present Codex has a peculiar interest in its pedigree. It is, perhaps, the only MS. in England which bears on its face the record of its derivation from Gisborough—one of the grandest of old English monastic institutions. Gisborough—anciently called Giseburn or Gisbourne—in Cleveland—is not to be confounded with the existing Gisbourne, a small town in the West Riding.

- 6990 HORÆ B. V. M. 24mo. illuminated MS. on Vellum, with borders and several Miniatures, ancient black morocco, gilt edges, £5. about A.D. 1400

The character of the smaller miniatures would serve as additional justification for a belief that this MS. was written by an English hand. The chief evidence however lies in the Calendar, which although scantily furnished with Saints' names, nevertheless includes the chief English ones in red letter. The feast and translation of King Edward the Martyr, both appear thus; as also the two similar records of the Confessor; SS. Cuthbert, Edmund, Dunstan, Wulstan, Aldhelm. A prayer of the venerable Bede is given in the body of the MS.

- 6991 LEICESTER (Earl of). Lawes and Ordinances sett downe by Robert Earle of Leycester, the Queenes Majestyes Lieutenant and Captaine Generall of her Armye in the Lowe Countreyes . . . to be notified to the whole Armye. sm. folio, MS. of 9 pp. official copy, £2. 2s 1586

It was in this expedition that Sir Philip Sidney fell.

- 6992 JAMES I., Proclama'une for quyeting of the Middle Schyris, sm. folio, MS. five closely written pages, an official copy, with seal, £2. 2s

Per actum Secreti Consilii, 1618

Dated at Holyrudhouse, 9 September, 1618. It is a curious ordinance issued for the suppression of the "limmers," who infested the borders of England and Scotland, or as the King calls them, the now middle shires of the United Empire. A list of outlaws is given in the text.

- 6993 CHARLES I. A true copy of the Earle of Carlile his first Grant from the Kinge, (of the Caribbee Islands) . . . entered in the book of the Barbadoes, 9 folio leaves of MS. the official contemporary transcript, £2. 2s Westminster, 2 June, (1627)

- 6994 ENGLISH POETRY: a Common-Place Book containing short pieces and extracts from various writers, 1620-50, including many which are evidently original, sm. 4to. about 110 closely written pp. hf. bd. £4. 4s about 1650

Some are by well known writers, others anonymous and original, and again others by writers whose names are unknown to literary history. The collection comprises, beyond its miscellaneous contents, a few pieces on tobacco, a great many which are indecent, and a collection of epitaphs.

- 6995 LOCKE'S CAROLINA CONSTITUTIONS. Coppy of the Modell of Government prepared for the Province of Carolina, &c. sm. folio, neat MS. of 12 leaves, evidently an official copy from the original draught, the first leaf of text missing, £4. 1669

This extraordinary Constitution was established in Carolina, and prevailed for over twenty-years; but at last the great philosopher's statesmanship was found too impracticable for the government of the Colony.

- 6996 JOURNAL or Relation of what hath hapned in the War between the King of MACASSAR and the Netherlandish East India Company, 1666-69, translated out of Nether Dutch (? by the English minister at the Hague, with an explanatory letter at the end, from the translator to the Home Office?) sm. folio, MS. of about 50 pp. sd. £2. 2s 1670
- 6996*FIRE-DAMP: A collection of about 150 Autograph Letters and Papers addressed to Prof. Philips on subjects connected with Fire-Damp, Colliery Explosions and Safety-Lamps, the lot for 20s

Autographs (all but two English).

This early curiosity formerly belonged to the famous Scottish Poet, WILLIAM DRUMMOND OF HAWTHORNDEN, and has his autograph signature on first and last leaf, and a note that the work was bought at Bourges in 1608. No ordinary autograph this, but a valuable piece of MS., by the greatest of English poets after Shakespeare. He acquired the book while yet at Cambridge, and his memoranda may have been written there in the very year in which "Hours of Idleness" was printed. They contain a review of Shenstone's genius and poetry, with a parenthetical passage in which the character of Dr. Johnson is delineated, and a reference to Burns, all in one sustained note of four pages; besides a memorandum elsewhere concerning the Leasowes, and an epigram of four lines on "thick ancles," which exhibits the young poet in his humorous vein. From every point of view, this memorial of Lord Byron possesses an unusual degree of interest, far surpassing that of the ordinary signatures and short letters by him which have brought large prices at many sales of our time.

"This is one of the most curious and interesting works on the Roman Remains in England. It was published at intervals in numbers, and very few complete copies are in existence." It seems to be unknown to Lowndes. Amongst my bibliographical Index are two slips, one of Lilly, the bookseller, stating that the issue in royal folio, which is smaller than impl. folio, is on Largest Paper, and that only 12 copies were thus printed. The other and earlier slip calls this issue Large Paper only. I have other descriptions of a seemingly ordinary issue in folio size. It is evident the book is extremely rare, and it is undoubtedly highly interesting and important. Two of the plates are mounted.

- 7212 BRUCE'S ROMAN WALL: a Description of the Mural Barrier of the NORTH OF ENGLAND, thick 4to. third edition, xiv and 466 pp. 47 plates and many hundred woodcuts of Roman Inscriptions, Coins, Monuments, Sculpture, etc. hf. bound morocco, uncut, £6. Newcastle, 1867

7212* — the same, folio, LARGE PAPER, hf. bound morocco, £12. ib. 1867
The Newcastle publisher has not a single copy left of either the small or Large Paper issue. This valuable work will soon rise in price; it is certainly one of the best books on Roman Antiquities published in Europe.

The fourth chapter refers to the Trials and unjust executions of Bishop Fisher and Sir Thomas More, and the author deprecates these proceedings in no very measured terms.

This is a most curious volume illustrating the events of the reign of Queen Elizabeth. The work commences with an abstract of the lives and actions of Lord Chancellor Bacon, Dudley Earl of Leicester, Sir F. Walsingham, Sir C. Hatton, and Sir W. Cecil (Lord Burleigh), against all of whom the writer is very furious. It also contains some singular notices of Sir Francis Drake and Sir Richard Grenville, described as pirates and robbers, of Mary Queen of Scots, Earl of Essex, Cardinal Allen, Pole, Cranmer, Earl of Seymour, Sir T. Pope, R. Gage, Duke of Hamilton, Douglas family, Lord Darnley, husband of the Queen of Scots, Sir W. Raleigh, and many other eminent persons.

Carcelli, sm. 4to. portion of border to title repaired in pen and ink, in the original stamped binding, rebacked, extremely rare, £7. 10s

Londini (R. Pynson); 1523

The work is said to have been in reality written by Sir Thomas More, but upon what grounds I cannot state. It would not do credit to that illustrious scholar; the element of low and obscene abuse being prominent in it. However, it forms the third book in the Luther-Henry controversy.

 Except for those who are acquainted with this work, it is impossible to conceive what an exceedingly curious and interesting Ecclesiastical History of Great Britain is formed by this voluminous collection of documents.
